HARRISBURG, PA. Saturday Afternoon, August 30, 1862.

STRANGERS IN TOWN.—In glancing over the register of one of our hotels this morning, (Messrs. Coyle & Herr's,) we find the daily arrivals for the last twenty days to have reached the very large number of 3,000.

RELIEF FOR THE SICK AND WOUNDED.—H. W. Hoffman contributed on Wednesday last, a lot of tomatoes, corn and squashes, and to day five baskets of tomatoes. Also, Mr. Jacob Millesen a crock of apple butter.

DISLOYAL EDITORS IMPRISONED.—The Express published at Jackson, Ohio, has been suppressed and its editors put in Limbo for opposing sentiments, Dr. C. H. Peters, of Fairfield Co., Ohio, has been arrested in Indiana and brought to Columbia, for treasonable practices.

FRUIT THIEVES.—This being the fruit season, thieves who are committing their depredations in various localities of the city and county, should remember that they are subject to a fine of $50 and imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding sixty days.

A PREVENTIVE AGAINST MOTHS.—A preventive against these summer depredators on woollen cloths, and also an agreeable perfume for all kinds of clothing, may be made of equal parts of cloves, nutmeg, mace, and cinnamon, all ground and mixed thoroughly, and sprinkled over the garments when packed a way.

NEWSPAPER PRESENTED.—The Grand Jury of Crawford county have presented the Crawford Democrat, published at Meadville, by Thomas W. Grayson, Esq., as a nuisance. They at first attempted to find Mr. Grayson amenable to the law against treason, but failing in that, they presented the paper as above stated, praying the court to take action for its suppression.

AN ITEM FOR BOYS.—Last week in a train running from Freshburg to Vienna a boy, apparently under ten years of age, travelling with a grown-up person, lit a cigar and happened to be smoking it when the guard came round to collect the tickets. As the one held by the boy was only a half price one, the guard remarked that the directors considered all smokers as men, and required the boy to pay full price. The elder traveler was accordingly obliged to pay the other half of the price for his young companion. The fast youths in this city will take notice, or they may be caught in a similar trap.

YOUNG MEN, ATTENTION!—Captain Geo. A. Brooks, of the gallant 46th, which suffered so severely in the late battle at Cedar Mountain, August 9, expects to rejoin his regiment in the early part of next week, and is desirous of securing before his departure as many able-bodied, sober young men as possible; either for his own company from this county, or any other company they may select.—The usual bounties will be given, and those connecting themselves with this regiment will share the glory it has already achieved in more than one well fought engagement, and receive the care and attention which only experienced officers can give men in active service, where they require so much.

Capt. Brooks can be found at the store of Bell & Bro., corner of Second and Chestnut streets.

REMEMBERED AND MOURNED.—For every man who falls in battle, some one mourns. For every man who dies in hospital wards, and of whom no note is made, some one mourns. For the unlamented soldier shot on picket, and of whose humble exit from the stage of life little is thought, some one mourns. Nor this alone. For every soldier disabled; for every one who loses an arm or a leg, or who is wounded, or languished in protracted suffering; for every one who has "only camp fever," some heart bleeds, some tears are shed. In far-off humble households, perhaps, sleepless nights and anxious days are passed off which the world never knows; and every wounded and crippled soldier who returns to his family and friends, brings a lasting pang with him. Oh! how the mothers feel this war! If ever God is sad in heaven, it seems to us it must be when he looks upon the hearts of mothers. We, who are young, think little of it; neither we think, do fathers or the brothers know much of it; but it is the poor mothers and wives of the soldiers. God help them!

