Col.: Ricketts was well known to many of our citizens as a brave and accomplished officer in the three months' service, and formerly commandant of Camp Curtin. He death was caused by consumption.

COL. SIMMONS' WAR. HORSE.-By reference to an advertisement in this evening's TELEGRAPH, it will be seen that the war horse of the lamented Col. Simmons is offered for sale at Colis of pure blooded stock, and is the one presented to the gallant Colonel by his regiment, as a testimonial of their regard for him as a man and soldier. The animal is sold for the benefit of the Colonel's widow.

PANORAMA OF THE REBELLION - Its Exhibition To-night -From the large number of tickets already disposed of, and the great anxiety everywhere manifested by our citizens to witness the additions made to the great panorama of the rebellion, its exhibition to-night at Brant's Hall promises to draw an extraordinary large audience. CAPTAIN GEORGE B. FAIRLAMB, of Bellefonte marched a splendid body of men into Camp Curtin vesterday morning. This company was bers one hundred and fifteen, the excess being to provide for any contingency that might arise from the strict rules of examination. The other officers of the company are George A. Bayard, First Lieutenant, and Second Lieutenant, Jacob Valentine. A short time after the train which conveyed this company to our city had left Lewistown, it was discovered that one of the cars was on fire. Great confusion ensued at once among the men on board, and as it was an ordinary freight car, with side, instead of end doors, i was a considerable time before the engineer could be apprised of the fact. In the excite gine was stopped, the train was four or five miles from the locality at which the man sprang from the car proportion his fate. It and upsable, however, that he was instantly

Another Important Order.—By direction of Maj. Gen. Wool, the provost guard of the city will arrest and bring before the provest marshal, Capt. Kleckner, any officer and soldier who is found in the city without proper authority, who will examine the cases, and send to camp under guard every officer and soldier who belongs there. A MEAN AND COWARDLY ACT.—We are informed by Mr. J. A. Swartz, of Mechanicsburg, who has enlisted in the First City Zouaves of this city, that during the early part of this week was about twenty-five years of age, and his while he and his wife were in this city, some cowardly miscreant obtained entrance into his house, and broke open a bureau, where he had placed the $50 bounty he had received, and stole about the half of it. THE SHOOTING CASE -The notice in last even ing's TELEGRAPH in reference to the shooting affair in the Sixth Ward, it appears was slightly erronious. Mr. Alcorn, who was arrested charged with the shooting, is a Scotchman, and uot an Irishman as previously stated. The individual who was shot is a colored man, named Wm. H. Williams; and Mr. Alcorn alleges that he committed the act in self defence. Williams having attacked him and threatened to burn his stable. Williams has since been arrested for assault and battery and attempted arson.

To the Afflicted.

The undersigned would respectfully in form those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsy, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to fornish Mrs. Westhoven's German legetable Medicines at very moderate rates. I have also en hand a quantity of invaluable Salves for Sore Eyes, Frozen Feet and Piles. References can be furnished as to their wonderful efficacy, whenever called upon. There need be no apprehension in regard to my competency in administering it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front.
