HABBISBURG, PA Wednesday Morning, August 18, 1862.

The non-commissioned officers and privates ley Awl, were each be paid the sum of fifty dollars yesterday from the county bounty fund.

Found .- On Wednesday, in the post office. a small amount of money, in bank notes. The owner can have the same by proving property, paying charges, and calling at the post office.

THE LUSEBNE COUNTY quota of volunteers numbering, we should judge, about one thousand men, arrived here yesterday and went into quarters at Camp Curtin.

OMISSION .- The names of Messrs. Daniel E. Martin and John Bitner were accidentally omit service.

CORRECTION .- In noticing the return of Mr. George Swartz to this city on Monday, we inadvertently stated that he was attached to the Ninth Pennsylvania Cavalry. It should have read the Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry, Col. Wynkoop.

THE ABSENCE OF OFFICERS from duty, by an order of the War Department, will hereafter affect their pay. Every officer thus absenting himself from his command, will be docked. This is one of the best orders that the Depart ment has issued.

ANOTHER NEW COUNTERFITT .-- A daugerous counterfeit 5 of the Commercial Bank of Glenns Falls, New York is in circulation here. Three of them were detected yesterday at one of the banks. Genuine notes of that bank are not shovers.

FIRE | FIRE !! West arrested at Williamsport, Pa., last Saturday. and stopped over night at Herr's Hotel, in this city, in the custody of a United States Marshal, charged with trying to evade the draft; were taken back to Baltimore on Monday morning, where they were examined by Gen Wool, who ordered the entire party to Fort M'Henry

ROBBED AT THE DEPOT. - A stranger from Lock Haven had his pocket picked yesterday at the Pennsylvania Bailroad Depot, of a Portmonnaie containing between $80 and $100, mostly in U.S. Treasury notes, one $20 gold piece, a promisary note for $888, and a lot of papers ted in the list of employees at the State arsenal of no value to any person but their owner. A who have volunteered in the nine months' reward of $20 is offered for the recovery of the stolen property.

LIEUT. HOBACE PORTER .- The fellowing extract from the letter of a young officer in South Carolina to his sister in Norfolk, will doubtiess be read, with pleasure by Lieut. Porter's friends here. It is a just tribute to his worth :

"I am glad you saw Horace Porter. He is a noble fellow and well deserves all the honor paid him. I see by the papers he was ordere to report to Washington and was assigned to M'Clellan's army, where he will doubtle s distinguish himself as he has done in this department. For weeks before the taking of Pulaski, ease, he was hard at work in the swamps and marshes of Typee, toiling through the long hours of the night in building batteries and In circulation here; and all notes on it should be refused, and measures taken to arrest the future before him."