SAD OCCURRENCE.—A boy who.—The Jones-town Tribune says: Just as we were about closing our form to go to press yesterday evening, we were informed of a most lamentable occurrence—the accidental shooting of a young man by a companion. The facts are briefly these: A young man named Gillis Hartzell was out grinding on Thursday, and in coming home along the Somerset road in the afternoon, in company with two other boys in a wagon, they were overtaken by a young man named Soaf, who carries the mail between Jones-town and Stoytown. After riding in company for some time, (the boys meanwhile having their fun with each other) Hartzell, under the impression that it was empty, pointed his gun at the man, and playfully told him, if he did not have himself he would shoot him. The young man disregarding the threat, kept on with his fun, when Hartzell levelled his gun at him and pulled the trigger, when to his amazement, it discharged, and Soaf fell from his horse. Upon examination it was discovered that the ball had taken effect in his face, and that he was already quite dead. Hartzell remained with the body until the Somerset hack came along, which took up the body and brought it to town. Hartzell came along and gave himself up. He claims that he had a distinct recollection of discharging his gun, but had no recollection of having again loaded it, and was under the full impression that it was empty when he said he would shoot.

BEAUTIFUL LEGEND.—There is a beautiful legend illustrating the blessedness of performing our duty at whatever cost to our own inclinations. A beautiful vision of our Saviour had appeared to a monk, and in silent bliss he was gazing upon it. The hour arrived in which it was his duty to feed the poor of the convent. He lingered not in his cell to enjoy the vision, but left it to perform his humble duty. When he returned he found the vision still waiting for him and uttering these words—"Hadst thou staid, I must have died."

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.—A young man named Obadiah Forsh, residing at Millwood, was killed on the Pennsylvania railroad on Wednesday night. He had been attending prayer meeting at Hillside, and returning by the railroad about the time the first line was due, he became confused in some unaccountable manner, so as to remain upon the track until the train was approaching. The engineer did not observe him until within a few yards of him, and then it was too late to save him. The locomotive struck him, throwing him some distance off the track, and killing him instantly. His remains were conveyed to Hillside and an inquest held, which terminated in a verdict of accidental death.

RELIEF FOR THE SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—A meeting of the ladies of Harrisburg was called, in order to adopt more efficient plans than are now used to give relief to our sick and wounded soldiers. We have no doubt the meeting will result favorably. It is the duty of every woman, whether she has friends in the army or not, to aid in every way she can to aid the cause. Who would not save a soldier's life that could? Many poor fellows die for the necessary food, care and clothing in hospitals. Now is the time to prepare. While fruits are plenty, let them be canned and dried in abundance. Let the work of sewing and knitting be commenced and followed up industriously by all. Let your friends, who have recently departed for different battle fields, see in your present activity an earnest of future care and support. It will serve to strengthen their hands and encourage their hearts, and inspire them with increased zeal in the service upon which they have entered.

UNION REPUBLICAN COUNTY STANDING COMMITTEE.—The Chairman of the Union Republican County Committee announces the following gentleman members of the same.

The members of the committee are requested to meet at the house of Benj. Buck, in Harrisburg, on Wednesday the third of September, 1862. ALEXANDER KOSER, Chairman. SAMUEL K. SARCH, Secretary.

LET US STAND TOGETHER.—Yes, let all good citizens, all true patriots, in Dauphin county and elsewhere, STAND TOGETHER. It will be a sad day for the nation when the loyalty of the people has been displaced by jealousy, and they can think with any calmness on the possible overthrow of the Government. The secession which is willing to disturb the attachment of the masses of their institutions, is more pestilent than open treachery. It deserves the reprobation of every lover of his country, for it dispirits the brave men who are now in the battle-field, and prevents the enlistment of others. It is a sinister support of open rebellion. When the country has been saved, and our noble officers and soldiers have been delivered from imprisonment—when the Union has been restored, and the Constitution preserved, and the great aspirations of loyal men have been realized, and then we can plan for the future, and settle the principles which are now in doubt. But in this day, and in this hour, brace the courage and sustain the nation's loyalty. LET US STAND TOGETHER.

