

PEOPLE'S UNION STATE TICKET AUDITOR GENERAL:

THOMAS E. COCHRAN of York County.

SURVEYOR GENERAL: WILLIAM S. ROSS. of Luzerne County.

UNION COUNTY NOMINATIONS.

CONGRESS. JOHN J. PATTERSON, of Juniata county. ASSEMBLY.

THOMAS G. FOX, of Hummelstown. JAMES FREELAND, of Millersburg. DISTRICT ATTORNEY, A. JACKSON HERR, of Harrisburg.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER, JACOB MILLEISEN, of Lower Paxton. DIRECTOR OF THE POOR, DANIEL SHEESELY, of Upper Swatara. COUNTY AUDITOR, DANIEL LEHR, of Gratztown.

THOMAS STROHM, of Linglestown. CORONER, JESSE B. HUMMEL, of Hummelstown.

COUNTY SURVEYOR.

HARRISBURG. PA

Thursday Afternoon, October 9, 1862.

VOTERS OF DAUPHIN COUNTY. Beware of the Most Infamous Falsehoods.

The emissaries of the Breckenridge County Com mittee are flooding Dauphin county with extras printed at the Patriot and Union office, containing the most infamous falseboods ever uttered intration represents the authority of the Govby mortal man. These extras contain, among ernment. It is against this authority that the other matter, articles refering to taxation which are utterly false and devoid of the least vate rebellion, and then indeed will come taxasubstance of touth.

county, these lying emissaries made a landlord and rebel traitors, will be saddled on loyal men believe that he would be obliged to pay a lisense of $40 extra, if he kept a Bagatelle table the end of the war—an end in which these loyal on his premises. This man not having seen the states will be bound in a slavery far worse than tax law, went actually to work and removed that which has held the negro in chains so long the table from his premises, on the representa- in the south. tion of the men who lay claims to respectability in this city.

Dauphin, whether persons who circulate such mere dependants on the will and dictation of wilful and malicious falsehoods against the the aristocratic slave holders of the south-Government, can be considered loyal citizens.

STRAWS SHOW WHICH WAY THE WIND

BLOWS. We noticed some days since, that H. Bucher Swope had applied for a writ of Mandamus, to compel the Commissioners and Associate Judges of Clearfield county, to meet as a Relief Board, under the Act of Assembly, for the purpose of affording relief to the families of soldiers absent in the service and the defence of united in sentiment as to its suppression, and gery and falsehood go hand in hand with treachthe government. This application was stoutly willing to support any measure which would ery. Our fees are in a desperate condition. Let opposed by the officials, (all Breckenridge De-bring about this end the speedlest. But the them be watched, and their defeat is certain. mocrats,) who were to form this board, and in moment an important election approached, this And let the loyal men of Berks county-indeed response their counsel, W. A. Wallace, filed an unanimity and co-operation began to be dis- let the loyal men of every county in the state answer at once rich in legal lore, replete with turbed and dispelled. The leaders who precipibe on their guard for the frauds which the generosity and glorious with patriotic loyalty. tated and encouraged rebellion began to make Mr. Wallace, for the respondents, tells the issues with the government, until we now have Court that the Commissioners never for a mother state of a people divided on issues ment imagined that there was any thing like which should unite them, and at a moment compulsion in the law which provides for such when the country needs the services of loyal relief, and would have the people believe that when the Legislature passed this law to relieve their profession of this loyalty, actually antathe families of those who were willing to trust them to the care of each county, while they, their natural protectors, were absent in of just laws, by ridiculing the effects they are the service of the nation, it was in a Pickwickian designed to have. Are the men aware, who How do the people relish the loss of money advancing rapidly in heavy columns upon the sense, or what is still more truthful, according are employed in denouncing the tax law, of to Wallace's construction, a locofoco sense, to what they are doing? Are the people aware of deceive honest men, delude brave soldiers, and starve the families of the country's defenders. the voice of treason as it is disguised in the so-Thus, Mr. Wallace, in this response, pleaded most learnedly and earnestly against such a most learnedly and earnestly against such a press? If they are not, let us warn them disposition of the people's money as would in time, that they are trifling with dangerous bring bread or shelter to the wives and families of the soldiers. He insisted that because Clear- the men who are now opposing the state and field county had erected a new Court House, such wives and families of the soldiers could in justice be left to starve. He claimed that, be- Nothing is surer than this. A blow struck county should be exempt from all responsibility in this matter. But the Court understood the dodge. Judge Linn was aware that such men as Wallace and his democratic clients who were thus laboring to resist the law, could only be made to feel the burdens of the war by compelling the county to take charge of the families of the soldiers who needed support. Accordingly the application for a writ of Mandamu was sustained by the Court, and this board of relief ordered to meet and transact business in Clearfield county.

