HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Morning, August 20, 1862.

Our usual local variety is excluded to-day to give space to the proceedings of the Union County Convention.

TO OFFICERS.—Military swords, sashes and belts can be obtained at the Merchant Tailor Store of Geo. W. Glover, Market street, a few East of Third.

THE DROUTH.—Powell's Valley and parts of Lebanon county have been favored recently with refreshing rains, but other portions of the county are suffering from the drouth, and the corn crops will be seriously injured should it continue much longer.

ORGANIZATION OF A REGIMENT.—The one hundred and thirty-fourth regiment was formed at Camp Curtin on Monday. The companies composing it are from Butler, Beaver and Lawrence counties. Its field officers had not been appointed this morning.

SOMETHING TASTY.—The restaurant under Wyeth's Hall, has been remodelled and much improved, and is now one of the neatest establishments of the kind in the city.

PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTION.—Loyalty Academy, located in Perry county in this State, has given a striking example of attachment to our glorious Union. All the students in the institution, with the exception of one or two, have enlisted under their former efficient principal, Captain D. Tresler, and are now in Camp Curtin, ready to march in defence of their country.

AN Omen of Success.—A short time ago a beautiful phenomenon was observed on the moon about twelve o'clock at night. A brilliant vail composed of white, red and blue encircled the moon, which, whilst it excited the admiration of all who saw it, on account of its brilliancy and beauty, was regarded by many as an omen of the speedy triumph of our glorious country's flag.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A serious accident happened to Mr. John Bolton as he was returning home from Linglestown on Saturday afternoon. It happens that as he was descending a hill, a portion of the harness broke, causing the horse to take fright, and whilst attempting to stop the animal he was kicked in the breast, causing a very dangerous wound, and a copious flow of blood from his mouth. Yesterday he was still living, but his situation is thought to be critical.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Thomas Freeman, a brakeman on the Northern Central Railway, was killed on Friday at the summit, about twenty-one miles this side of Baltimore. The train in which he was breaking became separated by the breaking of a coupling, and the rear portion striking heavily against the front, he was thrown off and instantly killed.

A YOUNG LADY SHOT BY HER BROTHER.—A young lady, a daughter of Mr. George Dunkel, residing a few miles beyond Linglestown, was recently severely wounded by the discharge of a gun in the hands of a younger brother about eight years old. It appears that the boy was under the impression that the gun was not loaded, and snapped it at his sister for amusement or to frighten her. Unexpectedly the gun was discharged, inflicting a dangerous wound in her side.

MATCH GAME OF BASE-BALL.—The much-talked-of match game of base ball between the Keystone Club of this city, and the Mountain Club, of Altoona, will take place at 10 o'clock this morning, on the grounds of the Keystone Club, a short distance above the Round House. The nine selected by the Keystone Club are Messrs. C. Gempel, Head, McGarvie, Frish, Wallace, Grooms, Snodgrass, Williams and Hunt. S. D. Young, scorer.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition. Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted), and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer. A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchase or not.

A Card. As no newspaper will be issued in this place for some days, I take this mode of meeting series of base slanders on me, which appeared in the columns of the Harrisburg Telegraph, of the 16th inst., over the signature of "WRITERS," and dated at this place, the 18th.

So far as the malicious epithets applied to my Father, by this concealed and cowardly author are concerned, I am not permitted to speak; nor have I any explanation to make, of the inaccuracies of an article that appeared in the Patriot and Union of the 11th, to which "WRITERS" assumes to reply. Those inaccuracies show sufficiently that the article was not dictated by any member of my family or by any intimate friend. But it is the specific falsehood of "WRITERS" about myself that I desire to meet.

When speaking of the tender of service to the Government by my old company, he says that when the company had resolved to go, "Young Bigler was of course compelled to yield and accompany his company;" thereby forcing the inference that I had been driven into the line of battle. No imputation could be more unfounded and unjust. So far from this, very many citizens, if not all know that I was amongst the first to declare my determination to go, and that I elected myself to the utmost of my influence thereafter to raise the company, and have it accepted by the Government.

Then again, he says that "a few hours before the commencement of the seven days fighting at Richmond, this valiant young Bigler resigned and took up a position far away from the line of battle." On the point the original of this slanderer has defeated his purpose for every military man knows that a resignation does not release the officer until it is accepted; and how could the resignation be sent to the proper Department, be considered in its turn, with hundreds ahead of it and returned in a few hours? With this complete answer I could drop this point; but it is due to truth and myself that the circumstances connected with my resignation should be known.

goods, that if the man who has slandered me, because he bears political malice towards my Father, will give the public his proper name, it will appear that he has never served his country in the field, a day or an hour in his life; and I hereby brand him, whoever he may be, a slanderer, poltroon and coward, and pledge myself-if, that whenever he comes on from his cowardly retreat, and gives me his name, to convince him that there is quite as much courage in my blood as he will choose to deal with.

JOHN W. BIGLER. CLEARFIELD, Aug. 16, 1862.

To the Afflicted. The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dropsy, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Gout, Fever, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates. I have also on hand a quantity of invaluable Salves for Sore Eyes, Frost Feet and Piles. References can be furnished as to their wonderful efficacy, whenever called upon. There need be no apprehension in regard to my competency in administering it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Fine street, between Second and Front.

MRS. L. BALL. Mrs. BALL.—In justice to you, and from a desire to promote the welfare of the community, I take great pleasure in stating, what this medicine has done for me. I was afflicted with the Rheumatism for about one year, and was unable to walk, sit or stand with comfort. I took medicine from different physicians without obtaining discoverable relief. I finally despaired of my recovery, as did also every person that saw me. Your tonic strengthened my stomach, removed the swelling and gave me a first-rate appetite. I now enjoy good health, and would recommend all to give it a trial. My store is in Third street, three doors from Market.
