HARRISBURG, PA.

Wednesday Afternoon, September 24, 1892.

TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.—No subscriptions for a less period than THREE MONTHS to the DAILY, and one year to the "WEEKLY TELEGRAPH" will hereafter be entered on our books.

Persons desiring the daily for a shorter period, can obtain them from the news agent in almost every little town or village along the line of Railroads.

STORES CLOSED.—M. Wiler & Co's. store will be closed this evening till Friday next, in consequence of the Jewish holidays.

TIN PLATE WORKERS.—Wanted immediately, a few good hands. Enquire at the Tin and Sheet Iron Manufactory of LYMAN GILBERT, Market street.

ARE YOU ASSESSED.—All those who desire to vote at the ensuing election, ought to see that they were assessed ten days before the election. The election will be held on the 14th of October next.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.—Henry Newcomer, of Snodury, employed on the gravel train of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad, was killed on the 6th inst., near Lewisburg, by being crushed between the cars.

ARREST OF DEERTERS.—A considerable number of Union and Rebel deserters were arrested in and near York borough during the last three days. The Federals were only committed to prison until they can be sent back to their regiments, and the others, after taking the oath of allegiance, were permitted to go on their way rejoicing.

LIEUT. COL. ROBERT A. LAMBERTON, at the head of the Harrisburg companies comprising in part his regiment, marched through the principal streets of the city, this morning, and attracted for "the boys" the attention and applause of the people. In fact, though not uniformed, the men looked and marched like veterans. We feel proud of our militia.

BOYS, DO YOU HEAR THAT?—The young ladies say that the young men must make good use of their time now and consider themselves of great consequence, for when the war is over and the brave soldier boy returns to his home, they intend to have soldier beaux. They think the defenders of the country will make the best defenders of the fair. Some of the ladies say that those men who are so conscientious as to take the oath not to defend their country, would not defend their wives if attacked, and therefore will not have anything to do with them.

THE THIRD REGIMENT F. V. M., Col. Dore, of Huntington, and composed of men from Northumberland, Union, Lycoming, and Juniata counties, arrived in the city last evening, and were forwarded to their respective localities during the day. This regiment occupied a position between Hagerstown and Williamsport, where they composed the advance of the militia force on the border. They were in line of battle forty hours, and made a forced march of forty-five miles. For raw men, the regiment won great credit.

HORSES STOLEN—THIEVES ARRESTED.—Two young men who gave their names as William and Henry Kanyon, and hailing from Rhode Island, came to the residence of Mr. Jacob Ebersole, at Elb's Landing, Manchester township, in York county, on Sunday evening the 14th inst., and asked for employment. On Monday and Tuesday following they worked, and on the night of the 16th they left, taking two of Mr. Ebersole's horses with them, and two saddles and two bridles. Next morning the 17th, Mr. E. went in pursuit of them and found them at Wrightsville, where they had been arrested on suspicion and committed to prison.

A ROMANCE, which seems like a page from a fashionable novel, has recently been enacted in Williamsburg, New York. It appears that some ten years ago a poor widow named Lake started for California, first giving her infant for adoption to Mrs. Walsh, living in Brooklyn. California proved El Dorado indeed to Mrs. Lake, for she there married a very wealthy gentleman, and a few weeks since returned with him to this city. She claimed her child, but Mrs. Walsh refused to give it up, and after considerable litigation the Court decreed that the adopted, and not the real mother, should retain the little one.

IMPORTANT TO LETTER WRITERS.—The U. S. Mail, a paper published by an ex-U. S. Mail agent, in describing the immense work done at the post office at Washington, D. C., says that the work of the office is rendered very difficult from the ignorance or carelessness of persons directing their letters. The Mail says:—

"Many letters come with the envelope covered over with everything that is needless, and nothing essentially like the following, actually copied from a letter from Geo. F. Armstrong, Capt. Brig. Gen. James Nagle, commanding, 1st Brigade, 2nd Division, 9th Army Corps, camp near Rapidan river, 6 miles from Culpepper Court House, Culpepper county, Va., Burnside's Division."

"Now, if instead of the above long, nonsensical address, he had written thus,—George F. Armstrong, Co. B, 129th Reg. Penna. Vol.,—we should have known just where to send it.—The largest number of letters mailed (at the Washington office) in one day has reached 70,000. A number of free letters and packages received during the last quarter was 910,000, or more than three and a half millions during the year."

