TIN PLATE WORKERS.—Wanted immediately, a few good hands. Enquire at the Tin and Sheet Iron Manufactory, Market street.

THE LADIES OF THE UNION RELIEF ASSOCIATION acknowledge the receipt of a box of articles from the Ladies of Millersburg, for which they return their sincere thanks.

M. S. BEATTY, President. E. A. BISHOP, Secretary.

GEORGE DRESS, having ended his services as a cavalryman, will again resume his business as a baker. His old customers are invited to give him a call at his old stand, as he is now prepared to serve them, as heretofore, with an article in his line that cannot be excelled by any other baker in the Commonwealth.

PERSONAL.—The officer in command at Camp Curtin on Saturday, the 23rd day of August last, will please leave that small amount of money placed in his hands by a private, at this office, so that it can be handed over to the wife of the soldier. Proper authority for its reception will be produced.

A STAND OF REGIMENTAL COLORS was presented to the Eighty-fourth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, (Murray's old regiment, and which has been rendered immortal by his valor) on Saturday last, by the ladies of Williamsport. The colors were received by Col. Bowman in a neat speech, and the occasion is described as having been one of real interest and gratification to all concerned.

FRANKS OF AN INSANE MAN.—On Sunday afternoon, a man who has for some time been regarded as insane, went into the river a short distance above Dauphin, to bathe. After cutting up a number of strange antics in the river, he finally came out of the water, and proceeded on his way home without a particle of clothing on his person—leaving his clothes lying on the river bank. The man is well known in that community as an intelligent, well educated man, but who has destroyed his reason by the inordinate use of intoxicating drinks.

THE CAPITALISTS OF NEW YORK city are seeking investment in the coal fields of Pennsylvania, as a surer employment of their means than any which their own city now presents. On Thursday last a company consisting of Moses Taylor, Hy. Chauncey, M. H. Grinnell, Simeon Draper, Isaac Bell, Isaac Bell, Jr., John Steward, Robert S. Hone, Peter H. Vandewater, George F. Falmer, John Jacob Astor, Ed. Menturo, arrived at Scranton. They expressed themselves as delighted with the wonderful development of that region, and the great enterprise by which it has been built up.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATION.—The Lutheran and German Reformed School of Mount Zion Church near Linglestown, held their annual celebration on Saturday last, and the occasion was quite a pleasant one. About nine o'clock in the morning the teachers and scholars, and their friends, formed in procession and proceeded to a beautiful grove, about a mile from the church, where the large and interesting audience were entertained with music and addresses by Rev. A. Smith of Hummelstown, Rev. G. J. Martz of Harrisburg, after which the company sat down to an excellent dinner provided for the occasion. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in recreation and amusement, and at a suitable hour the whole company returned to their homes, highly delighted with the festivities of the day.

HOSPITAL STORES.—The liberality and the beneficence of the American people, in this awful crisis, know no bounds. Appeals of all kinds are promptly answered. If men are wanted, legions at once organized. If money is needed, millions are lavishly contributed. And thus the cause of freedom is sustained by freemen.

One of the features of the crisis, and one which is an eloquent proof of the ardor and loyalty of all classes, is the manner in which our people have contributed to the hospital stores—for the use of the army. These contributions exceed all calculation in extent, description of variety, and estimate of value. In fact, large quantities of articles are contributed, which, by the time they arrive at their destination, are utterly unfit for use. Of course this is a loss to the people—because every article that perishes or is wasted, is so much deducted from the resources of the people, so much added to the burden of the war.

The Express office and the railroad depots in this city, are overstocked with packages, of which many may be called perishable goods, baskets of cooked poultry—bags of ripe fruit, decaying and actually offensive—cases of vegetables that can never be used in hospitals—all perishing and all actually an expense instead of a relief to the department for which they were designed.

What is necessary for the people at a distance to consider that the sick and wounded are not less capable of devoting the strongest food like gormands. There are a thousand comforts for the sick and the wounded, which every family is capable, in part of making up—and when contributions of this kind are made, the wants of the soldier are of course satisfied. Let it be understood, then, that those sending articles for the hospitals at a distance, or that will require transportation to reach this point, must be sure not to forward perishable goods. This will prevent waste, save the surgeons and nurses in charge much trouble; and in the end enable the good people of the country patriotically to aid the sick and wounded soldiers.

