HARRISBURG, PA Monday Afternoon, September 29, 1862.

THE TORY ORGAN ON THE NEGRO.

The tory organ asserts, this morning, that this is a contest to maintain the great social and political supremacy of the white race over the black. We admit the truth of this assertion. but the organ has taken the black side of the issue. As slavery now exists, and as it is infranchised, five negroes in the south are count ed equal to three white men in the north. It is this feature of elavery that we opposewhile in defending and advocating the claim that five negroes are equal to three white men.

Join this fact to the organs strenuous exerhis country, and we have a practical illustration of that sheets efforts to maintain the suconstitutional and just.

THE STATE DEBT.

the economy of the finances ever been more trict. strictly guarded than it is now. All this is -We alluded to this subject yesterday, and sustained by the proclamation of the Governor, repeat now what we then declared, that if Judge Reconnoitering on the Virginia Shore. published to-day, setting forth the operations Hale lends himself to this nefarious business to of the sinking fund. By that proclamation it defeat a high-minded, patriotic and loyal man, will be seen that within the year ending Sep that the spleen and malevolece of a pack of old tember 1st, 1863, the payment, cancellation, party backs may be satisfied, he will disgrace extinguishment and final discharge of Two himself in the eyes of every really independent One Dollars and Sixty-seven Cents of the principal sire to mince words on the subject; nor do we of the debt of the Commonwealth has been assume to interfere in the preferences of the made, including one thousand one hundred people of any Cohgressional district, but when and eighty-eight dollars of the relief issues, an act so unfair as this seems to be is attempted, which have been cancelled and destroyed as and proceedings so ungrateful are about to be authorized by the ninety eighth section of the enacted by one to whose first election to Conact of the nineteenth day of April, A. D., one gress we contributed our full main and poor thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

In the success of this work, the Auditor solemn and earnest protest, urging that justice General, Hon. Thomas E. Cochran, and the and right and gratitude be invoked to save State Tressurer, Hon. Henry D. Moore, deserve Judge Hale from the disgrace which he would especial credit and notice To their energy merit and surely incur by thus opposing the killed and wounded. The total loss in these three army corps is therefore 8,428. The loss ly traced, while to the prosperity of the people, and the healthy condition of the business of the state, we may also trace this ability of the government thus to meet and discharge its obligations.

THE SOLDIER'S VOTE.

The tory organ is dreadfully afraid that Gov. Curtin will issue his proclamation ordering an election to be held in every camp that contains a regiment or company of men from Pennsylvania. Some time since it claimed that the Democracy were doing all the fighting. If this is so, we insist that the Democracy have the right to vote. Unlike the tory organ, we are particularly those who are engaged in defending the government. Let the soldier vote, then, as life he is offering to his country-and let those who, like the tory organ, are urging the disfranchisement of the soldier, be made to take dier returns to his home.

The case of the Democratic sheriff in Philadel phia, was an unfortunate example to cite, as it is on that case that the soldier's claim to vote is legal proceeding to compel a board composed maintained by a Democratic Judge, in the face of Democratic Commissioners and Democratic of the decision of the Supreme Court. Judge Judges, to meet for the purpose of affording Ludlow, a Democrat, absolutely refuses to oust the defence of the country? If the Democrats in a Bepubl.can. Yet the tory organ asserts that a Democrat has been ousted by the decision of the Supreme Court. This is a lie-clear and well understood when it was penned for the organ-because the Democrat still holds the office of Sheriff in Philadelphia, and a Dem.

ONE OF THE INDISCRETIONS.

We notice by the Berwick Gazette, the organ of the rampant opponents of the war in Columbia county, that Col. S. M. Bowman, of the 84th Regiment P. V., (Murry's old command, and which he alone made famous), has been delight ing the tory sympathizers in that region with a lecture on the war, during which he assailed Gen. Pope, denouncing him in unmeasured terms, and exposing what he termed, "the merits of this [Pope] pompous commander." We allude to this subject in no disposition to occupy our time or space with any strictures on Col. Bow man as a man, but to ask whether it is the business of Colonels who are detailed to recruit for their regiments, to devote the time thus alloted in harranguing the people on the merits of their superior officers. What has Col. Bowman done, that he should thus sit in judgment on the merits of one of the bravest men in the army Nothing that we know of, but live on the reputation of a regiment made glorious by the valor of a man who, if he was our political opponent, still had the courtesy and discretion of a soldier and a man to eschew politics, and devote himself entirely to his regiment.