was so forward and zealous in this contemptible in the loyal states, must be influential of dis-will come to me I'll tell him how to stop this and most outrageous proceeding, is the Breckenridge candidate for State Senator in he unite them in a bond which all the lies of the Union, and the rebellion will be stopped in sixty days." Clearfield district. He is the pet of Bigler - devil and his co-worker Hughes, could not Miller, Roumfort, Heck and the tory organ acknowledges the promptings of the ex-Senator, and seeks a place in the approaching Legisla- further battles with the union men in arms. daily to induce the people to repudiate, to ture, that he may contribute to the success of They are willing to trust their cause to their prove that slave labor has rights more sacred sippi, and another Colonel commanding a brihis master, who once more aspires to Senatorial Breckenridge allies in such states as Pennsyl- than those of free men, and, if possible, secure-of those who seek to starve the helpless women be welcome to a bloodless invasion. Let our desire to see slavery established in Pennsylvaand children of the soldiers, to a place in the friends remember these facts, because they are nia? If they do, let them support the Brecken-Pennsylvania Legislature? We trust not.

WHAT ARE WE TO VOTE FOR?

its virulence for years, and assisted in tra-doubtful. ducing to death two warrior Presidents, has set out again to snatch a victory from truth and reason, justice and loyalty, by traducing the whether it is to be of evil or of benefit to the who are now under arms. This the tory symcountry. ourse the appropriations stop. Heck displayed of the earth. his purpose on this subject in a late session of the it has already cost to organize such an army, and to refuse it all further support in the way of subsistence and pay.

We all know what we are to support. We know that we are to vote for the support of the army-for the preservation of the public peace -for the insurance of the public credit, and thus of course for the vindication of the national Pennsylvania be placed in opposition to the administration of Abraham Lincoln, and the rebellion will become a success in the hour in which that result is announced. That adminrebels have armed. Strike down this Government, and of course we elevate rebellion. Eletion, because the entire costs of the war, as it In one of the towns in the upper end of the was waged by the Federal Government and people for election, and such a result will be

With these facts before you, voters of Pennsylvania, the result depends upon your action. It is for you to decide whether or not, the peo-We ask every candid man, in the county of the of Pennsylvania shall henceforth become the for as certain as fate, if the election on Tuesday next is decided in a manner to prove that the dough-face sympathizers with rebellion possess the political power to control the election, so certain will the war of this rebellion succeed.

UNION.

By dint of care, with a commendable concess | course be apprised of this dastardly trick By dint of care, with a commendable concest time to counteract its intended influences for tery were captured.

Sion on the part of the dominant party in the time to counteract its intended influences for tery were captured.

After having stood for so many hours before loyal states, from the hour that the rebellion evil. In the meantime, we warn the the loyal broke out, the people in the same states were men of all districts to be on their guard. Formen, we find those men who are loudest in gonizing the government-doing what the rebels have armed to do, oppose the operation the danger they are incurring by listening to phistry and far-fetched arguments of the tory men. If they lend themselves to the cries o national administration, and this opposition succeeds, of course the rebellion must triumph. cause the people had subscribed money, the through the ballot-box at the national or state administrations, is the same as that struck by armed rebels. It would be even worse, because it would lack the open audacity of an armed traitor, who, bad as he is, commands our admiration in comparison to the dough-face who stabs, as a cowardly enemy, while he openly professes to be a loyal supporter of the government.

