PEOPLE'S UNION STATE TICKET.

AUDITOR GENERAL: THOMAS E. COCHRAN, of York County.

SURVEYOR GENERAL: WILLIAM S. BOSS, of Luzerne County.

HARRISBURG, PA. Thursday Morning, August 14, 1862.

MOVEMENTS OF GOV. CURTIN.

The Governor of Pennsylvania left the state capital to-day for Washington city, where he goes to confer with the President in regard to the military organizations of this Commonwealth.

It is the desire of Gov. Curtin, if the acquiescence of the War Department can be had, to postpone the time fixed for the draft.

When Doctor CHEEVER lectured in this city, some months since, we denounced the spirit and the sense of his lecture, because we believed his course to be mischievous.

Another and a still more important object of Gov. Curtin, is to induce the War Department to vest townships, boroughs, towns, cities and counties credit for the men recruited thus far, so that the draft can be graded for such localities.

Let us hope, as well for the system of recruiting, the cause of the Union and the objects of justice, that Gov. Curtin will be entirely successful in his mission to Washington.

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Gen. JOHN O. KNOX, President of the Union State Convention, composed of loyal citizens of Pennsylvania, which assembled in this city on the 17th of July last, announces the following:

- Philadelphia: Morton McMichael, John W. Fory, Geo. W. Hamersly, P. F. Smith, Geo. N. Courson, Eos Prizer, W. H. Aney, Diller Luther, Charlesburg Tower, F. F. Penman, B. F. Powell, D. H. Coskilo, C. W. Hawkins, Stephen Gould, John Youngman, Alexander B. Anderson, David Fleming, Samuel Slogon, Peter Martin, D. Wilson Grove, Robert G. Harper, M. A. Sencer, Samuel McCann, J. F. Meredith, George V. Lawrence, Bob. B. Carnahan, R. P. White, J. H. Robinson, James Hill, Ames Myers.

These familiar with the members of this committee, will at once admit the fitness of every man for the duty to which he has been called.

Let us hope, as well for the system of recruiting, the cause of the Union and the objects of justice, that Gov. Curtin will be entirely successful in his mission to Washington.

very first regiment organized will be commanded by one of her sturdy sons. Col. WM. W. JENNINGS, a native of this city, formerly a Lieutenant in the three months' service, latterly drill-master and commander of Camp Curtin, and in every respect a true and loyal soldier, has been appointed, on the unanimous recommendation of all the officers in the regiment, by Gov. CURTIN, to lead the brave men composing this regiment.

Capt. H. C. ALLEMAN, of the Boss Guards, has been promoted as Lieutenant Colonel. He too has seen active service as Major in the three months' service, and will make an accomplished and true officer, not only to the men under his immediate care, but to his country.

Capt. LAM, of the Carlisle Infantry, has been promoted as Major. He, too, is a good and true man, and will do honor to the post assigned him.

Russell Guards, Capt. Wm. W. Jennings. Derry Fenibles, Capt. Jas. Henderson. Harrisburg Guards, Capt. John J. Ball. Boss Guards, Capt. H. C. Alleman. Carlisle Infantry, Capt. John Lee. Shippenburg Guards, Capt. Jas. Kelson.

The Russell Guards, Harrisburg Guards, Boss Guards and Patriotic Club, were recruited in this city, whilst the Derry Fenibles were from good "old Derry," a township that never falters in a good cause.

The loyal citizens of Harrisburg raised the first subscription for the volunteers. And now Dauphin county sends out the first regiment for the war. Let other counties and cities do the same, and the rebellion will soon be at an end.

From our Evening Edition of Yesterday

FROM GEN. POPE'S ARMY

Further Particulars of the Battle of Cedar Mountain.

THE REBELS BADLY WHIPPED.

Jackson admits a loss of 2,000 men.

The flight of Jackson's army has been reported to have been complete. The reinforcements, which were sent from here last night to assist our troops at Independence, have returned.

Great excitement exists here in consequence of this defeat, and everybody is preparing for the conflict.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 12.—A battle took place at Independence yesterday, about three o'clock, between 350 Federal troops, under Lieut. Col. Buell, and from 600 to 800 guerrillas, under the notorious Col. Hughes, assisted by Quantrell and Hayes, resulting in the complete rout and surrender of our troops.

The loss on either side is unknown. It appears that the town was surprised about 8 o'clock in the morning. A simultaneous movement was made upon the camp, Buell's headquarters and the Provost Marshal's office, which were some distance apart.

The provost marshal's office was entered by citizens professing loyalty, and the arms were taken out and used against Federal troops.

The troops, who were almost without officers, hotly contested the ground, sheltering themselves behind trees, fences, stables, &c. Capt. Thomas, of the militia, was taken prisoner, almost at the outset.

At one time, it is reported, the guerrillas were about giving up the ground and retiring before the destructive fire of our men, and accordingly had Capt. Thomas brought to the house where he was confined, and shot dead.

At this juncture a white flag appeared at Colonel Buell's headquarters, when the rebels returned and took possession of all who remained.

Most of the prisoners were paroled by taking the oath not to take up arms. All who were present agreed in stating that there were no mounted pickets stationed outside of the town that night.

A large quantity of arms, and some 20,000 rounds of ammunition, besides other government property, fell into the hands of the rebels.

On the receipt of the news of the surrender of Independence here, this city was thrown into a great state of excitement.

All business houses and saloons were closed, the militia was called out, and guards promptly placed around the city.

A call was made for reinforcements from Fort Leavenworth, which was promptly responded to by Lieut. Col. Burris, who arrived yesterday at 4 o'clock, P. M., with four companies of infantry and two of cavalry, and ten pieces of artillery.

Major Ramon, commanding the 6th Kansas regiment, also arrived in due time from the Southeast. The entire force under command of Colonel Burris left this morning, at 8 o'clock, in pursuit of the enemy.

Lexington, Mo., Aug. 12.—Later advice from Independence says that Lieut. Col. Buell, commanding that post, with 850 men, was completely surprised at about 5 o'clock yesterday morning. Buell's men were in the bank building, which, after four hours' hard fighting, was fired by the rebels, who then surrounded the main part of the town.

Important from Missouri.

Surrender of Independence Mo., to the Rebels.

Lexington, Mo., August 12. The town of Independence was attacked yesterday by a force of 1,600 rebels, under Col. Hughes and Cantrell. After an hour's severe fighting, the United States troops surrendered.
