HARRISBURG, PA.

Thursday Afternoon, September 18, 1862.

WANTED.—A young man who can write a rapid and fair hand, to assist at copying manuscripts. Address, JAMES HARRISBURG P. O. sep19-dtf

WANTED.—A white girl to do general housework. None need apply who cannot produce recommendations. Good wages will be paid. Apply at this office.

A MISERABLE COWARD, by the name of Samuel Bush, of Chester, recently cut two of his fingers off to escape the draft, and when told that would not exempt him, he hung himself. The world is well rid of such men.

THE FIRST CITY ZOUAVES did not get off yesterday, as we reported, with the prisoners in their charge, owing to the arrival of other captured eseeb. They left (or were to have left) this morning at 11 o'clock, with a large number of prisoners in charge for Fort Delaware. The full company of Zouaves left in charge with these prisoners.

THE BARRAGE for the oil in the Venango region of Pennsylvania frequently strike veins of salt water. About three weeks since, Messrs. Phillips, Brew & Co., of Oil City, when boring near their wharf, struck a well which flowed some five barrels daily, and has since increased to fifteen barrels of salt water, so strong, it is said, as to crystallize as it flows from the vat. This is auspicious of the day when the salines of the Venango will rival those of Onondaga and Kanawha.

COL. DANIEL LEAZURE, of the 100th regiment, was at the United States Hotel last evening, and was en route for home, New Castle, having left this afternoon. Col. Leazure was in the terrible three days' fighting before Richmond, in which he bore himself with great gallantry until he was wounded and compelled to retire from the field. He expects to be able to take the field in a very short time at the head of his regiment, although he received a ball in his leg. We trust that his expectations will be speedily realized, because he is a gallant officer.

THE KEYSTONE GUARDS of Girard, Erie county, of ninety men, arrived last evening, after being detained twelve hours on the road, by a freight train off the track on the Williamsport and Elmira road. This company was recruited in less than a day. The officers are as follows: Captain—A. W. Couse. First Lieutenant—J. C. Rockwell. Second Lieutenant—C. D. Pickett. Lieutenant Pickett was the Sergeant-at-Arms of the late House, and if he makes as good an officer in the field as he did in that body, neither his followers or his county will have cause to complain.

THE GAIETY.—The management is continual, bringing fun and new performers, and each member of this company is procured regardless of expense. The singing and dancing of the females receive the most enthusiastic applause. Miss Julia Edwards, modest and attractive as ever, is a sweet singer, and her new song, "The Clarion now sounds to the field," is received nightly with rapturous applause. One song from the charming Miss Julia Edwards is worth more than the admission fee. Mr. Edwards has been fortunate in the selection of his troupe, all of whom possess talent and attractions of a superior order.

AN ITEM FOR BOYS.—We see it noticed that on a neighboring railroad recently, a boy apparently under twelve years of age, traveling with a grown person, lit a cigar and happened to be smoking it when the conductor came round for tickets. As the one held by the boy was a half price ticket, the conductor remarked that the directors considered all smokers as men, and required the boy to pay full price. The elder traveler was accordingly obliged to pay the other half of the price for his young companion. The fact youths in this and other places will take notice, or they may be caught in a similar trap.

THE NEGRO COLONIZATION SCHEME.—We have as yet heard of no movement in this city, on the part of those interested in the colonization scheme of the President. In almost every other locality of importance, the subject is engaging the attention of the colored people. The expedition will land at Chiriqui, on the Isthmus, two hundred miles north of Aspinwall and the Panama railroad. If no objection is made by the Chiriqui Government on arrival, a landing will be made in Chiriqui Lagoon. If objection is made, or if the mining and agricultural prospects are not good, the colony will go elsewhere and settle; in the language of the paper of permission from this Government, "at any point within the tropics." Senator Pomeroy has a letter from the President charging him to "maintain the honor of the Republic abroad."

The expedition will be well supplied with provisions furnished by the Government, which will be dealt out as rations during the voyage, and thereafter until the first crop shall have been gathered. It is the intention to make the colony self-supporting. The Government will give each adult unmarried man twenty acres, to every family of five persons forty acres, to every family of over five persons eighty acres.

