HARRISBURG, PA.

Tuesday Afternoon, September 16, 1862.

KNOCHE, the inimitable musician and professor of music, is off to the war, so that those who depend upon him for teaching must wait for his return.

CAPTAIN JAMES GOWAN'S CAVALRY has gone into Camp. This really splendid company only lacks a few men of being full, and we commend all who desire to serve under a dashing and brave officer to enlist at once in this command.

WE had the pleasure of meeting Daniel S. Dougherty, Esq., to-day, in the capitol grounds. Among the bold and eloquent defenders of the Government, he is the equal of the most eminent. He is en route on professional business to the northern portion of the State

WE NOTICED G. WHARTON HAMERSLY of Germantown in town to day, as a volunteer in answer to the call of the Governor for troops to resist the late threatened invasion. He is connected with the U. S. Quartermasrer Department in Philadelphia, but could not resist the appeal of the Executive for men to defend the State.

THE PHILADELPHIA HOME GUARD, fifteen hundred strong, reached this city to-day, and after marching through our principal streets, halted in the capitol grounds where their presence created the greatest enthusiasm. They are a splendid body of men, fully armed and equipped for immediate active service. They will reflect credit on the State wherever they are detailed for duty.

ONE OF THE INCIDENTS of the camp in the Capitol Grounds, was related to us by a soldier yesterday. When the newsboys reached the ground with the morning papers, and began to cry "MORNING TELEGRAPH," the soldiers eagerly purchased the paper; but when the other newsboys called with the "Patriot and Union," the soldiers shouted "away with the tory organ"—"get out with the Jeff Davis organ"—"send the paper down south," &c., &c. until the innocent boy who was attempting the sale of the tory organ was actually compelled to leave the camp. We give the incident for what it is worth, as being related to us by a gentleman and a soldier of veracity.

PRINTERS, as usual, are prominent in the present great uprising of the people of Pennsylvania. Yesterday we had a call from Samuel Biddle, of the Pittsburg Gazette, who brought a splendid company to the State Capital in answer to the summons of the Governor. He is as brave as he is accomplished, and will lead his men only where honor and victory are to be found. Charles M'Knight, of the Pittsburg Chronicle, is a high private in the same company, a position as open to honorable service as the highest grade in the army. We congratulate our cotemporaries, and trust that they may bear with them back to their more peaceful pursuits, when the war is over, honor and fame in the largest sense.

THE GERMANTOWN GUARDS.—We noticed a splendid company at the Penna. Depot last evening, and upon inquiry learned that it was the Germantown Guards. The following is a list of its officers:

Captain—Marks J Biddle.
1st Lieut.—S. P. Griffits.
2nd Lieut.—J. C. Jones, Jr.

The Guards come to Harrisburg prepared for immediate service. They were fully equipped in dark blue blouses, pants, caps and overcoats; knapsacks, wool and gum blankets, haversacks, &c., &c., and with five thousand rounds of cartridge. The company is composed of some splendid looking men, and altogether, it came to the State Capital more completely fitted for duty in the field than any of the new levies which have yet arrived.

THE OATH ADMINISTERED TO NON-RESISTANTS.—Persons who are conscientious against bearing arms are exempted by the Constitution of this State, but must pay an equivalent for such service. The oath, or affirmation however, which they are compelled to take, is of a searching character. This is it:

STATE OF PENN'A, ——— County ss:

Before me, Commissioner to superintend Drafting for said county, personally appeared ———, who being duly ——, did depose and say, that he conscientiously scruples to bear arms, believes it unlawful to do so, whether in self-defence or in defence of his country, or otherwise howsoever; that the scruples and belief above stated, have not been formed lightly, but carefully, deliberately, and conscientiously, and are now declared and professed not for the purpose of evading the military service of his country in the present exigency, but because he solemnly and religiously maintains them, and in his conscience believes that it is his bounden duty to act in accordance with them on all occasions, and under all circumstances.

THE SIGNS OF UNION.—The following extract from a business letter addressed to Messrs. C. S. Bailey & Brother of this city, is from one of the heaviest business houses in New York city. Such tenders of aid, speak volumes in an hour like this, and it is on such feeling that we must rely for the strength that is to render the Union hereafter endurable

"It makes us sick at heart to realize that rivers of the first blood on the continent has already flowed; and now the rebel invaders are at our own doors.

"But by the grace of God there are yet uncalled two millions of men, and untold wealth ready to unite with Pennsylvania for her defence and preservation.

"There is a movement here to offer at once to Gov. Curtin, 10,000 returned militia, who are well drilled, armed and equipped for immediate service."