The people who were united on the subject of suppressing the rebellion, before the political issues now made by Hughes and his hireling press were thrust upon their attention, can be Eighth District of Indiana. He represents the and would be again united, if they paused for a same party that Geo. M. Steinman does. In a we regained, and once more it hurled destruction. If they reflect that division and he said . "If Old Ale Thereader must remember that Wallace, who moment's reflection. If they reflect that division speech a few days ago he said : "If Old Abe aster to the loyal cause, their patriotism will rebellion: Extend slavery over every state in the sever. The rebels are no longer anxious to seek stand on the same platform. The Patriot labors Will the people elevate the hired advocate less victory, the rebels themselves would soon the Union. Do the people of Dauphin county stern and severe. We must have union and ridge candidates.

harmony and action and decision among the There never yet was a political campaign loyal men who are to vote at the coming eleconducted in this state, but, before it was half tion. Without this, there can be no victory waged, the locoloco party succeeded in attract- achieved-and without a triumph at the com ing the attention of the people from measures to ing election such as will vindicate the acts of men. The same party that pursued Henry Clay both the State and National administration, to his grave—that made Webster the object of our hopes of success in the field will become

A PACT FOR THE PEOPLE.

The money which is required to support the men to whom it is opposed, with alander and army six months, would pay for the slave prolibel. It is not likely that the men who compose this party, even with the aid of a few pro- would not only do this, but it would do more fessed, yet meanly hypocritical loyal men, will by thus striking a death blow at rebellion, of succeed in this purpose, because the people course dispersing its armies, and necessarily fully understand for what they are to vote thereafter returning to their homes and their buwhat is to follow as the result of that vote, siness in the loyal States, the thousands of men pathizers in the loyal States undratand, and Upon every vote which is east on Tuesday hence their opposition to the emancipation and made two issues the object of their struggle. Let the people fairly understand that the lea-First, if they manage to get power, they have ders of the Democratic party are alone respon-First, if they manage to get power, they have arranged to repudiate the debt of the nation.

Every dollar that has been loaned to the government—the interest thus far on that public debt end the arrany must.

delt end the support which the array must.

ders of the Democratic party are alone responting the present war. Everybody has plenty of paper money of all descriptions and denominations. The treatment of the Federal prisoners at Libby prison has been changed for the better, and those confined with Captain Young had no cause to comfined with Captain Young had no cause to comfined with thirty others were in a large. debt, and the support which the army must for every dollar spent, the leaders and candidebt, and the support which the army must for every dollar spent, the leaders and candi-have to render it victorious, will all be repudiated. Having failed to prevent the organiza-sible. If it was not for the reliance with which and servants with marked kindness. The ration of a force to coerce the south into obedience, and feeling that the armies of the Republic can only be defeated in this manner, the tory of which Frank Hughes now stands, and the dough-faces have adopted this plan for the tail of which the tory organ and the Breckenoverthrow of the government. If they succeed ridge candidate for Congress in this district overthrow of the government. If they succeed ridge candidate for Congress in this district ing left Richmond on Tuesday morning.

compose, the rebel armies would have long The rebel troops are rapidly recruiting, their new uniforms consisting of dark gray woolen Congress-and manage to get such demagogues since been scattered and outlawed, and their nis purpose on this subject in a late session of the state, we end the rebellion. If the news goes not end till the expiration of President Linforth, after the election, that the Union men coln's term of office. Everybody, however, is have armed, the game now is to repudiate what feel its effects. The result will strike terror to the rebel chiefs. It will end all hope of further aid. But let the opposite be the result. Let the dough-face traitors succeed-let such men as Slenker and Barr triumph-let market. Tin drinking cups sell for seventy Miller be sent to Congress, and a shout will five cents, and all other necessaries in propor come from the south, more terrific than any authority and power. One thing is certain, let which has yet signalized the victories of their Capt. Young was released unconditionally

These are facts which the people must remember. Let no man be deceived on this subject. Let every man remember that he must vote as if he was face to face with traitors, and not hesitate to regard as such any man who is now opposing the efforts of the national admin- its Desperate Character on the First Day istration to crush rebellion.

