A NOBLE MOVEMENT.-The following petition is now circulating in this and other cities of the loyal States. A perusal of the sontiments which it embodies, and a fair and just consideration of the purpose which it contemplates, will at once convince all true women that it health a trial. I know several who have tried it, and must either succeed in its object, or still more dire disaster must overtake our efforts to rescue the land from rebellion. The President must sep 3 heed this petition, if he desires to convince the nation that he is all the nation believes him to be, faithful to his official duties, patriotic in his political desires, and true in all things which relates to truth, virtue and temperance. We trust that this petition will bear the name of every true women in Harrisburg.
