HARRISBURG, PA.

Wednesday Afternoon, September 17, 1862.

JUDGE FEARSON is in New York city.

CAPT. TYER, of Myerstown, Lebanon, brought a full company of cavalry to Camp Curtin, today, and had them mustered in for three years.

ADVANCE LODGE No. 39, P. O. of Good Templars meets at the hall at 7 o'clock this evening. Every member is earnestly requested to be present.

JOSEPH MOORE, a member of the last legislature and a candidate for re-election in Philadelphia, is one of the high private in the Review and Guard. Joseph is a gallant gentleman, and in any fight, will prove himself equal to the foe that grapples him.

HORRIBLE.—On last Sunday night, William Hall, of Washington township, Indiana county, in a fit of insanity, seized an axe and inflicted severe wounds on the heads of his wife and daughter. The injuries are so severe that it is thought they will prove fatal in both cases.

NEW MUSIC.—Ward & Co., Market Square, have laid on our table, a collection of new music, all once beautiful and original. The Dying Volunteer, words by W. C. Wendell, music by Andrew Boyd; The Stars Must Shine, words and music by T. H. Hinton; The Dear Old Flag, by W. B. Bradbury—comprise the collection. We commend this branch of Mr. Ward's business to the public. His stock of music is always original and of the latest publications.

THE WOMEN DROVE HIM OUT.—A schoolmaster went dodging about from one place to another to avoid volunteering until at length he slipped into a school at Lionville, Chester county, where he hoped to have a peaceful time of it. Word got out that he had gone from post to pillar to avoid fighting for his country, when the women of Lionville drove him out of the school house and compelled him to volunteer. Good for the true women of Lionville.

WOULDN'T HAVE A TRAITOR.—By hook or by crook Hodgson, of the Jeffersonian, the organ of the Chester county Breckinridges, got his name on the list of one of the companies forming in Chester county to come to Harrisburg. As soon as the members found out they struck it off, declaring that they would go with no one who would more readily act as a spy for Jeff. Davis than fight his thieving hoards. This was right of course.

WE HAD HOPED, and expected to hear again the popular and eloquent Temperance Lecturer, L. Leonidas Allen, before his return to the army, where he has been engaged over a year, very successfully, in lecturing to our patriotic and gallant troops on his favorite and important theme. His time has been occupied in writing out his "Pencilings of a Temperance Lecturer in the Grand Union Army," with designs for publication hereafter. He returns to the army to-morrow.

THE LOSS OF THE GOLDEN GATE.—In publishing a list of the passengers who were lost in the wreck of the Golden Gate, one of the California steamers, the name of George W. Kinzer appeared, a son-in-law of Deputy Sheriff Shell, of this city. Mr. Shell this morning received a letter from his son-in-law, announcing the fact that he was safe, and that the Kinzer alluded to was a George H. Kinzer, son of Amos Kinzer, of Lancaster county.

ABOLISHED.—All military titles such as "General," "Major," "Colonel," "Captain," &c., which have nothing to rest upon but "corn-stalks and fust and feather" parades are abolished. The former "highfalutin" General, is now nothing more than plain "Mr.," or perhaps "Squire." All military titles not earned in the late wars or the present, are perfectly ridiculous. There is too good a chance to earn titles which the worthy soldier alone should wear.

DESPERATE ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.—A great excitement was created at the foot of Chestnut street, in the neighborhood of the Pennsylvania Railroad depot, this morning, by the desperate attempt of a soldier to commit suicide. He was observed with a large knife in his hand, drawing it across his throat, inflicting severe wounds. After he had lacerated his neck in a dreadful manner, he plunged the blade of his knife in his abdomen, and with the most desperate energy sought the ending of his life. He was taken possession of by some of the people in the neighborhood, and carried to Dr. Sells's office, who dressed his wounds.