In Berks county, the tory dough faces are put Heavy Loss in Officers on Both Sides. to the most desperate means to counteract the influence and the popularity of the Union caus and the Union candidates. In order to defeat Major Wanner, the Union candidate for Con gress, they have not only villified his personal character, but they have misrepresented his character, but they have misrepresented his political principles. All TRIS IS DONE WHILE MAJOR WARNER IS BEFORE THE REBEL FOR ENGAGEING ING IN THE DEATH STRUGGLS TO PRESERVE THE BESEL FOR ENGAGEING IN THE DEATH STRUGGLS TO PRESERVE THE BUT THE B GOVERNMENT IN ITS PURITY AND POWER. But the brigade poured in upon us, and we were forced tories of Berks county are not satisfied with slowly backwards, fighting desperately. this, as we learn from an extra of the Reading Journal. Determined to defeat Major Wanner, and satisfied that they cannot do so fairly while the left, and were attempting to get in our rear. his name is fairly before the people, the Read-We were obliged to fall back still further, to ing Adler, the organ of the Anconaclique (Ancona prevent this movement from being accombeing Wanner's opponent for Congress) has actually published a NORGED letter purporting to be the de The loyal men of the Berks district will of day. During the day's fight our loss was heavy, but that of the enemy must have largely exceedenemies of the government will attempt at the approaching election.

THE PLATFORM OF THE TORY ORGAN.

The Tory organ has erected a platform, and as the organ of the party in this district, the was evident that some movement was being this afternoon, and that 3,000 more of his men

1st. Repudiation of the War Debt, by an organi ed resistance to the war tax. This idea is daily o'clock, they met the enemy within a quarter which was patriotically loaned to the govern-fire on the skirmishers, who immediately began vote to sustain this repudiation. 2nd. Repudiation of the national taxes, that the of the north may join hands with their old allies, and once more get possession of the government. By starving the soldier, and by cuttory organ hopes to end the war. It is the doctrine which is advocated with the knowledge and consent of every man on the Breckenridge ticket. Vote for Heck, Roumfort or Miller, and the army will be starved, the families of the soldier beggared-and this, added to the bankruptcy of the American creditor, will con-stitute another of those brilliant victories which more marched into the streets of Corinth. bankruptcy of the American creditor, will conadorn the banners of Breckenridge Democracy.

THE REAL ISSUE.

John Pettit is a candidate for Congress in the

FROM WASHINGTON

BUMORED CABINET AND MILITARY CHANGES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.

Rumors of cabinet and military changes from time to time prevail here, but gentlemen in official positions seem altogether ignorant of such arrangements.

Post Master-General Blair has returned to Washington from the north.

continue for some weeks.

A more cheerful and hopeful feeling as to among all the loyal classes, than at any former period during the present war.

constantly present.

were served at daylight.

Col. Dan'l. Ullman and Lieut. Col. Brown of New York regiments, and about seven hun-dred others, arrived at Annapolis to day, hav-

Congress—and manage to get such demagogues since been scattered and outlawed, and then jackets, light blue pants, &c.; they say there as Roumfort and Heck into the Legislature, of leaders become common vagabonds on the face is no lack of arms and more cannon than can be used.

The general impression is that the war will return home. One constantly hears the remark, "you may exterminate, but you cannot subdu

The new Merrimac is not yet numero.

Eight dollars per bushel is charged for sweet potatoes, one dollar per pound for tye coffee to Capt. Dorchester, Chicago:

There is little or no molasses in the to Capt. Dorchester, Chicago:

"The enemy attacked us with 40,000. They was a with the capture of the captu

Maj Barney is still detained at Libby prison

Battle at Corinth FURTHER PARTICULARS.