Coal crops out in places, and must prove most valuable, as the article is now carried in large quantities to Aspinwall from Pennsylvania. The country is well adapted to cotton, corn, cocoa, rice, coffee, and fruits, and potatoes grow wild. Senator Pomeroy has received more than one thousand letters, from all parts of the North, written by persons making inquiries or offering to join the expedition.

SUBMARINE.—At one o'clock this morning we were suddenly serenaded by the Hummelstown band, which was duly appreciated.

A FEW DAYS AGO, while the junior editor of the Millburg (Union county) Press was at New Berlin, he discovered two blue cranes in Ponus creek, and shot one, which measured from tip to tip of wings, six feet, and from the toes to the bill five feet and one inch.

THE ROOMS of the Ladies' Relief Association will be open every afternoon at four o'clock, for the reception of lint, bandages, bags, &c. A new requisition has been made upon the society for these articles for the relief of wounded soldiers now lying at or near Hagerstown. It is hoped that the society will meet with prompt encouragement.

HARD BATTLES.—We learn that Capt. Hunter and Eisenhauer, and their companies, have already had a taste of the hardships of war, the poor fellows having been marched to the Jones House, in Harrisburg, where they were compelled to eat a splendid supper on the evening of their arrival. What barbarity.—Reading Times.

SECOND COMPANY REVENUE GUARDS.—The second company Revenue Guards arrived in this city last evening. This organization was fully clothed, armed and equipped, at the expense of the Collector of the port, who commands the First Company in person. The following are the names of the officers of the Second Company: Captain, Wm. G. Steel; First Lieut., Geo. Phillips; Second Lieut., J. J. Bushey.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—Sanford is drawing large audiences. The town being full of strangers, seek this place out nightly, and the scene presented there is just in accordance with the times. The new song, "The Frains of McClellan," as sung by Mr. Batchelor, demands a repetition nightly; while the songs and jokes by the other members are highly appreciated. The Countryman's visit will be repeated, together with the Troubles of the Postoffice, to-night. Visitors attending would do the managers a favor by securing the ready change for their tickets, thus avoiding the rush at the doors.

IT IS A QUESTION with some of our plain people, who make their loyalty a test in every thing that relates to the crushing out of rebellion, whether it is in order for an officer in the United States army, to devote his leisure time to tending rebel prisoners, carrying them around from one saloon to another, and making as much "fuss" with them, as if their blades were never at the throats of loyal men. When a rebel officer is paroled, he should depart or he should swear allegiance to a government he has attempted to destroy. When he fails to do this, those who brought him, subject themselves to a suspicion which should never attach to loyal men.

DEATH OF A SOLDIER.—Jacob R. Books, a private in the 9th Pennsylvania Cavalry, Company C, Capt. Harris, under Col. E. C. Williams, died in a hospital at Louisville, Kentucky, September, 1862, aged 29 years. The deceased was a resident of Port Royal, Dauphin county. His body arrived at Middletown on Monday afternoon, and was committed to its last resting place on Tuesday. The deceased was a brave man, and a short time before his death, saved the life of Col. Williams, and for brave deeds on the field of battle, he was loved and respected by all, but more particularly by the Colonel, who had his remains placed in a handsome metallic coffin and forwarded home at his own expense. His funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. D. A. Laverly, of Middletown. Ec. 8: 8—"There is no discharge in that war."

A PRESENTATION.—The First City Zouaves, Co. A, 127th Regiment P. V., Capt. F. Asbury Ayl, made a street parade yesterday, and went through their evolutions before the thousands of new troops encamped on Capitol Hill. Their perfect discipline and soldierly bearing excited universal applause.

The gallant young captain knows how to instruct men, and has brought his company to such a state of discipline and soldierly knowledge as will make them the peers of regulars. They have during the past six weeks performed the delicate duties of Provost Guard, at once with decision and courtesy.

After the drill at the Capitol grounds, yesterday, Captain Ayl was presented with an elegant watch, through private Geo. W. Penn, in a short speech on behalf of the company, which was as modestly received as becomes a soldier.

The Zouaves are of Harrisburg's best war material, and we shall watch their movements with pride. It is understood they will soon be relieved here to join their regiment, already engaged with the enemy in McClellan's Army.

