The blade of the weapon is of the finest ever offered to the public; let them be tried, dirty stamps, and, if greasy, a few grains of soda or saleratus, and in a few hours you can take them out with the faces of the Revolutionary fathers as bright as the cleanest.

Major Lyon, U. S. Paymaster, is in the city, relieving the wants of our sturdy volunteers by paying them their accounts as far as they extend with the government. He is an accomplished and affable officer, and is of course very popular with the volunteers.

Passion and Reason.—Somebody says that our soldier. passion is older than our reason, because passions are born with us, but reason don't follow until a long time after. This is a slander upon all babies. When a baby is spanked, don't he company formerly commanded by Maj. Lawholler? Yes. And hasn't he got a reason? Yes-and a mighty good reason, too!

BIG CORN.—Rev. Mr. Maher, has now growing in the yard attached to his residence, in State street, several stocks of corn measuring at least twenty-feet high. The seed was presented to Mr. Maher, by the late Rev. Father M'Crosker, who brought them from Port Boyal. South Carolina. The stocks promise an abundant yield of corn, and are altogether quite a country have gained a like reputation, and it is curiosity.

Woor is now higher than it has been for forty-four years. This is owing to the large demand for army goods, and to the advanced price of cotton. It will not so soon fall so low again as it has been of late years. It would pay our Dauphin county farmers to give more attention to the raising of sheep for the fleece. Many portions of the county are peculiarly adapted for this purpose. What say our farmers? Who among them will give us some information on this subject?

A Suggestion.—It has been suggested that in view of the times and the necessity of the people being prepared for any and every emergency, that each of the wards and townships form tary knowledge, and that one afternoon of each week be fixed for the purpose of taking practical lessons upon the subject. The plan strikes us as a good one, and every borough and township should at once adopt it. Let the thing be

THE EXECULMENT is progressing as rapidly as the officers can push it forward, and will be completed in a very short time, when we will know exactly what proportion each district has furnished and must furnish, and will be ready for the draft to be made. All persons should be careful to give every item of information called for by the officers, as every man in the service counts one to our credit on the draft, and makes our proportion so much the less. To the Afflicted.

The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheuma-tism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates. I have also en hand a quantity of invaluable Kidney, Commonwealth vs. John Rosch, selling Salves for Sore Eyes, Frozen Feet and Piles. References can be furnished as to their wonderful efficacy, whenever called upon. There need be no apprehension in regard to my com-petency in administering it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front. MRS. L. BALL. Au13 d1m
