HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Morning, August 6, 1862.

MORE VOLUNTEERS.—A volunteer company from Carlisle and one from Lewisburg arrived here yesterday, and went into quarters at Camp Curtin.

THE SECOND CITY ZOUAVES.—Mr. Alfred Fager has opened a roll for recruits for the second City Zouaves, Capt. Wesley A. W. His flag hangs out at the Exchange, Walnut street.

THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION met at the Court House at 2 o'clock p. m. yesterday to nominate candidates for Congress, Legislature, and the usual county officers.

THE GERMANS.—We understand that a movement is on foot among our patriotic German adopted citizens to raise a volunteer company, to be composed exclusively of their own countrymen.

A GRAND FESTIVAL.—The citizens of Derry and Londonderry townships are to give a festival in honor of the "Derry Fencibles" at Hummelstown next Friday. Several addresses will be made, and a pleasant time generally is expected.

FULL.—Capt. Henderson's company of volunteers—the Derry Fencibles—recruited chiefly in Derry township, this county, is full and will arrive here shortly to be sworn into the service of the United States.

THE FARMERS IN MOTION.—Recruiting offices for volunteers have been opened at Middletown, Hummelstown, Union Deposit, Linglestown, Dauphin, Lykens and Gratztown in this county, and all meeting with a flattering success. The young farmers are coming forward with creditable alacrity, in this, the hour of their country's need.

A HARRISBURGER CAPTURED.—Information has been received here that Capt. C. C. Davis, of the Harrisburg City Cavalry, attached to the Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry, with fifteen of his men, while on picket duty near Manchester, were surrounded and taken prisoners by a superior force of the rebels.

OFFICERS OF THE RUSSELL GUARDS.—The Russell Guards, Capt. Wm. S. Jennings, held an election for additional officers on Monday evening, when Harry Hummel, of Harrisburg, was elected as First Lieutenant, and John S. Morgan, of Fairview, Cumberland county, as Second Lieutenant. The company has received its full complement of men and will go into quarters at Camp Curtin to-morrow.

THE "BUCKTAILS."—Recruiting for "Bucktails" is progressing rapidly, and there is little or no doubt that the proposed brigade of these favorite sharpshooters will be filled at an early day. Application for authority to recruit for the brigade should be made to Major Roy Stone, at the Buehler House, in this city, and be accompanied with proper credentials of character and ability.

WHERE DO ALL THE NICKELS GO?—It was once an interesting and popular inquiry as to what became of all the plies, but the public mind is now more anxiously exercised to know what becomes of all the nickels, three millions eight hundred thousand of which have been coined at the Philadelphia mint, during the past month. The coinage of the past month is, double eagles, $68,620; quarter eagles, $52,400; dollar pieces, $6,000; quarters, $13,200; nickels, $38,000. Total, $178,120. Total number of pieces coined, 3,923,236.

THE STREETS OF OUR CITY presented an unusually lively appearance to-day, reminding one of the stirring times which followed the opening of the great rebellion. The several recruiting stations seemed to be the "centre of attraction," especially with the young men, who are coming forward nobly to the great work of saving our glorious Union. Indeed, the number of enlistments within the last few days, has encouraged the belief that Dauphin county will furnish double the quota of volunteers asked for previously to the 10th instant, in which case permission will be asked that they may be formed into a regiment by themselves, and offered by competent men from the same county. Such an agreement would be once gratifying to our brave volunteers, as well as a credit to the county, and we hope it will be effected.

THE DIFFERENCE.—We want to call the attention of our young men to one or two facts. There is honor and glory in being a volunteer. He who of his own free will responds to the call of his country, and volunteers to fight her battles, wins for himself, however humble his position, a proud and glorious name. In other words, when peace shall have been restored, and the Republic more glorious than ever, those who volunteered in their country's defense, and escaped the mortalities of the service, will be the honored sons of the land.

For drafted soldiers there will be no such honors. Go where he will, fight as he may, the stigma of having been forced in the service will always follow him. He receives no credit for patriotism.