IN THE MIDST of the TURMOILS of WAR, the following exquisite lines will find a response in many a heart. How many little cheeks are pressed on the window panes, wishing the absent ones home again, who will never return, who have made a sacrifice of themselves that their children may inherit the blessing of liberty when men and women have crowned their years: Three little forms in the twilight gray, Scanning the shadow across the way; Six little eyes, four black and two blue, Brimful of love and happiness too, Watching for pa. May with her placid and thoughtful brow, Gentle face beaming with smiles just now; Willie, the rogue, so loving and gay, Stealing shy kisses from sister May, Watching for pa. Nellie, with the ringlets of sunny hue, Coolly nestled between the two, Pressing her cheek to the window-pane, Wishing the absent one home again, Watching for pa. O how they gaze at the passers by! "He's coming at last," they gaily cry; "Try again, my pets!" exclaims mamma, And Nellie adds, "There's the twilight star!" Watching for pa. Jack nods and smiles, as with busy feet, He lights the lamp of their quiet street; That sweet little group he knows full well, May, and Willie, and golden-haired Nell, Watching for pa. Soon joyous shouts from the window-seat, And eager peepers at childish feet; Gay mimic chimes ring through the hall, A manly voice responds to the call, "Welcome, papa!"

THE FOURTH WARD GUARDS will please meet this evening at seven o'clock, at Alderman M'Glaughlin's office.

ATTENTION! HARRISBURG GUARDS! (EXEMPT).—You are hereby notified that in obedience with the resolutions passed at our last drill, the company will meet in the lower market house on Thursday evening, the 18th inst., at 7 o'clock, for drill, which other important business will be disposed of. It is desirable that every member be punctually present. Exempts from militia duty residing in other wards, who have not connected themselves with any military organization, are cordially invited to attend and unite with us. VALERINE HUMMEL, Jr., Captain.

CAPT. GEORGE A. BROOKS.—A report reached this city to-day to the effect that Capt. George A. Brooks, company D, Sixth P. V., was killed. His body will arrive here this afternoon. Capt. Brooks was a private in Capt. M'Conrath's company, the Lochiel Greys, in the three months' service, and immediately after his return, recruited a company, the Verbeke Rifles, attached to Col. Knipe's Forty-sixth regiment, in which position he served until he met his death. He was with his company in all the important battles in which his regiment engaged—participated in the first assault at Winchester—was at Front Royal to repel the attack of Jackson, and covered the rear of General Banks' masterly retreat through the Shenandoah Valley. After that retreat he again marched over the valley to Culpeper Court House, and at the battle of Slaughter Mountain, in consequence of the absence of his First Lieutenant on other duty, and the illness of his second, Capt. Brooks himself led a sick bed, to lead his men into the field, resolved that they should not go without the direction of an officer with whom they were acquainted. In this bloody encounter, the field officers of the 46th were all disabled, when the command of the regiment fell upon Capt. Brooks—in fact he found himself in command of the entire right wing, in which position, by the coolness of his direction and the gallantry of his daring, he won the applause of all who followed his leading. In this engagement he was himself wounded, while only sixteen of his company escaped with their lives, the others having all fallen into the jaws of death.

In this connection, it is not out of place to mention that Capt. Brooks, from time to time, corresponded with the TELEGRAPH. His letters from the army were always read with interest, and as a writer, (with the advantage of being a practical printer,) was very popular with our readers.

Just two weeks ago Captain Brooks left his home, his wife and his only child, and hastened forward to the head of his shattered yet undaunted command. He had scarcely recovered from his wounds—he was weak and weary from the effects of the brunt of battle, but with a mind glowing with ardor and a heart full of hope, he hurried from his precursors loved ones to join his gallant companions, and once more bear his arm in the glorious fight for liberty, for law, and for government. In that fight he fell—in the defence of liberty he perished—and while liberty survives may his name be remembered with gratitude.