We can answer our kind friends that Gov. Curtin now has in the field some fifty thousand armed militia, and therefore not until the danger is greater will we require the aid of New York to defend our borders. Nevertheless we are gratified for the present tender.

A MEETING of the Executive Committee of the Ladie's Union Relief Association is requested on Wednesday, Sept. 17th, at four o'clock P. M., in their room at Dr. Baily's.

M. S. BEATY, President.

THE MIDDLETOWN CAVALRY, Captain James Young, arrived in this city at 6 o'clock last evening. They are a fine body of men. After reporting themselves at headquarters, they were ordered to return to Middletown to await further orders. Our neighbors in Middletown are awake to the emergency and deserve great credit for their prompt response to the Governor's call.

THE REV. EDWARD MCKEE, late Catholic pastor of the united parishes of Chambersburg and Carlisle, has been appointed by his Excellency, Governor Curtin, Chaplain to the 116th Regiment. Penn'a Volunteers, attached to General Corcoran's Brigade. We congratulate Colonel Heenan and his command on this appointment, as the Rev. gentleman is highly qualified for the position both by literary endowments and patriotic devotion to the great cause which has enlisted the sympathies of every friend and well-wisher of the Constitution.

IMPORTANT ARREST.—One of the guard composed of the First City Zouaves, made a very important arrest last evening. Just after sundown a resident in the neighborhood of Oyster Point noticed five suspicious looking individuals making what he supposed a reconnoissance amost too careful for mere casual sight hunters and suspecting that all was not right, he hastened to the camp of the Zouaves and gave information of the fact. The guard immediately started on a double quick, keeping it up until they reached the point, (3 miles) when they succeeded in arresting two of the party of five, the other three having fled. The prisoners were brought to this city and confined. It is suspected that they belong to Stonewall Jackson's forces. They will of course be properly disposed of after a fair examination.

ADVICE TO SOLDIERS.—A correspondent writes to the Middleburg Register, to give to inexperienced soldiers some hints for the preservation of health, from what he has learned in the field. After warning the new recruit that the enthusiasm of the first week will soon tone down to stanch realities, which he must meet and face as a man—that he cannot live as carelessly about his health as he can at home, where warm rooms and comfortable beds and well-cooked meals are at his service from day to day, and that he must act the physician for himself, to a great degree, and be watchful against any predisposition to disease, he proceeds to give some special directions as follows:

"They consist of a programme of articles to be taken by the recruit when he goes into camp, or to be sent to him by his friends, when he shall have reached a point where he can be addressed.

"Let him have with him two pairs of well-knit socks, two firm woollen shirts, a large crash towel, a piece of Castile soap, to be used as often as possible in bathing the entire body; a woollen cap, sometimes called a smoking cap; two large old-fashioned silk pocket handkerchiefs, which may be used to hang from the neck, as a protection against a blazing sun, or as a bandage for wounds. He should also have constantly with him a supply of Cayenne pepper, such as is obtained from the drug stores under the name of 'capsicum.'

"The benefits arising from the use of this latter article are incalculable. A single pinch in a glass of flat warmish water will nullify the effects and the uncomfortable sensation from having drunk too much water during the day, will help the sentinel keep awake at his post at night, by warming and invigorating the whole system. A good pinch eaten at each meal, or when a cup of tea or coffee is drunk, will add digestion, assist in preventing acidity of stomach, and is besides a great antagonist of the diarrhoea, dysentery, flux, and "looseness," which are the great scourges of the army. A level teaspoonful of the capsicum, taken daily in eating or drinking, or both, or two fingers' full taken two or three times a day, will do more toward warding off the fever and ague than ten times the cost in rum and quinine. There should always be carried in the knapsack a large piece of gutta percha cloth, to spread upon the ground at night for the soldier to spread his blanket on when he goes to bed. To these suggestions may be added the injuntions to eat, as far as possible, regularly, to shun suttlers' tents, with their detestable pies and cakes, and their poisonous preserved meats, as one would shun a contact with the leprosy; to maintain, in short, a perfect system of living just as far as duty in camp will allow.

"If my friend who may read this, and who has buckled on his armor for the cause of his country, will treasure the hints I have thrown out, and act upon them, he will add a hundred per cent. to the probabilities of his returning to his father's house, that knew such keen anguish and bitter mourning when he was called to leave it."

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

CAMP BOAS, HEAD QUARTERS, 127th Reg. P. V., Sept. 14, 1862.

