Falsehood and slander are the proper weapons of those who lend themselves to traitors and apostates. Too cowardly to take an open stand in aid of treason, because of the bloodshed that might ensue to themselves, these poor wretches content themselves with stirring up strife among loyal men, on the plea that the system of taxation adopted for the support of the government, is both unequal and unjust. For weeks the dough-face tory press, in the pay and under the control of Frank Hughes, Chairman of the Breckenridge State Central Committee, have been engaged simultaneously in these perversions. They have rung out the charge that the tax will be burdensome on the consumer, while the producer will be almost exempt; and they have be influential in changing any of its plans or under his command, my earnest and hearty purposes. A RICH RUMOR. We hear from a gentleman who arrived in this city yesterday evening, direct from Potts-PAYERS of Centre county? In concluding his message, Gov. Ramsey indulges in the following language:

THE TORY ORGAN endeavors to dodge the One of the features of the great plan adopted question of the enfranchisement of slavery and by the traitor sympathisers and modern tories the disfranchisement of the soldier. But its in this state, for the purpose of deluding the effort is a very lame one, and we repeat the accusation we brought against the Breck-nridge Democracy on Monday, to wit:

1st. That it is the clear purpose of the Breckenridge Democracy of Pennsylvania to achieve a political victory solely and mainly to contribute to the preservation o the political franchises of slavery; and

2d. That in laboring for this enfranchisement of sla very this same party avowed a purpose to insist on the disfranchisement of the gallant soldiers who are now ab sent from the state of Pennsylvania struggling for the defence of the Union and the vindication of the government.

-Such is modern Democracy!

THE MUSTERING AND DISBURSING OFFICER ST this post, Capt. B. I. Dodge, we were surprised to hear, last evening, was about to be relieved, and is to be detailed for duty in Baltimore. Of dial thanks, of her authorities, to those who course we have no right to interfere with any of the arrangements of the War Department, while a mere newspaper paragraph is not likely to McClellan, and the gallant officers and men and the gallant officers and the gallant officers and the gallant officers and the gallant officers are the gallant officers and the gallant officers and the gallant officers and the gallant officers are the gallant officers and the gallant officers are the gallant officers and the gallant officers are the gallan purposes. And yet we cannot refrain from ex pressing our regret that such a change should eir purpose to mislead the people, and thus be in contemplation (if the rumor is really correct.) as much on account of our interests in the success of the service in this locality, as for the of use to all our readers:
