ABRIVAL OF THE IRONSIDES.

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug. 27. The new frigate Ironsides, which left Phila-delphis on the evening of the 21st, arrived here last night, and now lays at anchor off the Fortress. Her massive and imposing proportions attract great attention, and there is much curiosity as to the object of her visit to these waters. The steamboat Arrowsmith, under charge of Major Bowles, of General Dix's Staff, left here with a flag of truce yesterday morning for Ai-ken's Landing, with 92 rebel prisoners of war —among them Captain Lee, who was captured at William burg—to be exchanged. Another dash was made by White's cavalry on Capt. Means' company, in the town of Waterford, early this morning, and resulted in killing and capturing the most of the federal cavalry under Capt. There are reports of thousands of confederate soldiers marching to the Junction, (Manassus). As to the truth of the Waterford raid, that has been confirmed; as to the great moving on the Manassas Junction, it comes from such a source that it appears creditable.