HOW THE BRECKENRIDGERS HOPE TO THE FINAL REPULSE OF THE REBELS

CORINTE, Miss., Oct. 5. Correspondence of the St. Louis Democrat.

attacked by the enemy in force, about six miles northeast of Corinth. Before nine o'clock On the morning of the 8d our outposts wer

The rebels pushed forward with determined obstinacy, and held every foot of advantage ground. They outflanked our inferior force on The enemy were inside of our breastworks, pushing us backwards towards the town, when claration of Major Wanner as a candidate for Congress. darkness put an end to the fighting for that ed ours. Three pieces of the 1st Missouri bat-

the enemy's fire, the men were consumed by thirst and subdued by the constant exertion. Brigadier General Hackleman fell, mortally wounded, at the head of his Brigade. General Oglesby was shot in the breast.

THE SECOND DAY'S FIGHT. About 4 o'clock on the morning of the 4th, the enemy opened briskly on the town with shot and shell. Our batteries replied, and for an hour or more heavy cannonading was kept up. At the expiration of that time, two of the rebel guns had been disabled, and shortly after daylight their battery of seven guns were captured.

A protentous quietness soon occurred, and it candidates whom it advocates for election of made by the enemy.

The Western Sharpshooters, under Colonel

Burke, were ordered forward as skirmishers to feel the enemy's position. At half-past nine ment? Vote for Miller or Roumfort, and you to retire, returning the fire of the enemy with

The woods seemed alive with rebels, and is pay of the soldier may stop. This idea is daily set to escape destruction in their retreat over threeforth, as a means to give the Brickenridgers of quarters of a mile of open ground, which inter-the south the victory, that the Breckenridgers evened between them and our temporary works of defence.

In a few moments the engagement became general. Our batteries opened a destructive ernment. By starving the soldier, and by cut-fire on the exposed ranks of the rebels, mowing ting off his means of support to his family, the them down like grass. The slaughter among tory organ hopes to end the war. It is the ring and recklessness they rushed impetuously forward.

They charged our works desperately, broke ou lines of infantry, and captured a small fortifica-tion, in which the battery of the First Missour was planted.

Our fortune seemed to be all lost. A tempo-

New batteries opened upon them. Our men under the direction of a few courageous officers and stimulated by their example, though thinned in ranks, fought desperately. The advance of the enemy was checked. They wavered, and then fell back. Our lost battery

The day was saved, and the enemy in full retreat. Our loss was comparatively small during this fearful charge. That of the enemy was fully twenty to our one killed. Among the rebels killed and left on the field was Brigadier General Rogers, of New Orleans, Colonel and Acting Brigadier Johnson, of Missis casualties. he large. We lost but four taken prisoners.

CHICAGO, October 8 .- A special dispatch from Cairo to the Tribune, says that the rebel Colonels Johnson, Rogers, Ross, Morton, McLaine, and Major Jones, were killed, and Colonels Donly and Pretch severely wounded in the late battle at Corinth.

THE BATTLE AT CORINTH-ADDITIONAL PARTICU-

The Chicago papers of yesterday contain but few additional items to what has already been published, of the battle at Corinth. The Chicago Tritune, publishing the official dispatches of General Grant, prefaces them with the fol-owing:

In order to gain a correct idea of the battle of Corinth, it is necessary to go back to the desperate fight of Iuka, on the 19th of September. Gen. Grant had information prior to that engagement, that the rebel Gen. Van Dorn was marching up with a heavy force to flank Co-rinth on the west, and to attack either that place or Bolivar, Tennessee, while Price moved simultaneously from Iuka. Prices' discomi-ture at Iuka delayed, but did not entirely frus-

Vashington from the north.

Secretary Smith's absence in Indiana will trate this plan.

After the battle of the 19th, he retreated by Upon every vote which is east on Tuesday configuration to the continue for some weeks, way of Marietta and Fulton to Tupelo, and then next, will depend the future credit and glory configuration policy of President Lincoln. Let A more cheerful and hopeful feeling as to the country. Our political enemies have this fact, therefore, be kept before the people. This fact, therefore, be kept before the people this fact, therefore, be kept before the people. The country of the replacement of moved upon Corinth. It appears that their main army marched north through Buckers-ville and Jonesboro' to Pocahontas, on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, and then moved down the road to attack Gen. Bosencrans, while another column, probably Price's, took the shortest route by way of Kossuth.