ARRIVAL OF REBEL PRISONERS.—Capt. Hughes of the Second Pennsylvania Militia, arrived from Frederick this morning, in charge of ninety Rebel prisoners, including twenty contrabands. The Rebels were carried to Camp Curtin, where they were added to those already held as prisoners in that locality, all of whom are under the strict surveillance of Capt. Hunt, who is now in command of Camp Curtin. The Rebel prisoners in this camp are certainly a ragged crowd—ragged not only in appearance, but in morals and in spirit. Among them we noticed Fitzhugh, the spy, who had been lurking in this vicinity only a few weeks since, making observations and taking notes of the situation of affairs. We hope that an example will be made of this scoundrel. Let him be fairly tried as a spy—condemned as a spy—and hung as a spy. Every loyal man now in arms demands this act of justice.

Capt. F. Ashbury Awt left for Fort Delaware this afternoon with a detachment of fifty, in charge of these rebel prisoners.

LEUT. JEFFERS, who, it will be remembered, took charge of the Monitor when that gallant craft had her great encounter with the rebel ram Merrimac, arrived in this city this morning. He is a brave and handsome looking officer, who has earned more credit than he has yet received, and who is destined to be of great service to the Government. Lieut. Jeffers is in charge of a battery, with which he is en route for the locality of active operations on the Potomac.

MR. ALAN WATSON postponed his grand anniversary meeting in honor, (as we were informed but don't believe) of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States. Were the Breckinridges fearful that their mock celebration would become the subject of the ridicule and contempt of the loyal men who are now in Harrisburg, or have they abandoned that dodge to attempt some other trick to deceive the people? These are grave questions, and should be answered. This Constitutional celebration was one of the schemes which Frank Hughes adopted to ensure the success of some of his games. Its postponement compels us to wait patiently for the new dodge that will certainly be attempted by the same party.

INTERESTING SERVICES THIS EVENING.—The Carlisle Presbytery (Old School) will meet this evening in the Presbyterian church, corner Third and Pine, for the purpose of ordaining Mr. Ferriday to the gospel ministry. Dr. Harper, of Shippensburg, is expected to preach the sermon, while the moderator, Rev. Mr. Hays, and the pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Cattell, will conduct the other exercises. Mr. Ferriday has received the appointment of chaplain to the 121st regiment P. V. (Col. Biddle), and will at once enter upon his duties, the regiment being now in the field. Mr. F.'s talents as an earnest and eloquent preacher, are fully appreciated by our citizens, while his courteous manners have won for him a host of personal friends. There will doubtless be a large audience this evening to witness his ordination. The services commence at half past seven o'clock, and will be held in the church, the lecture room being occupied by the soldiers.

ACCIDENT.—As the afternoon passenger train from the west, on the Penna. Central Railroad was passing in the neighborhood of Henderson's store, Radnor township, Chester county, on Saturday last, at about half past five o'clock, it came in contact with a large stone-wagon drawn by four horses, which at the moment was in transit over the track. The concussion, although not sufficient to throw the train off the track, was severe enough to dash the wagon to atoms, scattering the huge blocks of stone with which it was laden, to the right and left like chaff, and tearing off in the process a large portion of the frame work of the engine fortunately, however, not crippling it. No personal injury, except so far as a terrible fright to the passengers, was sustained, and the train, notwithstanding the occurrence, reached Philadelphia in due season.

A CORRESPONDENT of the London Athenaeum writes on August 9th last that on that day a baker's house in Pompeii was excavated, in one corner of which was found a heap of silver and copper coins, to the number of about five hundred, which had seemingly been tied up in a little bag. At the same time and near the same spot were found two large shears, and soon afterwards a house full of the ordinary description, together with a little heap of corn, the grains of which were blackened and somewhat shrivelled, but yet fully preserving their shape and very little diminished in size. In the next apartment was found the metal shovel with which the loaves were placed in the oven; the oven itself, the mouth of which was closed with a large iron door, not on hinges, but cemented at the edges to the face of the four large slabs which formed the mouth of the oven. The finest of figured Swiss muslin, at all prices. The finest lot of embroidered French muslin brands ever brought to Harrisburg—of infant's waists we keep a large assortment. Ladies' and gentlemen's linen pocket handkerchiefs, ladies' stockings, gentlemen's one half hose, and children's stockings of all descriptions and prices. Twenty pieces of carpet to be sold cheap. Kentucky jeans, sattinets and cassimeres for men and boys' wear. We received 50 dozen suspenders, at all prices. 50 dozen cotton handkerchiefs, with borders, and a great many other notions and small wear. S. Lawr.

