To the People of Pennsylvania. [From the Miner's Journal, Sept. 27, 1862.] The Democratic State Central Committee having authorized their chairman, Francis W Hughes, to place before the people of the State of Pennsylvania such matter as that committee think the people ought to reflect upon at this time, and Hughes having undertaken to do so, it is the duty of such persons as know Hughes well, to give the people such facts as will ena-ble them to determine for themselves, whether Hughes is laboring to serve the North or the South between to the the Union South, whether he is trying to have the North or the South, whether he is trying to have the Union restored or to have the rebels succeed, the Statas divided, and a Southern Confederacy establish-ed. To enable the people to judge for them-selves and act as they think right, I give the evidence following. Dotterillo 24th Sentember 1869 evidence following. C. Pottsville, 24th September, 1862.

At a public political meeting, held in the court house in Pottsville, Schuylkill county, in February, 1861, John T. Werner, who was sheriff of Schuylkill county from 1846 to 1849 "Cotton is king, and I thank God for it." Mr. Werner read the above this morning and

DONALDSON, Schuylkill county, Pa., September 18, 1862.

C. Tower, Esq., Pottsville, Pa.: DEAR SIR: In the winter of 1861 I was in the cars, going to Philadelphia, and while be-tween Pottsville and Reading, I was sitting on the left-hand side of the car, and Francis W. Hughes, of Pottsville, was in the same car, two seats ahead of me. I think there was not that it could and would be put down. Hughes at 12.15 a. ... any body sitting on the same seat of the car with to this replied, that he wished he could see or FAST LINE burg 5.45 p.m. him; I know there was not with me. He was conversing with a gentleman, who sat right opposite him, and the second seat ahead of me, on the same side with me. I heard Francis W. Hughes, then and there, say to that gentleman, "I am a delegate to the Democratic State Con-tion at Harrisburg, and I am going over to attend the Convention, and when there, I intend offering a resolution before that Convention, that Pennsylvania secele from the Union, and join herself with the South, and leave Rhode Island, and Connecticut, and Massachusetts, and them d-d little petty States, to subsist on their codfish and Plymouth rock."

You are at liberty to make any use of this statement you may think proper, and I shall be ready to verify it by my oath, at any time, when required to do so.

Very respectfully, DAVID LOMISON.

POTTSVILLE, Sept. 8, 1862. C. TOWEB, Esq-Dear Sir: I have duly considered the importance of your inquiry relative to my personal knowledge of the attempt made some eighteen months ago by F. W. Hughes, Esq., to "switch" the State of Pennsylvania out of the Union, in nearly the same manner, and by the same unholy means that were em-ployed to carry Tennessee, Missouri, Louisiana, and other States out ; and in compliance with your request, will endeavor to give a plain, un-varnished statement of such facts as I may be possessed of, confining myself as strictly as pos-sible to the precise language used at the time.

A day or two prior to the assembling of the Democratic State Convention at Harrisburg, in February, 1861, I heard it bruited about that Mr. Hughes, (who was a delegate to that Con-vention,) designed to introduce into that body a resolution, the object of which was to carry Pennsylvania out of the Union, and to join the so-called Southern Confederacy. The report notwithstanding my knowledge of Mr. Hughes' sympathy for the South, (he having previously told me in conversation with him, that the only mistake in Mr. Buchanan's Administration was that "he did not receive Messrs. Rhett & Co., of South Carolina, as Com-missioners, instead of 'distinguished citizens,' and treat with them upon the subject of their mission ;") the report, I say, struck me as be-ing so manifestly absurd as to be scarcely worthy of not ce. On the evening of the day of the Convention, (I think the 22d of the month.) while on my way home, I fell in company with his nephew, John Hughes, Esq., (law partner of F. W. Hughes.) and as we walked a considerable dis-tance in the same direction. I took occasion to mention to him the reports I had heard in regard to Frank's secession resolution. He replied, "Yes I think that Frank is doing wrong in that matter." I asked him if it were really

