HARRISBURG, PA. Tuesday Afternoon, September 30, 1862.

DAVID M'CONNICK, whose enterprise and liberality as a coal merchant, have given such impetus to that trade, publishes an advertisement in another column, to which we call the attention of our readers.

$6 REWARD.—Lost at Carlisle yesterday afternoon, a morocco pocket book, containing draft on E. W. Clark & Co., of Philadelphia, for one hundred and eighty dollars, (payment for which has been stopped,) about three or four dollars in notes, and various papers of no use to any one but the owner.

PROMOTED.—Oliver Simmons, of this city, attached to Col. Knipe's old regiment, has been promoted to a Lieutenantcy. This is highly proper. Oliver was in the several late battles, and the capacity of private and non-commissioned officer, in all of which he displayed great military skill and undoubted bravery.

STRANGERS IN TOWN.—We have been gratified by a call from Frederick Ayer, Esq., the business man of the firm of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell.

THE HOSPITAL AT YORK.—A correspondent from York complains bitterly of some of the soldiers stationed as a guard at the hospital in that borough. He styles them a regular set of disloyal, rebel, secession soldiers, and further states that the company refused to go into active service under the excuse that they enlisted not to leave the State.

THE JONES HOUSE.—We present to-day the advertisement of Mr. Joseph F. McClellan, of Chester county, who is now the proprietor of the "Jones House," in this city.

THE FOLLOWING paragraphs bring out clearly some points of the revenue law, which have been imperfectly understood, and which are important to be known:

STAMPS NOT CONVERTIBLE.—No stamp issued for one purpose can be used for any other.

STAMPS—HOW TO BE CANCELLED.—The person using or affixing an adhesive stamp shall return upon its initials and the date when used.

STAMP-DUTIES.—PENALTY.—If any person shall make, sign issue any instrument, document or paper, of any kind or description whatever, without the same being duly stamped for denoting the duty imposed thereon, or without having thereupon an adhesive stamp to denote said duty, such person or persons shall incur a penalty of $50, and such paper shall be deemed invalid and of no effect.

THE FOLLOWING resolutions were adopted by the Board of Presidents of the Banks of Philadelphia, September 16th, 1862, and we suppose indicates the course that will be adopted by the banks generally.

Resolved, That the Banks of this City will not receive on Deposit, or for Collection, or Discount, or Pay any Check, Draft, Promissory Note, Bill of Exchange, or other negotiable instrument, unless the same is in legal form.

Resolved, That all Checks, Drafts and Certificates issued by the Banks shall be in legal form.

THE LATE DISASTER ON THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY RAILROAD.—The Philadelphia papers of yesterday contain the following dispatch, dated Carlisle, from which it may be fairly inferred that it comes direct from the managers of that road. Read it carefully:

CARLEIGH, Sept. 28.—We have the best authority for saying that the Cumberland Valley Railroad Company is in no way accountable for the accident which occurred at Bridgeport, on Friday last. The road has been in the custody and absolute control of the government since 21st inst., and no officer of the company had any participation in the movement or direction of trains since that date.

Remarks.—We have also the best authority for saying that the shifting train which ran into the passenger train and caused the death of at least eleven human beings and the maiming or crippling of from fifty to sixty more, was under the management of that company and no one else, that the engineer ought to have made enquiry at the telegraph office, before he left, if the road was clear, and that he could have easily ascertained the fact that a train was due and coming when he left the other side of the bridge. These are facts, and it will not do for the railroad company to shift the responsibility on the government. Why not institute an enquiry at once? It is the duty of the corner of Cumberland county to make the investigation, without waiting for the friends of the dead and wounded to move in the matter. Is he afraid of the influence of a rich railroad company, that he looks blindly at the slaughter of the poor soldier, who fights the battles of his country? We repeat again, let us have an investigation by all means.

SOLDIER KILLED.—Between three and four o'clock, on Thursday morning last, John Ford, of Mansfield, Richland county, Ohio, connected with Co. D. 32nd Ohio Regiment, was instantly killed, by the collision of a train on the Northern Central Railroad, with an empty freight train going south. The accident occurred on the summit and the deceased was standing on the platform at the time. The body of Ford was brought to York, and afterwards sent to his late place of residence. Both locomotives were considerably damaged and a number of the cars broken.

KICKED.—Secesh is good on an evacuation, and it is generally done through fear. In the last Jeffersonian, the organ of the dough-faces in Chester county, we learn that a slanderous attack was made on David Meconkey, Esq. His son, Capt. Elbridge Meconkey, of General McCall's staff, met Hodgson in the street on Saturday night and gave him a sound kicking, whereupon this redoubtable pastebord Major immediately evacuated! Another of the secessh tribe, for uttering disloyal sentiments at Cotesville recently, received a sound drubbing. If the army won't fire on these people, the Home Guard will!

ONE OF OUR LOCAL WAGS called on us this morning, to assure us that he had discovered the birth place of Frank Hughes. He insists that he is neither a Pennsylvanian or a North Carolinian, but that he is an Italian. Puzzled to know how he established this fact, we asked for the proof, when he coolly informed us that his Hughes penchant to control organs and send pet monkeys over the county to take up collections, was his rule for fixing the nationality of Hughes. Of course we have nothing further to say on the subject.

DEATH OF LIEUT. H. P. PETRIKEN.—We were sorry to learn from our Centre county exchanges, that this gallant and gifted young officer, while he was bravely serving his country and discharging his duty in the front ranks of the army of the Republic, was deliberately assassinated by the rebel pickets, while he was passing along our lines, and thus added to the long list of noble, brave and generous martyrs who are now being sacrificed on the bloody shrine of slavery.