THE MATERIAL FOR NURSES.—Miss Dix to Mrs. Delano of New Bedford, Massachusetts, for nurses as follows: "Dear Madame: Can you send one or two active, well-educated, loyal women, about thirty-five or thirty-eight years old, unmarried, not much older, as reliable, pleasant, cheerful, hearty nurses? Answer by telegraph, saying 'Yes' or 'No.' I don't want sermons, but a good, substantial, well informed, practical New England woman, of seriousness and faith, with will to endure privation and power to sustain fatigue. Yours, truly, D. L. Dix."

While referring to this note of Miss Dix, we are reminded that orders have been promptly given to ensure an ample supply of hospital stores at Frederick, whether our wounded will be carried, and by the large force of surgeons, nurses and attendants are there, in readiness for duty. The agents of several states have also left for Frederick, with stores of bandages, lint, under-clothing, &c.

Mr. Editor:—I perceive that the Breckinridge organ, miscalled "Patriot and Union," censures our able and patriotic State Treasurer for the exercise of a commendable discretion in removing to a place of safety valuable archives, &c., to prevent their destruction by the ruthless followers and dupes of that paper's late candidate for the presidency, in case of their sudden visit to this place. The editor infers from the steps taken by the Treasurer, that all the employees on the hill were frightened out of their wits and would, ignominiously, flee. Now I must do the "Patriot" the justice to say, that I don't believe any one connected with their establishment would have reason to desert his post. They are serving Jeff. Davis and John C. Breckinridge so ably and zealously that none of their household would disturb them, exercising, as they no doubt would, timely precaution to hang out the "stars and bars" and thus avoid all molestation from their "southern brethren." But was to the "Telegraph" in such an emergency; it would share the fate of the "Examiner" at Frederick. S.

To the Afflicted. The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates. I have also on hand a quantity of invaluable Salves for Sore Eyes, Frozen Feet and Piles. References can be furnished as to their wonderful efficacy, whenever called upon. There need be no apprehension in regard to my competency in administering it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front. A. L. RUSSELL, M. D.

MRS. BALL.—I take this method of testifying to the efficacy of your valuable medicine. My child had Convulsion of the Bowels, and I heard of your curing children of that disease. I then gave it a trial, and my child was restored to health. When I commenced to use it my child was three weeks old. I then used your Infant Cordial until my child was six months old, and my husband and I believe that your medicine was the means of saving our child's life. I live two miles below the city. MARY E. MAHAN.

It is ordered—First, That company organizations be made in accordance with the number required under the laws of the United States, to wit:

One Captain, 1st Lieutenant, 2d Lieutenant, 80 privates as the minimum, and 98 privates as the maximum standard of each company. The company officers to be elected by each organization.

Second, As the call may be sudden, it is desirable that the officers and member of each company provide themselves with the best arms they can procure, with at least sixty rounds of ammunition to suit the kind of arms in possession of the soldier. Such persons as cannot procure and bring arms with them, will be furnished by the government after their arrival at the place of rendezvous.

Third, Each officer and member of the company shall provide himself with good stout clothing, (uniform or otherwise), boots, blanket and haversack, ready to go into camp when called into service.

Fourth, Each company organization to be perfected as soon as possible, and report the name of officer in command, the number of men and the place of its headquarters, to these headquarters, in order that they may be promptly notified to move when their services are required.

Fifth, Organizations, when ordered to move, will be furnished with transportation by the government.

Sixth, On arrival at the place of rendezvous, they will be formed into regiments or such other organizations as the Governor, Commander-in-Chief of Pennsylvania, may direct.