PROTECTION IN CASE OF A DRAFT.—In view of the fact that the draft will fall with severe hardship upon many men with large families, we see that several projects are recommended as protection in case of being drafted. It is suggested that fifty or a hundred men, liable to the draft, form themselves into an association, pledging each other that in the event of any of their number being called upon to quit their homes, they will subscribe sufficient to keep the absentees' families in the same amount of comfort and ease as that to which they have been accustomed. There are tens of thousands of our fellow-citizens incapacitated, by age and other causes, from serving their country in this her hour of need, and yet would gladly enroll themselves as members of such associations. Bachelors, too, in many instances, would not refuse to participate in a movement which would render assistance to some of their married acquaintances; while, at the same time, their own claims upon the general fund would be little or nothing. The expense to each individual in such associations as those proposed would be comparatively insignificant. A hundred members subscribing fifty cents each, weekly, would, with the soldier's monthly pay, support comfortably three families, if not more; and three or four per cent. is as much as would be drawn from a hundred men under the draft. It is highly improbable that the ratio will exceed this figure, if it even equals it.

GREEN CORN.—The Germantown Telegraph says green corn may be preserved by packing it tightly in casks or barrels and covering it with brine strong enough to keep cucumbers. The corn should be taken with the husk on—Corn thus prepared, if kept covered with brine, will keep in good order for a year or more, and will be sufficiently fresh for the table when boiled.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—Like a skillful commander, Col. Sanford has so posted his great army of talent at the Opera House that not a person can escape the effects of a pain in the side, each time that his force charges upon them with their bright scintillations of wit and humor. This effective company receive reinforcements next week, when another advance will be made—not in price of admission—but in quantity and quality of amusement. Sanford's representations of the "contraband" are great.

GREAT FIRE AT WRIGHTSVILLE.—Last night witnessed the scene of a most destructive fire at Wrightsville, the loss at which is by some estimated at $70,000, and the origin of which is said to have been incendiary. The losses, as furnished by a friend and reliable correspondent, are about as follows—making allowance for reporting in the hurry and confusion consequent on such an occurrence:

- Messrs. Baidler and Johns' lumber yard, $10,000.
Messrs. Weiser and Merryman jointly lost in lumber about $6,000.
Messrs. P. A. and S. Small, loss on tobacco stored in warehouses of J. S. Pusey, about $30,000.
Messrs. McConkey & Co., loss estimated at 1,600 bushels corn and 500 bushels wheat.
Messrs. Wm. S. Boyd & Co., loss in groceries, etc., about $300.
J. S. Pusey, loss of several warehouses and other property, some $6,000.

From these losses, some idea of the extent of the conflagration may be formed; the loss is immensely heavy considering the size of the town. To the exertions of the Columbia firemen is due the preservation of the surrounding property, much of which was barely saved by their untiring efforts; as well as the even more important affair of the Columbia Bridge, the destruction of which is supposed (from various circumstances) to have been the main object of the incendiaries. It was on fire several different times, but the flames were each time extinguished by the noble firemen, and the structure saved without much damage. The ladies of Wrightsville found their sphere in the good work, and cannot be too highly commended for their active efforts in furnishing the firemen with refreshments while at their arduous task.

Many believe that Secor's was interested in the matter, as the destruction of this bridge would have been a hindrance to the rapid transportation which is demanded in the present state of the times. We would recommend that the utmost vigilance be exercised, and if the villains are caught, we must try to have summary justice meted out to them.—Lancaster Daily Express of 29th.

THAT PATRIOTIC SERMON.—From the correspondence published below, it will be observed that the Rev. Thos. H. Robinson, of the Presbyterian church, has consented to repeat a sermon delivered last Sunday on the "State of the Country," on next Sunday evening. We have already expressed our opinion in words of admiration upon the sermon delivered by this talented minister of the gospel, and at this time only direct special attention to the letter of Mr. Robinson in reply to that of Governor Curtin and other prominent gentlemen. His letter speaks for itself in language not to be misunderstood. Let every one read it.

HARRISBURG, August 27, 1862.

To the Rev. T. H. Robinson, Dear Sir:—The undersigned, believing that a repetition of your sermon, delivered on Sunday last, would be productive of a happy and beneficial effect, respectfully solicit you to fix a time and place at which its delivery can be attended by the entire community.

We cannot refrain from joining with this request, the expression of our admiration for the able manner in which you have defended the cause of the Government in this, the darkest hour of its peril. It shows that the patriotism of the pulpit is as influential for victory as are the struggles in the field; for, without its approval and prayerful aid, the success of the best cause would be rendered indeed uncertain.

Your friends, respectfully, A. G. Curtin, A. L. Russell, D. Washbaugh, W. W. Irwin, Thos. T. Wierman, John J. Pearson.

HARRISBURG, August 27, 1862.

To His Excellency, Gov. A. G. Curtin, Gen. A. L. Russell, Hon. J. J. Pearson, W. W. Irwin, T. Wierman, D. Washbaugh, Wien Forney, C. S. Davis, C. L. Bailey, W. T. Hildrup, Theodore Adams, Henry Gilbert.

GENTLEMEN:—If any words of mine can strengthen that cause which is dear to every loyal citizen, I should hold myself false to country and to God if I declined to utter them whenever any of my countrymen called for them.

Accept my grateful acknowledgements of your kind words, to myself personally. Believing, as I do, that the firmest support which Government can possess is found in the conscientious adherence of its subjects to it, as an ordinance of God, I deem it my imperative duty, as a minister of the Gospel, to use my position in quickening the patriotism and loyalty of the people, by feeding their enthusiasm for country with the fuel of high christian principle and intelligent duty. I would have it understood, now and forever, so far as my voice can reach, that human government—or National Government—is not a toy to be sported with capriciously, or a child's play-house, to be built up and pulled down at pleasure, but an institution built up in the name of God, and by his authority, and that the highest voice of christianity calls upon all people to vindicate Government as God's ordinance, to restore the supremacy of law, and to brand rebellion as equally a sin against God and a crime against men. It will give me pleasure to repeat the discourse upon next Sunday evening, Aug. 31st, in the Presbyterian Church, corner Market Square and Second Street. Yours, very truly, T. H. ROBINSON.

THE END OF THE WORLD ANNOUNCED.—There is a man in Cleveland, Ohio, who announces that the world will come to an end on the 17th day of August, 1863, and on that day a mass convention of the whole earth will assemble at Cincinnati to settle up the business of the past and arrange matters for the future.

EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS TO ENLIST.—The Cleveland Leader announces that a very pretty young lady of that city, offers to kiss any able bodied, good looking young man who will enlist. Improving on this idea, the editor of a Wheeling paper suggests that some of our pretty, rosy-tipped young ladies offer to marry each of the young men as will enlist after they return from the war.

THE XXIVTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—At a meeting of the Conference at the Monongahela House, yesterday, Dr. John W. Wallace, of Lawrence county, was nominated for Congress in the 24th District, composed of the counties of Lawrence, Beaver, Washington and Greene. Dr. Wallace served in Congress last session, and appears in his votes to have given his constituents much satisfaction.

Capt. Speese's Cavalry Company. MR. BARBER:—It is impossible in the multitude of military operations at this time, to notice all the particular movements and organizations worthy of note, but will not allow me to say as the opinion of a party of visitors to Camp Curtin last week, that that military company which had just entered a finer corps than the cavalry company of Capt. S. Speese of Cumberland county. By the efforts of the Captain, this was recruited in a few days for the Thirtieth Pennsylvania Cavalry, whose headquarters are now at Baltimore. In visiting the Camp, your attention will at once be attracted by the fine, manly forms of the men, and especially by the military and gentlemanly bearing of Capt. Speese, whose zeal and activity in the cause are equalled only by his courage. We learn that he has considerable experience in the cavalry drill, and are sure that his company will be a valuable accession to Col. Gallagher's regiment.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 29, 1862. Mr. Editor:—I have no remedy by which the Northern Central railroad company can be made to stop running scrap heaps of engines through Mulberry street! The residents of that street are kept continually in alarm by them passing through the street. There is not a time that them scrap heaps go through but they set fire to one or more houses, last evening to two different houses, and this morning there was three houses set on fire by them. The Washington and Friendship fire companies were called out twice this morning, and the last time the Washington Hose company just got water on in time or we would have had a large fire. Some of the residents say they have done all in their power to prevent them, and if there is not something done soon, that they will take the law in their own hands and tear up the track. Can railroad companies do as they please in Harrisburg? It looks a great deal like it.

REMARKS.—We advise our correspondent to lay his claims before the Superintendent, Mr. DuBarry, who will no doubt remedy the complaints, if it is in his power to do so. EDITOR.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock exchanges connection.—Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted), and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer. A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchase or not.

WE HAVE received a large assortment of hoop skirts, from 75c. up to $2.50. A large assortment of hats and needwork collars, and collars and sleeves, at all prices. White cambrics, jaconets, nankas, brilliants, and plain and figured Swiss muslin, at all prices. The finest lot of embroidered French cambric brands ever brought to Harrisburg—of Infant's waists we keep a large assortment. Ladies' and gentlemen's linen pocket handkerchiefs, ladies' stockings, gentlemen's one half hose, and children's stockings of all descriptions and prices. Twenty pieces of carpet to be sold cheap. Kentucky jeans, satinetts and cassimeres for men and boys' wear. We received 60 dozen suspenders, at all prices. 60 dozen cotton handkerchiefs, with borders, and a great many other notions and small wear.

To the Afflicted. The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that he is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates. I have also on hand a quantity of invigorating Salves for Sore Eyes, Frozen Feet and Piles. References can be furnished as to their wonderful efficacy, whenever called upon. There need be no apprehension in regard to my competency in administering it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front. Ault-dm MRS. L. BALL.

Mrs. Ball.—Six years since I was afflicted with the dyspepsia, liver complaint and inflammatory rheumatism. Physicians failed to afford any relief. I then took of your vegetable medicine and was cured in a short time. Two years after I took the fever and ague, and again you cured me. I am now entirely restored to health. I have no hesitation in declaring that I believe they are the best family medicines ever offered to the public; let them be tried, and their virtues will speak more for them than I can. My residence is in Pine street between Second and Third. MARY M. ZAROE.

TO THE YOUNG OR OLD. If you have been suffering from a habit indulged in by the YOUTH OF BOTH SEXES, WHICH CAUSES SO MANY ALARMING SYMPTOMS, I can give you relief. And is the greatest evil which can befall MAN OR WOMAN. See symptoms enumerated in advertisement, and if you are so afflicted, send for it at once. Dicksy is dangerous. Take no other. Cure guaranteed. 174-42c.

PURIFY THE BLOOD.

Not a few of the worst disorders that accumulate in the blood. Of all the disorders that have been made to purge it out, none have been found which could equal in effect. TAYLOR'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SASSAPARILLA cleanses and purifies the blood, restores the vigor of the system and purges out the humor which makes disease. It stimulates the functions of the body and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood. It is extraordinary in its virtues and not yet widely known, and when they are it will no longer be a question what remedy to employ; in the great variety of ailments, diseases that require an alternative remedy. Such a remedy, that could be relied upon, has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of more than a few lines, but the trial of a single bottle will show its efficacy. It is a virtue surpassing anything they have ever known. Sufferers from Scrofula, Scrophulous Swellings and sores, Itch, and see the cure with every bottle. Skin Diseases, Pimples, Eruptions, Bores, Eruptions, etc., are soon cured out of the system. St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or St. Vitus's Dance, or Salt Rheum, cold Head, Atrophy, etc., also not to be borne while they can be so speedily cured by AYER'S SASSAPARILLA. Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of the Sassa-parilla, and the patient is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Syphilis Diseases are caused by scrofula in the blood, and are generally soon cured by AYER'S EXTRACT OF SASSAPARILLA. 100c per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5. For all the particulars of a family physician, take AYER'S EXTRACT OF SASSAPARILLA, which is everywhere known to be the best purgative for the blood, and is offered to the public at the lowest price.