The Gazette also states in its synopsis of the report of Bowman's remarks, that "he was severe on the radicals." By which we are to infer that he was denunciatory of those who support the state and national administration, because only they are radical in the opinion of such Breckinridge organs as the Gazette, who support Lincoln and Curtin in their vigorous policy to crush rebellion. This is a little more than the friends of Col. Bowman promised Gov. upon our pickets. As may well be supposed Curtin when they imported him from Illinois, the special object of the mission was fully acthan the friends of Col. Bowman promised Gov. and urged his appointment as Colonel of the 84th. He was then claimed as a soldier, but according to the Berwick Gazette, he is only the howling politician perambulating the country

-There is no longer any wonder that there should be a want of unanimity in the army, when such things go unrebuked by those in power. All we can do is to expose and denounce them, and then leave the rest to fate and fortune.

THE BRECKINEIDGERS who were in the Congressional Conference to which Clinton and Centre counties belong, namely, H. L. Diffenbach from the former, and C. T. Alexander from the latter county, have entered their protest against the refusal of a majority of that conference to make a nomination for Congress. of slavery the tory organ as persistently insists So far as a nomination was concerned, it was useless for the Breckinridgers in that district to put forth a man, as Hon. William H. Armstrong, ed, and a number of pieces of artillery, but no tions to disfranchise the whit; man battling for the nominee of the loyal men of the district, is bound to be elected. But it seems that it is not this of which the virtuous Diffenbach and premacy of the white over the black race. It the profound Alexander complain. They proflies into a great rage if a proposition is made test because they suspect that a sort of patched to disfranchise slavery—but disfranchise the up union is to be effected between certain of the s ldier, and the outrage is at once pronounced friends of Judge Hale and others among the Breckinridgers in that district, for the purpose of putting Hale on the track as the opponent of Mr. Armstrong. The twain of protestants It is a gratifying fact, that, in the midst of urge that the "Democracy" cannot swallow the extraordinary expenses and unprecedented Hale, and that that clique should have nomiexcitement in which the Commonwealth has nated a man full-dyed and of their own proso suddenly found itself involved and surround clivities. We agree with them, and join in ed, the financial operations of the state were their protest, because we want to see how many never conducted with more success, nor has dough-face sympathizers there are in that disand Sixtu-two Thousand Eight hundred and and upright man in the state. We do not de might, we cannot refrain from entering our warning?

BILLY BIGLER's county of Clearfield, is a rare spot for the growth of his own peculiar spirit of parsimony and political meanness. Some stumping his county, rousing the people to loyal action, and that he had created a tremendous furore in favor of the Government, for all of which the people outside the powers of Clearfield were expected to bow down and oner a rebel cavelry officer, whom they capworship the aforesaid Bigler. But the sequel to all this is shown in the fact that a few days since, our talented and intrepid friend, H. B. Swope, Esq., presented a petition to the Clearnot in favor of disfranchising any man, and field Court, asking a Rule on the County Commissioners and Associate Judges to show cause why they should not meet and sit as a Board a right belonging to him now, by the blood and of Relief under the Act of Assembly. The Act requires them to meet at least once every month to hear claims for relief by persons who are in distress by reason of their friends having the responsibility of the outrage, when the sol- gone into the army. The Court on hearing, ordered the Board of Relief to meet and furnish the relief required by the Act of Assembly.

Is it not humiliating that it should require a relief to the suffering families of men absent, in are doing all the fighting, the men whom they put into office, according to the rule of the Clearfield county Democratic office holders, are determined to starve the families of the absent fighting Democracy.

Reports Of Rebel Movements.

CENTRENILLE, VA., Thursday, Sept. 25. The advance division of Gen. Sigel's corps under the command of Col. Yonglisa, of the 40th New York volunteers, Dekalb regiment, reached this place on Monday last, via Fall's Church and Fairfax Court House. No energy was found on the road hither to inter pose any obstacle to the progress of the troops, or to taking possession of the fortifications upon their carbines to bear upon them.

