During the absence of the committee Hon. James 8. Hale addressed the meeting in favor of sustaining the government and providing a bounty for volunteers.

The committee reported r solutions pledging an earnest support to the Government, mourn ing the loss of our brave sons who have fallen and directed to raise the sum of $10,000 to be paid in bounties to those who may volunteer.

A subscription book was opened, and in less than two hours the sum of ten thousand dollars was subscribed, and tendered to the Com missioners of the county, they giving their notes, payable in three and five years with six per cent. interest.

H. N. McAlliser, Esq., also spoke on the subject, and there were a number of gendemen who came forward and put down their name on the roll for a company.

There are several persons in different parts of the county hunting up recruits, and I think it will not be long before Old Centre will have her quota in the field. The samers are now engaged in taking in their crop, which is very heavy; and as soon as that is done, there will be a large number to join the army. Yours respectfully,

The Dispatch has a terrible story about Unionists suripping naked old residents of Virginia and whipping them unmercially for expressing disloyal sentiments.

Evidently, much apprehension prevails in Richmond and uneasiness regarding the movements of the federal armies. county.

The object of these moves is a matter of consideration. It is possible that troops are passing by that route from M'Glellan's army to the Rappahannock.'

All the federal officers, in number about 140, taken in the recent battles before Richmind, including General McCall, Generals Reynolds and Bankin are to be sent down the river to day under a flag of fruce.

The subject of our river defences, says the Dippack, is one which has engaged alike the attention of our own Government and of the enemy—the one to defend, and the other to selze day under a flag of truce.

The Dispatch also reports that the arrival

A Lieutenant of an Indiana regiment, who has been a prisoner at Richmond, arrived here last night. He reports that when he left Richmond, on the 12th inst., there was about twenty ladies in prison there. the key to the city of Richmond.

One thing remains to be done, in order to place beyond all question the impregnability of Richmond in this its only vulnerable quarter.

It is to fill the river with one continuous line of obstructions from Rockett's to Drury's Buff. making Richmond, at least during the continuance of the war, an inland city.

The enormous preparations of the enemy for assault by the river must be met by corresponsions.

ding preparations for resistance. It is well known that batteries, however formidable, are not to be relied on against a combined attack not to be relied on against a combined attack of land and naval forces. Our cert.in, reliance, in connection with the batteries, is to seal up the James river up from Rockett's to Drary's Bluff, constructing a double track railrad between the two points to supply the place of the river in transportation.

This is not our own suggestion; but that of the best in the market in every respect, to eminent naval authority, and we call to it the gether with all kinds of immediate attention of the Government and LAMPS, SHADES, BURNERS, WIOKS and city anthorities.