You have your choice. The most of you must enter the service before this war is over. You are the bone and sinew of the country, and the country must have the bone and sinew whether you are willing or not. Will you be men, step up to "the music of the Union," and voluntarily enter the service that you can remain in it without a blush, and retire from it with honor. Or will you wait for the draft, and instead of tramping through the wars with the light tread of the volunteer, carry your musket with a bowed head and slumped face? Now is the time for you to ask yourselves these questions. After next Saturday it will be too late.

THE M'CLELLAN ZOUAVES, Capt. Badvart, are progressing finely, over forty names having already been enrolled. Young men desiring to fall in with the Zouaves, can have that opportunity by calling at Banvart's Drug Store, Jones' Row.

THE BOAS GUARDS.—H. Clay Alleman and Joshua Westling, Esq.'s, have opened rolls for a volunteer company to be called the "Boas Guards." Their offices are located in Third street, near Market, and Walnut street, near Third.

THE REMAINS OF LIEUT. AARON SULLIVAN.—The remains of Lieut. Aaron Sullivan, formerly of this city, and a lieutenant in the Ninth Pennsylvania Cavalry, who was killed at Tomkinsville during the raid of Morgan, the noted rebel guerrilla, into Kentucky, have been recovered, and were expected to arrive at Pittsburg yesterday. They will at once be forwarded to Butler, where his relatives reside.

THE WAR SPIRIT FULLY AROUSED.—Still Another Company in Harrisburg!—The Old and Steady Men Coming to the Rescue!—Louis Yancy, who served with credit through the Mexican War, and was Lieutenant in the old Cameron Guard, believing that his country needs his services, has commenced raising a company, to be called the Dauphin Rifles for nine months or during the war. Recruits may be enrolled at the Brady House, at the Park House, at Mr. Yancy's place of business, 102 Market street, or at C. J. Jester's paint shop, ally, near the Court House.

THE STATE EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION met in the hall of the House of Representatives at the capital, at 10 o'clock a. m. yesterday and organized by electing Chas. B. Coburn, of Bradford county, President, Rev. S. P. Bollman, Vice President, and Samuel McElhone, of Jefferson, Secretary. The attendance was much smaller than at the session last year, which is ascribed to the excited condition of the country. A resolution was passed providing for three sessions a day, the first commencing at 9 o'clock, A. M., and terminating at 12.30, the next at 2.30 P. M., and terminating at 5 o'clock, and the third commencing at 7.30 P. M. and terminating at 9 o'clock P. M. The subject of Teacher's Institutes was discussed in the morning session at great length, and was continued at the afternoon session. Among the delegates present are a number of ladies.

A SECOND ROLL OF HONOR.—The Telegraph Office Takes the Pains in the Combat of Valor and Devotion to the Government!—We have never felt so proud of the craft, as we do at this moment. It is a pride founded on our confidences in and regard for a class of men with whom we have been long associated, and whom we had long respected for their social virtues and mainly integrity. This association is about to be interrupted for a while—we trust to God only for a little while, during the time that the following men, only yesterday busy at their cases, will be absent doing duty for the government in the army of the country. The list embraces:

- GEORGE W. BENCO, HENRY C. DEMMING, BENJAMIN E. DAILEY, THOMAS W. FORTY, LEVI M. HARRISON, JAMES D. CULP, J. ALTON WHITESIDE, JAMES BARRINGER, EDWARD FOUGHT. These are young and active men, most of whom have seen service, and know what it is to handle the shooting stick, while all are ardent for immediate and active duty in this field. Wherever they go, they will carry with them the good wishes and kind regards of those who remain behind to contribute to the success of the country through the medium and influence of the TELEGRAPH, while each man has the honest assurance of the proprietor and publisher of this journal, Mr. George Bergner, that the situation they have thus voluntarily given up, will always be held at their command, when their term of service in the army has expired, or they have been honorably discharged.