On Tuesday Brigadier General Stahl reached this point with an additional force, and he now has command of the place and occupies the house of Mrs. Whaley as his headquarters.— The usual precautions have been taken to prevent a surprise by the enemy, and since Monday scouting parties have been sent out daily their arrival here, except a few scattering horse-men, who fied before our scouts could bring in different directions. General Stahl in person visited the Bull Run battle field yesterday with a small force for the purpose of administering a little salutary pun-ishment to a party of rebel scouts who had fired Yesterday morning a force, consisting of two regiments, a squadron of cavelry and a section of artillery, accompanied by a gang of workmen, under the command of Col. The bridge troops will then make a more extended reconnoisance this afternoon.

Gen. Seigel made his headquarters at Fairfax F R O M Court House, and has with him the balance of his corps The future action of these troops are as yet involved in mystery, at all events so far as newspaper correspondents are concerned. I had a conversation to-day with a resi dent of Brentsville, just across the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, from Manaesas Junction, and he communicates some important facts, if true. He says that four of the five locomotives reported to have been destroyed by General Banks when he fell back from cles of clothing supposed to have been destroy-

At Gainesville, he reports that there are at least ten thousand stand of arms belonging to the rebels; they are also repairing the bridge, destroyed by order of Gen. Pope, across the Rappshannock river, and the road will be in running order to Company with the destroyed by the company with the contract of the co ning order to Culpepper within a few days.

This gentleman, who is vouched for in high quarters as a good Union man, also reports that Joe Johnson is marching towards Manassas Junction with forty thousand men. This story is not generally credited here, however the Orange & Alexandria railroad is now in good running order to Manassas Junction.

On Friday morning a battalion of cavalry crossed, and soon afterwards sent back as pris crossed, and soon afterwards sent back as prisioner a rebel cavalry officer, whom they captured at Shepherdstown. Soon after a boy appeared on the opposite bank, shouting to the pickets not to fire. He came over, and reported that he had enlisted with the rebels at Frederick, and, becoming disgusted with the service.

The rebels, he said, were in force ten miles back from the river. He also said that Jackson had had his arm amputated, in consequence of a wound received at Antietam. These stories of rebel deserters are, however, notoriously unreliable.

On Thursday, at noon, General Griffin in person, with the Ninth Massachusetts and the First District of Columbia regiments, crossed the river. They threw out skirmishers, adpessed into the woods. Shortly afterwards they sent back a piece of artillery and an artillery forge which the rebels had left behind. They remained over during the afternoon; but, as there was no firing, it is to be presumed they did not find the rebels in force.

A PROCLAMATION. WHEREAS, The threatened invasion of Penn sylvania by the rebel army has been arrested by the prompt and patriotic response of loval men of the State, and the signal victory achieved by Gen. M'Clellan's army on the Antietam.

And whereas, The alacrity with which the people in every section of the Commonwealth rushed to the rescue of their brethren on the Cumberland Valley border, is worthy of the highest measure of praise. Although not required by the terms of the call to pass the borders of the State, our brave men, unused to the rigors of war and untrained in military movements, not only entered Maryland, but held Hagerstown against an advancing foe, pressed forward to the Potomac, and resisted the threatened movement of the rebels upon Williams port until troops in the United States service arrived and relieved them. Their timely and heroic action has saved the state from the tread of an invading enemy, whose necessities made even military strategy subordinate to plunder.

Now Therefore, I, Andrew G. Currin Government of the Common wealth do harshy order ernor of the Commonwealth do hereby orde that the troops called into the service of the State by General Order No. 36, be discharged, and that they be sent to their homes as rapidly der them the grateful acknowledgments of a rescued Commonwealth. And I recommend, that, the companies hereby discharged from active service, should take prompt measures to preserve and perfect their organizations, and that new ones should be formed in every county, so that they may at all times be ready to answer the call of the State should their services again be required. Arms will be issued to them as soon as they can make regular requisitions in accordance with law, and the companies lately in the service of the State, will be preferred to others, should the supply not be equal to the demand. It is confidently expected, however, that all the organized men of the State can be promptly and properly
