Voters of the 14th Congressional District ! Beware of Libelous Hand-Bills!

THE ENEMY AT WORK. We understand that this Congressional District is to be flooded with libelous handbills against JOHN J. PATTERSON, the Union candidate for Congress.

We therefore caution every true friend of his placed in his or their hands by sympathizers and September, we may be expected to receive ernor of New York: with the tories of the present age.

BOUND OVER FOR LIBEL.

Since the above was written we learn that THEOPHILUS FENN was bound over on a charge of being the author and publisher of one of the libels circulated against John J. Patterson. At the request of Mr. Patterson we caution persons not to circulate any of the bills in question, as he will most certainly prosecute every one that either circulates or publishes the same. By the laws of the land the circulator of any libel is equally guilty with the writer or publisher, and innocent persons may thus save themselves trouble. Let the courts decide the appalling carnage come to an end.

3. The emancipation once effected, the Northern States would be forever relieved, as it is right that they should be, from the fears of a great influx of African laborers, disturbing the elations of those Northern industrial classes who are so freely giving their lives to the support of the Government.

This done, and the whole African population will drift to the South, where it will find a congenial climate and vast tracts of land never vet cultivated.

I forbear to enter into the discussion of the and paid laborers over the same number held as heretofore in Slavery.
