THE NEWS.

The accounts which we publish to-day, explain as fully as it is now possible to do the late movements and present position of our army. The facts are not, says the Baltimore American, such as we had hoped to receive, but they must be accepted with a patriotic hope and a stern determination to right what has been wrong, and to renew the struggle with more of men, of means, and of equipment than even the lavish patriotism of the country has yet furnished-Practically the position of affairs before Washington is that which existed before the Army of the Potomac commenced its movement on Richmond, with, however, the additional burthen of the loss of prestige and of men attendant upon the miscarriage of the campaign .-Our whole army is now within and around the fortifications of Washington, whilst the rebels occupy their old position at and around Ma-

These are the whole facts of the case, and we do not seek to diminish their importance. But even to this unpleasant picture there is an aspect in which it furnishes encouragement. The Capital is not in danger. It is too strongly fortified and guarded by too large an army to permit the rebels the least hope of taking it by Gold Pen and Pencil with Rubber Holder, $7 00. assault. To take it by siege involves much time and great labor, and invites a contest in which all the advantages of heavy ordnance and abundant supplies would be overwhelmingly on our side. The rebels will, therefore, be compelled to a repetition of the inaction which has characterized their former lodgment at Manassas, or they must attempt the offensive by an invasion of Maryland. The former course would give time for the arming and drilling of our new levies, the latter is so surmounted by difficulties and dangers that it must, in the end, encounter defeat. PENS AND HOLDERS Our own experience has shown the difficulties that surround an army operating far from its base of supplies and in a country partially or wholly hostile. The moment the rebels gross the Potomac they, will become exposed to the ame disadvantages and perils. In the meantime it is pertinent to reflect that our army has neither been defeated nor annibilated. It has been subjected to a trying ordeal, to had generalship and many disheartening influences, but the damage done is not irreparable nor the past irretrievable in the future.

WASHINGTON. FROM

POSITION OF THE ARMY. COLONEL BERDAN SLIGHTLE WOUNDED.

THE CITY QUIET.

Washington, Sept. 4.

The work of getting the army into a good position in front of Washington has been accomplished with entire success, many of the troops now occupy positions a short distance from those of last fall and winter. The Division of Maj. Gen. Fitz John Porter, composed of Brigadier General Morrell, Martin-dale, Butterfield and Griffin, have their tente pitched near the camp grounds of last year.

Lieutenant David B. Smith, of the New York. State volunteers, Col. Murphey commanding, against whom charges had been preferred by the Colonel, has been honorably dismissed from the service by order of the President in a Special Order No. 275. The chain bridge, the timbers of which were, it is reported, removed several days ago, was to-day made use of for military purposes—faciltating intercourse between the Virginia and Marviand shores.

Col. Berdan is not so badly wounded as was first supposed. He was stunned and his left shoulder blade badly bruised by a piece of shell, but he is still on duty with his regiment.

The city maintains its calmness:

ANOTHER PIRATE APLOAT.

CAPTURE OF SEVERAL MERCHANT VESSELS

NEW YORK, Sept. 4. The bark Prentis, Capt. Hobbs, which arrived from Matansas to-day, reports that an iron clad war steamer had arrived at Cardenas on the 19th, flying the rebel rag.

Our consul at Havana, Gen. Shofeldt, placed despatches aboard the bark to be delivered at Key West, but although she lay off Key West lighthouse with a signal of distress flying, no notice was taken of her, and the despatches were mailed to day from this port. The privateer has already captured several merchant vessels, although they were heavily armed. In a cruise off the Bahamas her captain told the authorities that she was a rebel war steamer without a name. She is undoubtedly the Oviets.