Again, we repeat, God bless the gallant men who compose the Roll of Honor of the TELEGRAPH office!

RELIEF FOR SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—The following letter from Rev. Dr. Smith, well known for his services in the hospitals at Washington, has been received by the "Ladies Relief Society for sick and wounded soldiers" of this place:

WASHINGTON, August 4, 1862.

The wants of our sick and wounded soldiers are, daily, in articles not supplied by the Government, and which can be met only by a careful, personal distribution.

Clothing they have, or can have, sick and wounded men need very little of these. Pot, you know sick men need good food—vegetables, fruit, oatmeal, fresh eggs, good fresh butter with sweet well baked bread, and many other things which they do not get.

I have been every day in hospitals since April 1861, and know that what the sick and wounded most need, are not thought of by persons at a distance, or by any who do not see with their own eyes. My heart is sick to see so much that I cannot relieve. I have a man servant who does nothing but attend sick men with articles of food, which Mrs. Smith prepares in her own house and distributes with her own hands. Indeed she and this servant attend to nothing else. We are all much worn down, and still the demand continues: May God help us in these times of need—of treachery and dishonesty.

I am in the Lord Jesus Christ your friend and fellow laborer.

JOHN C. SMITH.

It will be seen by the above what is especially needed in such places as our hospitals at Camp Curtin and elsewhere, and the publication of it will be useful in guiding the benevolent.—Contributions of any of these things can be sent to Mrs. S. D. Ingram, Market street, President of the Society. As vegetables and fruit are now abundant, these can be supplied at small expense. Perhaps some of our farmers who see this notice, and are not called on much, would be glad to supply some of the above wants.

RECRUITING GOES BRAVELY ON.—Our townsmen Captain Wm. F. Jennings of the Russell Guards, (and favorably known as 1st Lieutenant of the Lochie Greys in the three months service) has his company, the minimum number, nearly full, but as he intends to raise it up to the maximum number, now is the time for young men to join a first class company—and any little fixes in Dry Goods that you may want for the campaign, can be procured at the cheap Dry Goods House of UNION & BOWMAN, Front and Market Sts.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges comparison. Without going into details we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted), and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are efficient and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatsoever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer. A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchase or not.

We have received a very large assortment of Hoop Skirts, all qualities and prices, from 75 cents up to $2.50; 25 dozen of Marseilles Shirt Braces, Collars and Cuffs to match, the whole set for 25 cents, worth 50 cents; 10 boxes of Ribbon for dress trimming, all colors; 5 boxes of Belt Ribbon, all colors; a large assortment of linen and needlework Collars, and sets of collars and sleeves; a large assortment of white Cambrics, muslins, figured and plain Swiss Muslin, Brillianta, Nanooks. The finest lot of embroidered French Cambric Bands ever brought to Harrisburg; 4 pieces of striped goods for Under-shirts; 200 embroidered Infant Waists at all prices; 20 pieces of Black Silk Lace, all prices, some 2 yard wide suitable for dress lacing or trimming of lace shawls; Lace Mitts at all prices, 25 cents up; 40 dozen of ladies and gentlemen's linen pocket Handkerchiefs. For wholesale customers we keep a large assortment of hosiery and notions, such as Spool Cotton, Thread, Needles, Pins, Stockings, Socks, etc., etc. S. LAZAR.

From the Rev. Dr. Hodge and the Rev. Dr. McGuff, Professors in the Theological Seminary, Princeton, N. J. I have for several years been intimately acquainted with the Rev. Thomas W. Cattle. He has had charge of two of my sons, and I can safely say I have never known any one in whose fidelity and devotion to his pupils, I have equal confidence. He is a good scholar and a successful teacher. I know no one who has a greater over than a better influence on the minds of his scholars, or who exerts over them a more powerful influence. I am aware of the responsibility in speaking in such terms of commendation of a teacher, but I am satisfied of the high merits of this gentleman, and I am therefore in a state to speak in praise of him, in all the language which I have at my disposal. CHARLES HODGE.