AT HOME SICK.—We regret to learn that Lieut. Joshua M. Weisting, of the 127th Pennsylvania Regiment is at home quite sick. We hope to record his recovery and return shortly. He is a good officer, and the regiment is one of the best in the service.

THE KEYSTONE ARTILLERY, OF PHILADELPHIA, CAPTAIN ROBERTSON, at the request of Gov. Curtin, fired a salute of 100 guns on the Capital hill to-day at 12 o'clock, M., in honor of the recent victories of General McClellan in Maryland.

Dr. P. John, editor of the Bloomsburg Republican, marched at the head of 90 men, yesterday, into this city, whom he has brought in response to the call of the Governor. Though exempt from military service, he considered the duty pressing upon him. The men were principally among the leading business men of Columbia county.

A GRAND SOCIAL PICNIC will be held on Independence Island, Wednesday, the 24th inst.—Weber's String Band will play for the occasion.

The proceeds to aid in buying list for our wounded heroes. This is a praiseworthy object, and we sincerely hope it may meet with a hearty response. The boat will leave the wharf at 9 A. M. Ladies free. Gentlemen will please purchase their tickets of the lady manager at the wharf. No disreputable persons admitted to the island by any means.

DEATH OF ANOTHER AGED CITIZEN OF DAUPHIN COUNTY.—The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Reese, consort of Mr. George Reese, of Lower Paxton township, took place on Saturday morning, and was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends. Mrs. Reese was one of the oldest inhabitants of the community in which she lived, having reached the advanced age of 77 years and a few days. She was born in this county, was distinguished for her habits of industry, honesty and virtue, and was highly esteemed by all who knew her.

CAPT. BRADY, company K, Eleventh Regiment Pennsylvania Reserves, who fell while gallantly leading his command, at the battle of South Mountain, was the first to receive the fire of the enemy, and the first to fall beneath its withering effects. He was a gallant gentleman—a nephew of Capt. Brady, the Librarian of the Senate, who was himself in the neighborhood when his kinsman fell, but was not apprised of the fact until after the battle was over and the gallant hero placed beneath the soil which he had enriched with his precious blood. Captain Brady was connected with the editorial fraternity, and as the editor of a newspaper in Brookville, had won some reputation for ability as a writer and courtesy as a journalist. But it was reserved for him to write his last essay with his sword, write it in his own blood—an essay of loyalty and devotion to his country.

THE DAUPHIN COUNTY CAVALRY.—Let them have a Bumper on Returning.—We understand that The Dauphin County Cavalry, commanded by Captain E. Byers, will return to the city to-day, after an absence from home of a few days over a week. The organization of this corps was the work of only a few hours, while each man furnished his own horse, the Government supplying just such equipments as were absolutely necessary in an encounter with an enemy. Since the cavalry has been in service, the duty discharged was of the most important character. Immediately on their arrival at Chambersburg, they were placed in the advance, and from Chambersburg to Hagerstown, thence to Williamsport, they were constantly on scouting duty, ranging over a country at once dangerous and rough, and in hourly expectation of meeting an enemy double their number. At Williamsport they destroyed bridges and lumber which had the some fallen into the hands of the enemy, the most important results would have been produced against the army led by Gen. McClellan.

In view of these facts, and in view of the manner in which the Dauphin County Cavalry went forth for duty, and the fact, too, that the company is almost entirely composed of citizens of Harrisburg, we suggest that a suitable reception be given to the men thus expected home. Capt. Byers has written to us that his company will certainly reach this city in the course of the afternoon. We cannot tell the hour of its arrival, but still hope that a proper reception has been prepared for these brave men when they do arrive.

THE SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—Their Arrival and Accommodation in Harrisburg.—Dr. Cuyler, Medical Director of the United States Army, arrived in this city yesterday, for the purpose of making arrangements and locating hospitals for the accommodation of sick and wounded soldiers. We understand that the most complete arrangements have already been made to this end, and that several of our most commodious public buildings, churches and school houses have been secured for this purpose; so that the sick and wounded who may be assigned for care in this locality, will be accommodated at once in every essential of hospital comfort and medical attendance.

