PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION AT HUMMELSTOWN.

OUTPOURING OF THE PEOPLE.

Yesterday was a gala day for the citizens of this ancient borough and its vicinity. The peo ple were assembled for the purpose of bidding the noble young men of old Derry township an old fashioned farewell.

SCENE IN THE TOWN.

The side walks and streets of the borough were clowded with foot passengers and vehicles of all kinds from the surrounding country. The oldest settlers were on hand with their wives and children to witness the departure of their sturdy relatives and neighbors, and at the same time relating their own experience during the revolution and the war of 1812, urging the men of the present age to do likewise.

THE PARADE.

Capt. Henderson soon formed his men into line and paraded up and down the Main street, and we must here make the candid remark that finer body of men were never mustered into the service of the United States. They halted about the middle of the borough, where the roll was called, and some one hundred and twenty answered to their names, who were sworn into the service of the United States by H. C. Alleman, Esq., who had been deputed for that pur-

After the religious exercises, the soldiers and friends were invited to a long row of tables, which were filled with choice catables, and all which had been bounteously provided by the UMBRELLA MANUFACTORY citizens of Hummelstown.

After dinner the procession was re-formed and marched directly to the depot, where, after waiting nearly an hour, the soldiers, accompa