A CARD. HEADQUARTERS REVENUE GUARDS, Harrisburg, Sept. 17th, 1862. Resolved, That we, the officers and members of the first company Revenue Guards, Capt. Wm. B. Thomas, of the city of Philadelphia, do most fully appreciate the generous conduct of Mrs. Oliver Bellman in providing for us a dinner this day, and the handsome manner in which she has done it. And our thanks are hereby cordially extended to her for the same. Resolved, That the memory of her kindness, coming from one with whom not one of us was acquainted, shall go with us in the day of battle, and help us in the conflict; that nothing we can do shall be left undone to keep the homes of such mothers in Israel free from the desecrating tread of the invader forever. Resolved, That the officers of this company be requested to furnish Mrs. Oliver Bellman with a copy of these resolutions and the roll of this company. Private H. RYLAND WAINWRIGHT, JAMES BARRETT, "W. H. COOKMAN, "D. S. HOLMES, "G. M. ALLEN, "W. J. CALVERT, "J. H. BELMONT, Committee.

MILLERSBURG, Sept. 17, 1861. MR. EDITOR.—The following engineering puff I clip from the "Patriot and Union" of the 16th: A COMPANY FROM MILLERSBURG.—Our Democratic candidate for District Attorney, Mr. Auchmuty, brought a company to the State yesterday from Millersburg for the defence of the State. It was a fine looking corps, and is commanded by a "gentleman, a scholar and a soldier." Mr. Auchmuty, in consequence of his taking the field, will not be able, if it is the intention of the State authorities, to hold the militia any length of time, to stump the county. His friends will not forget him; he can rest assured, and giving his services to the cause of his distracted country will be duly appreciated by them.

Comment on the above article would be useless, had that "model" paper no other circulation than in Millersburg. But as it is, it is due to Mr. Wm. Ayers, Capt. of the "Millersburg Company" to say that the article is a wicked fabrication of falsehood, and misrepresentation. Mr. Auchmuty, (now major) I have charity enough to believe, is too much of a "gentleman, scholar and soldier" to inflict such unjust bombast, having, two days previous to the marching of the company, declared the organization a "grand fizzle" it having been thrown into confusion by a party of dissatisfied men, and mostly those of the Major's political friends. But nothing undaunted, the "Patriot Preacher," by the most incessant labor, succeeded in recruiting some fifty men at Halifax, and with those who "stuck" from this place, presented the company to the Governor for service. Nothing can be said against Mr. Auchmuty, in this matter; his disinterestedness, his devotion to his share of praise. But had it not been for Capt. Ayers, the company would not now be in the field; other gentlemen, likewise, deserve much credit, but I have not time nor space to particularize. As to the motives of the "local" of the Patriot and Union I will leave the public to judge, and will only say, that the facts above stated can be fully substantiated. Yours &c. JUSTICE.

To the Afflicted. The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she has prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates. I have also on hand a quantity of invaluable Gales for Sore Eyes, Frozen Feet and Piles. References can be furnished as to their wonderful efficacy, whenever called upon. There need be no apprehension in regard to my competency in administering it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time, at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front. Auß die. MRS. L. BALL. Mrs. Ball.—I take this method of testifying to the efficacy of your valuable medicine. My child had Convulsion of the Bowels, and I heard of your curing children of that disease. I then gave it a trial, and my child was restored to health. When I commenced to use it my child was three weeks old. I then used your Infant Cordial until my child was six months old, and my husband and I believe that your medicine was the means of saving our child's life. I live two miles below the city. MARY E. MAHAN.

WE HAVE received a large assortment of hoop skirts, from 75c. up to $2 50. A large assortment of linen and needlework collars, and collars and sleeves, at all prices. White cambrics, jaconets, muslins, brilliants, and plain and figured Swiss muslin, at all prices. The finest article of simulated French cambric bands ever brought to Harrisburg, of infant's waists we keep a large assortment. Ladies' and gentlemen's linen pocket handkerchiefs, ladies' stockings, gentlemen's one half hose, and children's stockings of all descriptions and prices. Twenty pieces of carpet to be sold cheap. Kentucky jeans, satinetts and cassimeres for men and boy's wear. We received 50 dozen suspenders, at all prices. 50 dozen cotton handkerchiefs, with borders, and a great many other notions and small wear. S. LAW.

WEST LONDONERY.—Place of Election.
