THE SITUATION.

Our advices up to noon to day assure us positively that the rebels had not made their ap pearance at Hagerstown, nor is there any positive information that they had left even Freder ick. A lady direct from Frederick, who was Gen. Johnson, states that the rebels were making large purchases, but that they paid for all their goods in rebel scrip, and not United States Treasury notes as our despatches all.dgs. She further states that they would not receive any other money in change except United States Treasury notes, thus virtually robbing clarations and accused us of being alarmists. the citis ins of their property under the pretence of paying for their goods in reb-1 money, which is everywhere in Maryland regarded as worth less. Our forces are on the march, and we expect to hear every hour that a successful onslaught has been made. Their outpost cavalry temned. But the present is proving that our was repulsed by Gen. White, and a number of fears were well grounded. We now believe horses and equipments captured.

treason, as it could have been had the conferees sworn allegiance to Jeff. Davis. As Mr. Miller is claimed by his friends, to be extensively and highly personally popular, he will of course resign his position as one of the clerks of the Supreme Court. Departing from the responsibilities and respectability of that position to become the candidate of a treason tainted clique, he owes it to the dignity of the body which he represents, and the boast which his echoes make for him as to his popularity, at once to resign, and show that he has faith in himself. If he does not, we call on the Judges of the Court to remove him, as being guilty of undignified conduct, and insulting the respectability of that body, in thus allowing the name of one of its officers to be used by a faction whose highest aim is to sow confusion and embarrassment among those who are enpermitted to leave the town by a pass from deavoring to restore the nation to peace, vindicate the power of the government, and enforce the law which those Judge's have sworn to administer and sustain.

IT IS NOT BAFE to report the death of officers or men in the army, because an announcement of death is scarcely made, a panagyrice pronounced, or an obituary written, before the dead are announced as living. A few weeks ago, Col. Coulter, of the immortal 11th regiment P. V., was declared to be dead, and we expressed our regret at the loss of so brave an officer ; whin lo I the next intelligence was to the effect that the Colonel was alive, as emulous as ever of brave deeds, and as full of fight as any man in the service. Again, the sad news is sent thrilling with the rebel army back again within sight of the been beard from our troops at marpers form the paragraph from the Sunbury Gazette: "In the midst of our present sore disasters, we have been beard from our troops at marpers form and Martinsturg, who are cut off for; reinforce ments by the movement of the enemy toward Frederick.