The Postmaster wishes all persons directing letters to soldiers in the army, to know that a simple and short direction is all that is necessary, and is much more likely to quickly reach its destination. All that is necessary is the name of the person, number or letter of his Company, and the number and State of his Regiment.

MR. FELIX HUBER having closed his place of business, in order to go with the militia, for the protection of our border, takes this mode of informing his old patrons and the public generally, that he has now returned home and will re-open his meat-shop, corner of Second and South streets, on Friday, where he hopes to merit a continuance of patronage. d20.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—Notwithstanding the star attraction of Sanford himself, he presents the famous Sam Sharpley, as the hero of the evening. Sam, since his last visit to this place, some six or seven years ago, has been in every country and climate, and is now ranked a No. 1 performer, or as the bills says, the best in the world. For genuine wit and humor, we can endorse him, and with our own great Sam, we may look for some rich and rare fun. The two Sam's are a bully team and should draw big houses, notwithstanding the extra expense Mr. S. assumes, as he has not raised the price of admission. So be in time if you wish a seat at the cozy Opera House to-night.

CARD OF THANKS.—At a special meeting of the Marion Guards of Harrisburg, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt thanks to Mr. Wm. K. Verbeke, for his kind attention to our company during the stay in camp. We shall always cherish in our memory one, whose noble deeds have contributed so much to our country's cause.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere thanks to Mrs. Verbeke for her kind attention to our company.

CHAS. A. SMITH, PATRICK HURNS, WM. EVANS, Committee.

The company elected the following gentlemen as officers: Captain—E. B. Sanno. First Lieutenant—John Raymond. Second Lieutenant—Raphael Flowers.

PERSONAL.—The officer of the day, at Camp Curtin on Saturday, the 23rd day of August last, will please leave that small amount of money placed in his hands by a private, at this office, so that it can be handed over to the wife of the soldier. Proper authority for its reception will be produced.

In our office of the above, yesterday, it would appear as though Captains Hunt or Tarbutton were the persons alluded to. We should have made it read the officer of the day, and not the officer in command. The money was placed in that officer's hands for safe keeping and the soldier was ordered to join his regiment, and left in such haste that he was unable to see the officer before his departure. No blame is attached to the officer who received the funds, and if left at this office, we will deliver the money to the family of the soldier, or direct the officer to their residence.

ARRIVAL OF THE DAUPHIN COUNTY MILITIA.—Their Reception and Appearance.—Last evening the Dauphin county regiment, or such companies as belonged to Harrisburg, arrived at the depot, and were received by a large concourse of people. The appearance of the boys after a campaign of a week, was of course not as neat and as trim as when they started for the border, and yet we venture the assertion that the experience they had of a soldier's life will induce a large number to enter the service for the war.

The different companies were marched to their respective headquarters and dismissed. After the arrival of the Dauphin County Cavalry, and after they had paraded through the principal streets, the company was handsomely entertained by the host of the Bomgardner House, Mr. Joseph Stone.

In addition to the companies belonging to this county, a large number of men belonging to other localities also arrived in the city at different hours during the night. Others will continue to arrive during the day, and as fast as transportation is furnished the men will be brought to this city, mustered out, and then forwarded to the different localities in which their companies were organized.

WE HAVE received a large assortment of hoop skirts, from 75c. up to $2.50. A large assortment of linen and needlework collars, and collars and sleeves, at all prices. The finest lot of embroidered French combing waste ever brought to Harrisburg—of infant's and children's linen pocket handkerchiefs, ladies' stockings, gentlemen's one half hose, and children's stockings of all descriptions and prices. Twenty pieces of carpet to be sold cheap. Kentucky jeans, satinettes and cassimeres for men and boys' wear. We received 50 dozen suspenders, at all prices. 50 dozen cotton handkerchiefs, with borders, and a great many other notions and small wear. S. LAY.

As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front. AULIS DIRM MRS. L. BALL.

Mrs. Ball.—I take this method of testifying to the efficacy of your valuable medicine. My child had Convulsion of the Bowels, and I heard of your curing children of that disease. I then gave it a trial, and my child was restored to health. When I commenced to use it my child was three weeks old. I then used your Infant Cordial until my child was six months old, and my husband and I believe that your medicine was the means of saving our child's life. I live two miles below the city. MARY E. MAHAN.