The following dispatches also published in the Tribune are new:
CAIRO, Oct. 6.—We have this morning the following list of killed and wounded in the battle at Corinth, in addition to the names already forwarded; they all belong to the Iowa 2d Infantry: Col. Baker, severely wounded in the groin; Lieut. Colonel Mills, wounded in the leg; Lieut. Snowden, Co. I, and Lieut. Hunt-ington, Co. B, killed; Lieut. Ring, Co. C, and Lieut. Blake, Co. K, severely wounded; Parker and Tomby, of Co. F, and Suiter, of Co. B, slightly weunded: Lieut. Colonel Parrott, of the 7th Iowa, was slightly wounded.

All the Iowa regiments at Corinth were in the engagement, and behaved with great gallantry.
Bowen's Battallion, Gen. Curtis' body guard, arrived this morning from Helens. They are on their way to St. Louis.

are whipped awfully, and retreating. We are after them. I am unhurt.

ARTHUR C. DUCAT."

CAIRO, October 6.—I have received the following additional from Corinth:

Col. Thrush, 47th Illinois, was killed in the battle of Saturday. Col. Baldwin, 57th Illinois, and Lieut Colonel Sanders, 16th Iowa, formerly editor of the Davenport Gazette, were slightly

THE WAR IN KENTUCKY

DEFEAT OF MORGAN'S FORCES.

THE ENEMY DRIVEN IN EVERY DIRECTION

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 9. Arreport, considered reliable, here says that ten. Dumont attacked John Morgan's forces troops. Gen. Dumont expect capture the scattering bands. Gen. Dumont expects to surround and

St. Johns, N. F., Oct. 9. The steamship Nova Scotian from Quebec passed Cape Race at 7 o'clock on Tuesday night. tin, near Harrisburg, Penna., in quantities as A furious gale was blowing at the time and the crew of the News Yatch of the Associate Press were nearly lost in a vain attempt to board

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The steamer Persia has been signalled below. She will be up at four

CINCINNATI

__-Advance of the Federal Forces

CINCINNATI, Oct. 9. The forces that have been encamped in this vicinity, broke up camp yesterday, and made sonthward. Maj. Gen. Granger has assumed command of these troops, and will conduct the campaign in northern and central Kentucky.

Morgan again Advancing in Kentucky. LOUISVILLE, Oct. 8.

A reliable report just received here savs Morwere rapidly approaching that place. Our troops had left Frankfort for Lawrenceburg, Ky.

On Saturday, near Hardinsville, Scott's rebel cavalry cut off and dispersed a company of the 9th Kentucky cavalry, under Lieut. Morris. The company has not since been heard from. the company has not make been near from.

It is reported that Lieut. Morris and two privates were shot after their capture by the rebels.

General Dumont's division is still at Shelby.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION IN BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 8.

The election passed off very quietly, and, as was expected, but a small vote was polled. The Unconditional (regular) Union candidate received 18,877 votes, and Fred. Fickey, the Independent Union candidate, 1183, the former being elected by a majority of 7694. The entire regular Council ticket was also elected, except in one instance.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9. Flour held with increased firmness, and there is a moderate shipping demand; sales of 600 bbls. at $5.25 for superfine, and $6.25@6.75 bols. at $0.20 for supernite, and $0.20@0.10 for extra family. The receipts are extremely light. Small sales of rye flour at $3.75@4, and corn meal at $3.12\frac{1}{2}. Wheat in good request; 1,000 bus. Fennsylvania red sold at $1.33@1.36; 1,000 bus. southern at $1.40, and 2,000 bushels white at $1.50@1.60. Pro is wasted at 746. white at $1.50@1.60. Rye is wanted at 74c. Corn is less active; small sales of yellow at 70c. Oats are in good request, and 4,000 bus. Delaware sold at 42@43c. No sales of barley or malt. Coffee firm; sales of 1,200 bags Rio at 22@24c.; a cargo of Turk's Island sold at the company of the c 31c. No change in provisions; 500 tcs. lard sold at 92c. Whisky less firm; sales of Ohio at 341@35c.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9. further battles with the union men in arms. It is impossible new to give a list of the people to repudiate, to prove that slave labor has rights more sacred than those of free men, and, if possible, secure than those of free men, and, if possible, secure than those of free men, and, if possible, secure than those of free men, and, if possible, secure than those of free men, and, if possible, secure than those of free men, and, if possible, secure than those of free men, and, if possible, secure than those of free men, and, if possible, secure than those of free men, and if possible, and another Colonel commanding a bright, and another Colonel c Flour firm, and has advanced 5@10c.; sales ossualties.