Lloyd's Railroad map, showing the State, was hanging against the wall, in the office, open. Hughes pointed to the map with his cane, and explained to Wells what he (Hughes) thought would be the result of this rebellion that the Western States would eventually join the South, as their interests lay with them; that the New England States, together with New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and he may have included Ohio. Ohio would be all that would remain of these United States, and that would remain of these United States, and that would remain of these Inited States, and that the may have a set of the open set of the set of t that they would have to bear all the expenses or burden of this war; and that would be, as he thought, the result of this rebellion, and in February, 1801, John T. Werner, who was he baddget, the feature of repudiation would finally be a.m. she side and the feature of the disgrace of repudiation would finally be a.m. the terms of repudiation would finally be a.m. say, when speaking about the amount of cotton that was exported from the United States, "Cotton is king, and I thauk God for it." effect—he would go to some other country or place; Wells does not remember which. Wells then asked Hughes where he would go. He replied, "to Sandy Bottom, as Natty Mills used to say." Wells said, "Hughes, you come to these conclusions upon the basis that this re-bellion cannot be put down." Hughes replied, "yes." Wells then asked him what conclusion the reputed some the supportion that "yes." Wells then asked him what conclusion he would come to, upon the supposition that this rebellion could and would be put down.---He said, "Of course, then, I should come to a quite different conclusion;" but said, at the same time, that he believed it could not be put down. Wells reiterated that he firmly believed to this replied, that he wished he could see or believe as Wells did; but he could not or would not.

The foregoing was read by Wells, and he says it is correct. He says Hughes gave reasons for his belief, the chief of which was the bad feeling between the North and South, relating to the negro. Hughes justifies holding the negro in slavery. C. LOESER. POTTSVILLE, Sept. 8, 1862.

In July last, about two weeks after the fune-ral of the Hon. Charles W. Hegins, which was on the 4th of July, John P. Hobart, late Sheriff of Schuylkill county, and his wife, were at Sun-bury, and while there called upon Mrs Donnell, bury, and while there called upon Mrs Donnell, the widow of the late Judge Donnell, of Sun-bury, and the sister of Judge Hegins, on a visit of friendship. In the course of conversation Mrs. Donnell said, "Mr. Hobart, you know my brother was a patriot in every sense of the word, and for some time before his death the state of his country troubled him very much. A short time hefore his death he would me to his hed time before his death he called me to his bed and said overtures had been made to him by prominent politician of your placs, of Schuyl kill county (I mention no names,) to join with them, which he declined doing. And he then said, the course the Democratic party were now pursuing was the greatest fraud ever practised upon the country." Mrs. Donnell then said, "I authorize you to tell this in Fottsville." By Mrs. Donnell's statement, Mr. Hobart and his wife were both satisfied that Judge Hegins had named to his sister the prominent politician of Pottsville, Schuylkill county.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart read the above this morning, and say it is correct. C. LOESER.

true then, that he designed to offer such a resolution? He answered, "Yes-he took such a resolution with him-I read it myself several times, and advised him not to offer it." I need scarcely say, that what I was disposed to re gard before as an idle rumor had now become a stern reality. On my return from tea, I stop-ped to see the late Judge Hegins, and communicated what John Hughes told me. The Judge smiled and said : "Why, Frank showed me that resolution before he left, and asked my opinion of it. I advised him for God's sake, not to offer it, as it would kill him politically, forever." I anxiously awaited the publishe proceedings of the Convention, and was gratified to see that the resolution in question was not among them. Thus matters rested until some time, I think, in April or May following when, on the way to my place of business, I met Mr. James Gowan, of Harrisburg, an old friend and acquaintance. The war having been actually commenced, our conversation naturally turned upon that subject. Some pretty se-vere strictures were made by myself on what I considered the mistakes of Mr. Buchanan's administration, and as being in my opinion the ministration, and as being in my opinion the direct cause of all our troubles. My friend, on the other hand, defended Mr. Buch-anan's policy. While thus engaged, we were joined by Gen. J. Y. James, of Warren, a mutual friend and acquaintance of both of us. Mr. James sustained my views on the question, and the "talk" became somewhat animated, in the course of which I mentioned the effort attempted to be made by Mr. Hughes in the late Democratic State Convention to "switch" Pennsyl-vania out of the Union, when I was interrupted by Mr. James, who said: "Why, wasn't I in that Convention, and on the committee to draft resolutions? And didn't Mr. Hughes come to me in the committee room and ask me to sup-port his d-d treasonable resolution?" He continued: "After I had read it I got so d-d mad that I shook my fist and swore that if he attempted to offer that resolution, either in committee or Convention, that I would pitch him and his resolution headforemost out. window." "I don't know," continued the General. "whether it was my threat or what, but I neither heard nor saw anything more of that resolution." The material points of Mr. James' statement were subsequently admitted by him to Mr. L. F. Whitney, of this borough, in my presence. This is substantially all I have to say in relation to your queries, and is given in nearly, if not precisely, the same language used at the It has been hastily drawn up, but you tim are at liberty to make whatever use of it you may think proper. Very respectfully, &c., JEBOME K. BOYEB.

Hegins and Benjamin Pott, Hegins said "Hughes is making a fool of himself," that he had shown him, (Hegins,) resolutions he (Hughes) had drawn up to offer at that Convention in favor of Pennsylvania joining the Southern Confederacy, Hegins said he gave him a hell of a scolding.
