There has been a great deal of conjecturecalousy as both conjecture and dissatisfaction, as to who should be, who would be or was the hero of the war. We have all devoted too much talk and composition to the subject. If the energy displayed in the pursuit of a hero had been devoted to the proficiency of individuals in a knowledge of the sciences of war, or the secret of discipline and drill, we would have had a soldier in reserve in every man in the country. Our extravagance on this subject, has taught us some disgraceful lessons. While we have been deifying one man or another, other men have been impelled to neglect their duty by their jealousy, until the commands of the army almost became the instruments of tested their qualities of inactivity, rashnes sheer neglect or utter incapacity for the performance of a duty. The people themselves had much to do with this condition of affairs among the officers of the army, because the people created the rivalry by the deifycation of their favorites, and for the disaster, if we dare call it such, which has thus far attended the movements of our armies, the people interferring with the actions of our commanding gen erals, are to blame. Instead of the war having been carried on by the War Department, it has been conducted by civilians, in criticism, oral and verbal, or by that sort of suggestion which had a tendency to expose the plans of the commanding generals, giving to the enemy the advantage of such knowledge, and enabling him in a dozen instances, to anticipate some of the most important movements of our, army. We all know that this is true. We there is barely time left to correct the evil. Hereafter, the people, the press, orators and reachers, must permit our commanding generals to go about the performance of their duty membarrassed by suggestion or criticism. The crisis will produce THE MAN. Sermons or editorials cannot create a hero. Loquacious faultfinding will not repair disaster or supply ability to those presumed deficient. Or this faultsembled in Sunbury on Friday, completes the finding we have had more than sufficient. I have only these few words to write, that our regiment is comfortable encamped, and the men are all well. When this is said, all is told that relates to the men personally. But a word or two in regard to the manner in which they are being disciplined, will not be out of place. The One Hundred and Twenty seventh is now equal in point of discipline and drill, to that of any new regiment in the field. It is devoted to the service, and when the opportunity is afforded, will give a good account of itself, in battle with the I have only these few words to write, that our

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS REL-ATIVE TO THE DRAFT.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, Harrisburg, Sept. 6, 1861.

Commissioner of -Siz:-You will herewith receive a copy o General Orders No 121, issued by the War Department, giving particular instructions as to the care and organization of drafted men, or of volunteers received in lieu of drafted men. You will examine the orders carefully and carry out their directions faithfully.

The quota for your county to fill the several requisitions made upon this State by the War Department, is men.

You will apportion this quota to the differ ent townships, boroughs and wards in your county, in accordance with the enrolment made by the Marshals, of men subject to military duty. It will not be made however, until the appeals are held, and the claims to exemption are decided, as it cannot be justly apportioned until the exact number of men actually subject to military duty in each district is ascertained.

When the proper proportion of each sub-di-vision of the county is determined, in accordance with the men actually subject to military duty, you will ascertain from the enrollment the number of men each district has now it the service, and credit it therewith on its quota. In this credit, men enlisted in the regular army, in the marine service, black smiths, bridge builders, carpenters, teamsters, clerks, &c., and men enlisted in regiments of companies organized under the laws of other States, are not to be embraced. You will credit only for men enlisted in the volunteer regiments and companies recognized and com-missioned by the Governor of this State.

You will also observe carefully, to guard against the same men being credited in two districts. In some instances, young men whose parents reside in one district, have been laboring or temporarily residing in another, and there enlisted; and they may be credited on the enrolment in both. When you detect any such case, give the credit to the district where the person enlist was pursuing his lawful calling or residing at the time he collisted, without regard to the residence of his parents.

If any districts in your county have furnished more than their quotas, you will ascertain the aggregate of such excess, and apportion it as a credit to the other districts of the county, in accordence with the envoluent.

If any companies or squads of men in your county have been mustered into the service of the United States since the enrolment was made. you will, if possible, procure copies of the rolls of such companies or squads, and credit them to the proper districts in which the men resided.

Although the orders of the War Department required the enrolment of all men between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, the militia laws of this State exempt from military duty, all persons under twenty one years. You will therefore, when holding appeals, erase from the list, all persons who establish the fact to your satisfied as the private Box 25 cts. faction, that they are under twenty-one years. You can examine such persons under oath, when you are not otherwise satisfied.

You will at once give notice by hand bills that on the 15th day of September, you will proceed to draft for each district, the number f men necessar to fill its quota, unless the dis trict furnishes the men as volunteers on or be-fore that day. State in your hand-bills distinctly, that each district can offer volunteers to fill its quota on the day the draft is to be made, and thus obviate the draft entirely. Such volunteers may be offered you at any time. but you are not authorized to subsist them until the day fixed for the draft.

Should you find it impossible to make the draft on the 15th of September, you will notify the Governor by mail or telegraph, as may be necessary, and name the earliest day on which it can be made. Upon satisfactory assurance will not enable you to make that due diligence will not enable you to make the draft on that day, the time will be extend-ed, but the extension will not exceed five days. For special instructions as to how you will proceed to make the draft, you are referred to General Order No. 99, of the War Department, already furnished you. All necessary expenses to complete or facilitate the draft, including printing, clerk hire, &c., will be paid by the United States government. Such expenses will be distinctly stated in your bill, to be made out in duplicate against the United States, verified by affidavit, and retured to this office for approval.

You will have printed as many copies of the following notice as you believe may be needed in your county, and deliver one, with his name written therein, to each man exempted on the Arms will be distributed to the organizations so to be formed, agreeably to the provisions of that act.

It is further recommended, that, in order to give due opportunities for drill and instruction, all places of business be closed daily at three o'clock, P. M., so that persons employed therein may, after that hour, be at liberty to attend to their military duties.

The cheerful alactity with which the men of Penusylvania have hitherto given themselves to the service of the country, has pressed heavily on her military resources.