At a meeting of company D, 127th Regiment, Penn'a Vol., Boards Guards of Harrisburg, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased a kind Providence to remove from our midst one of our brother battlers in the cause of justic, JAMES A. HARPER, in the full vigor of manhood, and after a few weeks sickness; and whereas, at the time he was called away by Him who doeth all things well, to render an account of his past actions while upon earth, he was hasarding his life in respond to his country, therefore Resolved, That in the death of James A. Harper this company feels the loss of a kind friend and a true soldier whose memory we cherish.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the family and friends of our deceased brother; but, we must submit to the kind will of Him who doeth all things well, and to whom we must look for consolation in the hour of affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be (printed) sent to the family of our deceased friend and that they be published in the "TELEGRAPH" and Patriot & Union, Harrisburg.

SURGEON GEORGE L. POTTER has been detailed for duty in the Twelfth Reserve, P. V., and leaves for his regiment to-day. He is a surgeon of large experience, and we congratulate the Twelfth on the acquisition of so able a gentleman. Surgeon Potter was in North Carolina when our troops occupied that State, and while there won the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact.

THE CITY still presents a warlike appearance. Notwithstanding for a week past troops have been constantly pouring over the river, the streets were crowded with them to day. Since yesterday morning the arrival of sharp-shooters from the interior of the State has been incessant. Great trains were constantly arriving to-day, filled with those eager riflemen from the country. Upon arrival, they are fed organized into regiments and sent to the various points on the line. The citizens not on military duty are doing all they can to make the defenders of the city comfortable. The ladies are very active in preparing provisions, lint, bandages, &c. They are fully as zealous and spirited as the men.

To the Afflicted.

The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates. There need be no apprehension in regard to my competency in administering it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front.

Aul8 d1m MRS. L. BALL.

MRS. BALL:—I take this method of testifying to the efficacy of your valuable medicine. My child had Convulsion of the Bowels, and I heard of your curing children of that disease. I then gave it a trial, and my child was restored to health. When I commenced to use it my child was three weeks old. I then used your Infant Cordial until my child was six months old, and my husband and I believe that your medicine was the means of saving our child's life. I live two miles below the city.

No person shall be permitted to vote at the election, as aforesaid, but a white freeman of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a state or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months: Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the ages of 21 and 22 years, and have resided in the election district ten days, as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes.

"No person shall be admitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the commissioners, unless: First, he produces a receipt for the payment within two years, of a state or county tax, assessed agreeably to the constitution, and give satisfactory evidence, either on his own oath or affirmation, or the oath or affirmation of another, that he has paid such a tax, or on failure to produce a receipt, shall make oath or the payment thereof; or, Second, if he claim a vote by being an elector between the ages of 21 and 22 years, he shall depose an oath or affirmation that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make such proof of his residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe from the accounts given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and given other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote, shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspectors and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word 'tax,' if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, or the word 'age,' if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of such age, and shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make the like notes in the list of voters kept by them.

"In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the commissioners and assessor, or his right to vote, whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such person on oath as to its qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more his oath will be sufficient proof thereof, but shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days next immediately preceding said election, and shall also himself swear that his bona fide residence in pursuance of his lawful calling is within the district, and that he did not remove into said district for the purpose of voting therein.

"Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof, if required, of his residence and payment of taxes as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward, or district in which he shall reside.

"If any person shall prevent, or attempt to prevent any officer of any election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holding, or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use or practice intimidating threats, force or violence, with a design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or to prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such a person, on conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisoned for any time not less than one month nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to the Court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, or district, or township where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months or more than two years.

"In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of election, then the person who shall have received the next highest number of votes for judge at the spring election shall act as inspector in his place.—And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place, and in case the person elected shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a judge in his place, or if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward, or district for which said officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall select one of their number to fill such vacancy.

"It shall be the duty of the several assessors, respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judges when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such elections, or such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters as the said inspectors, or either of them, shall from time to time require."

MEETING OF RETURN JUDGES.

Pursuant to the provisions contained in the 76th section of the act first aforesaid, the judges of the aforesaid district shall respectively take charge of the certificate or return of the election of their respective districts, and produce them at a meeting of one judge from each district, at the borough of Harrisburg, on the third day after the day of the election, being FRIDAY the fifth of October, then and there to do and perform the duties required by law of said judges.

Also, that where a judge by sickness or unavoidable accident, is unable to attend such meeting of judges, then the certificate or return aforesaid shall be taken charge of by one of the inspectors or clerks of the election of said district, who shall do and perform the duties required of said judges unable to attend.
