HARRISBURG, PA.

Thursday Afternoon, September 11, 1862.

CAPT. HAND, of the Lochiel Cavalry, is at present in the city. We understand that he has resigned.

A NEW YORK REGIMENT passed through to-day. It was a fine body of men under the command of Col. Gurnsey.

RAIN seemed to be struggling to descend all day, but beyond an occasional drizzle, the earth was unreluctant. We patiently await the capricious showers which the earth so apparently needs.

SWORD PRESENTATION.—An elegant sword, handsomely mounted and properly inscribed, was presented to Major J. A. Mathews, of the 46th Penn. regiment, on behalf of the citizens of Lewistown, on Monday evening last.

WANTED, A DOMESTIC to do the general housework of a small family. Apply at this office from 8 o'clock in the morning to 12 o'clock, noon. None but those who can come well recommended need apply. s-p10-3t.

CHARLES GREEN, of the Dauphin County Regiment, (Col. Jennings' 127th), arrived in this city to-day, and reports that the health of the regiment is excellent, the men being also actively engaged in the various camp duties of drill and preparation.

THE OFFICIAL REPORT.—As a matter of history we publish to-day, the official report of Gen. Pope, relative to the late battles in front of Washington, we have no time nor inclination to read over the reverses again, but refer our readers to the document itself. It will form a part of the history of the present war.

THE TRAIN from Chambersburg brought a considerable number of passengers from localities beyond that town, from whom we learn that the excitement and panic in that direction are intense and fearful. We also noticed with the same train, the influx of a large number of contrabands.

IN THESE PERILOUS TIMES, when everybody is wondering what he shall do with his money, we feel like giving our advice on the subject, which is to look out for the sale of good Real Estate and invest money in that. It is an article which the rebels cannot destroy or take away, and is always worth the money.

SANTOR'S OPERA HOUSE.—This institution flourishes like a Bay Tree, the management loses no light to offer attraction, notwithstanding Uncle Tom is the after piece. The Drawing Room Concert offers a new selection of songs, among which will be found a new song dedicated to the Bucktail brigades.

Hurray for the brave sons of Crawford, May they to the colors prove true; Hurray for the sons of old Abraham, And three cheers for the red, white and blue. This will be sung for the first time this evening by Mr. Batchelor. The programme this evening excels in novelty. On Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock a grand afternoon performance for the accommodation of ladies and children, and those unable to attend during the evening. A reduction for schools and large parties will be made by applying to Mr. Sanford.

THE SIGHTS which are daily witnessed in our streets, of the devotion of the brave and loyal, should be sufficient to arouse the sympathies, awaken the enthusiasm and open the treasures of every citizen. "All that a man hath will he give for his life." These men have given that, and who can withhold the sympathetic purse string. The Bounty Fund needs it; the Bereaved and Deserted; the county needs it, and our duty to, and love for ourselves and our reputation deserve it. If the volunteer deserts the standard on the field we are taught to despise him for his cowardice. How humiliated would he be could he turn upon us and say, "you deserted me and mine who was appointed to bear the standard and brave the death." O! let those who have faltered until now arise with the picture of that departure in their eye, inquiring not of the policy of the ruler or the cause of the war, and the God of battles will bless the heart and magnify the hand.

THE OMIH and THE DRAFT.—The Lewistown Gazette says that during the week between the publication of that paper of the 27th and 30th September, it received information that certain loquacious demagogues were industriously at work among the Omiah and other denominations holding religious scruples, telling them that their voting for Lincoln had brought on the draft, and that now they would have to go to war contrary to their creed, and hundreds of other misrepresentations to be found in the mouths of those who supported Buchanan and his Cabinet of traitors long after the Southern conspirators had commenced the war. We will add here that the position of the Omiah is much misunderstood. Their creed is, that bearing arms is unrighteous; but recognizing the authority of our government, they are willing, first, to bear their full share of taxation and contribute liberally towards putting down the rebellion, or cheerfully to submit to any fines that might be imposed; and secondly, that as they deem it as wrong to furnish a substitute as to go themselves, they would take the latter alternative, if compelled to do so. Such was the language used to the editor of the Gazette by numbers of that denomination; and it appears to us that in claiming a privilege given them by the Constitution of Pennsylvania, no reflecting man will cast censure on them any more than he will on the able bodied minor who claims exemption under mere legislative enactment for being under age, or the able bodied man who claims it on the ground of being over forty-five.

APPOINTED.—In consequence of the excitement we neglected to notice the appointment of Israel Gutelius, Esq., from Snyder county as commissioner to superintend the drafting. Mr. G. will make an excellent officer and discharge his duty faithfully.

UNFOUNDED RUMORS.—The town was again filled last night with all sorts of rumors. The telegraph wires on the Northern Central Railroad were for awhile out of order, one of the telegraph poles being injured below Parkton, but at eleven o'clock all was reported to be right and the cars were running as usual.

ATTENTION.—The citizens of the Fourth Ward of forty-five years and upwards, not already members of any military company, are earnestly requested to call at Alderman Macglaughlin's office and enter their names, to form a company for home defence or any other duty they may be able to perform.