There are at present 239 patients in the hospitals at this station. The accommodations for these are at once ample and complete, while the contributions of our citizens to the comfort and the appetite of the sick are of a character such as will meet the grateful acknowledgments of both soldiers and surgeons. During the week, the surgeons in charge of the hospitals expect one thousand more patients. This number will increase the responsibility of those in charge of this service, while it will add to the demands on our people for additional contributions of every description of hospital stores.—The field is thus widened for the benevolent. Let Harrisburg do its duty in this business of humanity, as it has done its duty in every other patriotic relation to the war.

A number of the nine months' men are among those already arrived, while others of the same levy are among those that are to arrive during the week. In addition to the churches and other public buildings for the use of the wounded, tents are being erected in Camp Curtin for the same purpose.

LIEUT. COL. STEPHEN MILLER, of the 1st Minnesota regiment, passed through this city yesterday, en route for his State, where he is to take command of one of the new regiments in that locality to operate against the Indians. He is a brave man and a gallant officer.

THE PERSON who received on the battle field a memorandum book, containing a dangerous copy of the late Henry C. Hopple, who was killed in the battle of Sharpsburg, and which he procured to deliver to his widow, is requested to leave the same at this office.

"ON THE SHORES OF THE TENNESSEE," a new patriotic song; "Our Song Shall be of Home," music by J. L. Hanson, a pleasing home song; "What Do You Think of It," polka by Chas. T. Frey, a brilliant and easy polka; "General Corcoran's Release March," by Clark; "Gen. Banks' Grand March," by E. Mack, the author of "Gen. McClellan's Grand March," together with a large collection of new publications, have just been received and are for sale by William Knoche, No. 93 Market street.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—Our city has never been so well favored with amusements as at present. To this the public are indebted to S. S. Sanford, the enterprising Philadelphia manager. Knowing the wants of a first class Opera House in this, the capital of the state, he erected the place now occupied by himself and his troupe in which he will have no cause to complain, for it has proved a success beyond measure. Nightly the house is filled not only by strangers, but by our leading families, and the entertainment provided by Mr. S. is superior to any he has yet presented. As comic talent is the order of the day, and in the performances at Sanford's Opera House all can have it to their heart's content.

"HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE."—A splendid sword, belt and sash were received here a few days ago by Sheriff Boas of our city, from citizens of Bethlehem, Northampton county, to be forwarded by the Sheriff to Lieut. Col. Selfridge, Forty-sixth Pennsylvania Volunteers, and presented to him as a token of the esteem in which he is held by his neighbors and friends, and of their admiration for his gallant bearing and heroic services on the battle field in defense of his country. The trappings have been forwarded by the Sheriff, and are no doubt now in possession of the worthy recipient.

Col. Selfridge is a citizen of Bethlehem. He has been with the brave Forty-sixth regiment under command of our heroic townsman, Col. Joseph F. Kulp, and has shared in all the dangers, and participated in all the glories through which that ill-fated but gallant body of men have passed. He was in the hottest of the fight in every engagement in which the regiment participated, and while his Colonel has been thrice wounded, and the men falling all around him, he has this far passed the fiery ordeal unscathed, except at the late battle at South Mountain, Md., where a minnie ball grazed his head, and left a welt a fingers length, just above his ear. He seems, as he himself has remarked, to wear a charmed life. He participated, also, in the terrible battle of Sharpsburg, and came out again unharmed, to share in the glorious victory that crowned our arms. In this engagement, the gallantry of the Forty-sixth saved a battery which was well nigh captured by the enemy. The Forty-sixth came up in the nick of time and drove them back with terrible slaughter, and suffering terribly themselves.—The regiment was finally reduced to about fifty effective men only, and is now joined with the 128th, Col. Selfridge in command as acting colonel. Col. Knipe being detailed as acting Brigadier General of the brigade. Both these brave and efficient officers very justly merit promotion. Their numerous friends would rejoice to hear of their being commissioned Brigadiers. "Honor to whom honor is due."