The writer of this paragraph knew Lieut. Petriken well and intimately. His genius and generosity—his noble impulses and aspiration after knowledge and perfection, made him at once the favorite of those who knew him, and the delight of his kinsmen and his friends. His temperament fitted him for deeds that required valor in their achievement; and if courage ever was blended in any man's other qualities, we believe that it was merged in all the peculiarities of Lieut. Petriken. He was the only son of the late James Petriken, at one time Secretary of State.

THIRTIETH REGIMENT, P. V.—We witnessed a very pleasant and enthusiastic demonstration in the Capitol grounds on the return of the Thirtieth Regiment Pennsylvania Militia from our border. The regiment was one of the finest organized for the defence of the State, and was among the first to respond to the call of the Governor.

Judging from the unanimity of feeling and discipline displayed by the officers and men of the regiment, it is due to them to say that they made good use of their time to arrive at such marked improvement in so short a time; and they would have rendered efficient service had the opportunity been afforded them to display their courage.

Col. Johnson is a strict disciplinarian, an efficient officer, and a tried soldier—having served as Captain in the Seventy First (late Col. Baker's) California Regiment, Pa. Vols. He was at the battle of Ball's Bluff, on the 21st October, 1861, and was gallantly fighting by the side of the lamented and brave Col. Baker when he fell, and saved himself from being taken prisoner in that terrible and disastrous engagement by swimming the river.

He has shared in all the dangers, and took an active part in every engagement in which the regiment participated. He fought gallantly and well at "Fair Oaks," "Peach Orchard," and at the hard fought battles at Savage's Station on the 29th day of June.

It was while he was gallantly cheering his men into action at the "Battle of White Oak Station," June 30th, that he was severely wounded—from the effects of which he is still suffering. He was highly complimented by his superior officers for his courage and bravery, and received the admiration of the officers and men of his regiment for his gallant bearing and heroic conduct on the battle-field.

Owing to his wound, he was honorably discharged, not being able to return to his regiment at the expiration of the sixty days allowed by the War Department. His numerous friends would rejoice to hear of his being commissioned by the Governor as Colonel of our state regiment. He is certainly a brave and efficient officer, and very justly deserves promotion. Having seen more than a year's active service in the field, and withstood the brunt of many battles, he has the practical ability and experience to command a regiment or brigade.

We need just such tried and brave men as Colonel Johnson to lead our regiment into battle. Honor to whom honor is due, and reward the meritorious.

A CARD.—"We seek not glory from the senseless crowd; Of fanciful laurels we shall ne'er be proud; Their warmest plaudits we would scarcely prize; Their sneers or censures we alike despise."

The above lines are supposed to be intended for those who make it their business to disparage the humble efforts of the late Volunteer Militia. The special object of this card is to give expression to the feelings of gratitude of the First Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteer Militia, for the general kindness that characterized the conduct of the officers towards their men:—Col. Henry M'Conick, Lieut. Col. R. A. Lamberton, Maj. T. B. Bryson and Adjutant Newman. May their shadows never grow less. We cannot here refrain from noticing especially the untiring and high-toned consideration of Lieut. Col. R. A. Lamberton for the general comfort of his men. In conclusion, permit us to call your attention to the cheap dry goods depot for returned Pennsylvania Volunteer Militia, at the south-east corner of Front and Market streets. Yours, &c., &c., UNION & BOWMAN.

SENSIBLE AND SOUND.—The Lancaster Evening Express says sarcastically and truthfully hits the Tory organ: "The Harrisburg Patriot and Union does not show much sign of improvement, since the President's late proclamation, in its assaults upon the government and its attempts to discourage enlistments. Its last effort, however, is an attempt, by innuendo, to resist the collection of the national tax. If there is any virtue in the proclamation of the President, it is about time that it was applied to the editors of this villainous sheet, who richly deserve the full extent of the punishments meted out to traitors."

A SIGHT AN OCEAN HUMILIATING and disgraceful came under our notice lately, in the spectacle of two officers in full dress uniform, escorting two notorious prostitutes to the most prominent seat in one of our popular resorts of amusement. Surely there should be some means to prevent the uniform of a soldier from being thus disgraced. If men will degrade themselves, let us save the honorable badges and distinctions of a service that is daily becoming so glorious, from being brought into the contamination of a public exhibition with those "Who weave the winding sheet of souls, And lay them in the urn of eternal death!"

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Knuckle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition.—Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted), and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer. A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchase or not.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that this Pills have virtues which surpass in extent the ordinary cathartics, and that they may be used with safety in the case of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful in their operation, and remove the obstructions of the organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge the bowels, break up humors, and grow dispeller, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs in their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the system. Not only do they cure the every day complaints, but are so formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, the most delicate, the safest, and best physic that can be employed for children. They are, therefore, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surprise those who are not subsistated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of fraud. Many eminent physicians and surgeons have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of our remedies, while others have sent the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The scales below named are pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use and certificates of their course, of the following composition: Osteo-rhiza, Bilious Complaints, rheumatism, Dropsy, flatulency, Headache arising from a full stomach, Pain, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Nausea, Stomach, Flatulency, Loosening of the bowels, and all cases which require an evacuant medicine. Being superior in purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach. It is the only medicine that cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other blood complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on, for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Dealers in Dr. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Dr. C. A. Swan, York, D. W. Green & Co., O. K. Keller, M. Lutz, Dr. Riley, F. W.