THE LOCHIEL CAVALRY.—Forty-eight men belonging to the Lochiel Cavalry reached this city last night, being a party of paroled prisoners, who had been captured between Lexington and Frankfort, by the rebel Gen. Kirby Smith. These men are on their way to Annapolis, where they will await an exchange, and after which they will again report to the regiment. They all look as if they had seen hard service and needed rest.

ATTENTION.—Persons not attached to regular ward organizations, and wishing to muster under experienced officers—men who have been teaching military tactics ever since the war broke out, in this city and Philadelphia, will find a muster roll at this office, where names will be received during to-day, and will meet for drill this afternoon. The company will be supplied with arms and accoutrements immediately. Immediate action is necessary, and this is a good opportunity for patriotic persons to obtain rapid knowledge in military tactics.

MEETING OF THE STATE MEDICAL BOARD.—The State Medical Board for the examination of candidates for the post of assistant surgeon in Pennsylvania regiments, assembled this morning in the Hall of the House of Representatives at 9 A. M. The Board consists of Drs. Jas. Stewart, of Indiana, Jno. Lyon, of Williamsport, Trull Green, of Easton, and Surgeon-General Henry H. Smith. The candidates numbered two hundred and ninety-eight, and after registering their names were placed at the desks, both of House of Representatives and Senate Chamber, filling both halls to their utmost capacity. The candidates are an intellectual class of men, embracing many of our well known physicians throughout the State, some of whom have been in practice over fifteen years. They all seem zealous to contribute their services to our troops and aid in the defeat of the rebels now threatening our firelands. The demand for State medical officers has lately been very marked, one hundred and sixty having been assigned to duty within the last six weeks. The rapid formation of regiments has left some of those who recently were sent forward supplied with only one medical officer for a few days, but as the troops were all located in the neighborhood of large hospitals near Baltimore and Washington, no inconvenience has ensued. After to-day the hospital department of the State bids fair to have a supply, fully equal to any number of regiments that our patriotic volunteers can form, and of an usual high grade of professional talent. It is understood that assistant surgeons, who have been months on the field and prove themselves worthy, are to be promoted by the Governor, and their places supplied by these fresh assistants, a most excellent movement and one that is in accordance with the course pursued by the Executive in the other departments. New regiments will thus at once obtain experienced surgeons familiar with the regulations of the service and the routine of the War Department, whilst the new assistants, by being associated with those who have been in service, will have their usefulness much augmented.

Tribute of Respect.

CAMP OF 56TH REGIMENT, PA. VOL., Beaufort, S. C., Sept. 1.

At a meeting of company G, 55th Regiment, P. V., (Robert's Guard, Harrisburg), the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:— WHEREAS, It has pleased Divine Providence to take from among us to take from among us two of our most esteemed comrades—John Mack and George Sanno while—in the full vigor of manhood, and after a few days illness; And whereas, at the time they were called hence by the Great Ruler of the Universe, to give an account of their actions while on this earth, they were periling their lives in defence of the Union; Therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of John Mack and Geo. Sanno, this company has lost two of its best and most upright members, whose untimely end we mourn and whose memory we cherish.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere sympathy to the relatives and friends of the deceased comrades, but we must bow to the will of Providence, who doeth all things for the best, and to whom we must look for consolation in the sad hour of affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the families of the deceased, and that they be published in the "Patriot and Union" and "Telegraph," Harrisburg.

PENNSYLVANIA'S PROTECTION.—The citizens and government of the United States is essentially different from any other people or government on the face of the globe, even the boasted freedom of England is protected by a standing army. Here in the United States every citizen is a soldier within himself, from the love he has for his country and in the determination to protect his rights. It is not strange then to see the outpouring of the citizens from every city, town and village throughout the State, and our word for it, the Home Guards will form no men protection. It is important, however, to be provided with arms, for shirts and material for coats and pantaloons, all of which can be had at the cheap dry goods house of UNION & BOWMAN, who have made a large abatement in the price for this purpose.

To the Afflicted.

The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates. I have also on hand a quantity of invaluable Salves for Sore Eyes, Frozen Feet and Piles. References can be furnished to their wonderful efficacy, whenever called upon. There need be no apprehension in regard to my competency in administering it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front. Aul3 d1m

MRS. L. BALL.

MRS. BALL:—My youngest child was a poor sickly little babe. Every person that saw her thought I would never raise her. Finally, I heard of your medicine, and tried it in a hour of my child. She was about three months old when I commenced to use it. She is now two years and six months old, and enjoys good health. I would recommend it to all to give it a trial. I know several who have tried it, and all pronounce it good. My son is in Filbert street, between Walnut and State. sep3

ELIZABETH WOLFFINGER.

WE HAVE received a large assortment of hoop skirts, from 75c. up to $2.50. A large assortment of linen and needlework collars, and collars and sleeves, at all prices. The finest lot of embroidered French cambric ever brought to Harrisburg—of infant's waists we keep a large assortment. Ladies' and gentlemen's linen pocket handkerchiefs, ladies' stockings, gentlemen's one half hose, and children's stockings of all descriptions and prices. Twenty pieces of carpet to be sold cheap. Kentucky jeans, sateenets and cassimeres for men and boy's wear. We received 50 dozen suspenders, at all prices. 50 dozen cotton handkerchiefs, with borders, and a great many other notions and small wear. S. LAWY.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition.—Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted,) and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer. A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, all warranted to be good and not.