Our proportion of officers killed is thought to an advance to 35c. Receipts of flour, 140,024 be large. We lost but four taken prisoners.

Our proportion of officers killed is thought to an advance to 35c. Receipts of flour, 140,024 bbls.; wheat, 125,450 bus.; corn, 78,840 bus.

Amusements.

BOB EDWARDS'

GAIETY MUSIC HALL

Walnut Steet, below State Capital Hotel. Best Regulated and Cheapest Place of Amuse ment in the World. Never has more been

CONCENTRATED. such a bright array of FIRST CLASS ARTISTS, in any Establishment of the kind, either in EUROPE OR AMERICA. Determined to keep up the GREAT REPU TATION already acquired for this

Mammouth Place of Amusement. we feel a just pride in announcing for this week, commencing September 29th, the Greatest Living Gymnast in the Country,

CURTIS IRWIN In connection with the

BEST DANSEUSES

the American Stage, MISS KATE FRANCIS.

MISS LIZZIE FRANCIS, and MISS KATE ARCHER; and the American Nightingales

DICK BERTHELON,
The Champion Bone Player of the World, and WEBER'S SPLENDID ORCHESTRA.

To conclude every evening with the great

ADMISSION.......20 cents.

Doors open at 7 o'clock. Commence at 7%.

NOTICE TO BUILDERS.

Assistant Quarter Master's Office. Harrisburg, Oct. 9, 1862.

toher inst., for the building of A MESS ROOM AND QUARTERS. at Harrisburg, Pa., for the use and accommodation of soldiers. The building is to be built of wood, 150 feet front, by 37 feet 4 inches in each day until the letting.

Proposals must contain bids for material and labor, and all expense of said building, as the same will be let entire.

E. C. WILSON, Asst. Qr. Mr. U. S. A. Oct. 9, 1862-td

FORAGE.

SALS FOR FUEL" or "FORAGE," (as the case may be,) will be received at the office of Good, sound, merchantable, hard wood for fuel, green or dry, in cords of 128 cubic feet, the sticks to be four feet long from point to

"egg" size, in tons of 2240 lbs. The above to be delivered subject to inspection at Camp Cur-

"Hay and Oats," upon requisitions, as the same may be required by A. Q. Master, for public and private horses, at Harrisburg, Pa. Price per pound to be stated.

The proposals must be accompanied by the actual signatures of the parties tendering, and the actual signatures also of two sufficient sureties in the sum of three thousand dollars, will-

> E. C. WILSON, Supt. A. Q. M., (Vol.) U. S. A. Harrisburg, Pa.

JONES HOUSE.

HARRISBURG, PA.

JOSEPH P. MCCLELLAN, PROPRIETOR. (RECENTLY CONDUCTED BY WELLS COVERLY.)

WANTED TO RENT.—A Comfortable
House, with 6 or 7 rooms, in a respectable DAYID,

FIRST CITY TROOP RESTAURANT.

Restaurant and Refreshment Saloon in the newly fitted up rooms in Mumma's building, Third street, next door to the Magnetic Te'egraph Office, where he is prevared to zerve up Oysters, Game, and the delicacies of the season in a superior manner. The sa'o n will be opened for the accommodation of the public to-morrow, the 9th inst. Philadelphia Ale and Leger constantly on hand, and of the best brands. Call and see.

GEORGE DRESS.

Harrisburg, Oct. 8, 1862 -- d2t*

NOTICE TO VOLUNTEERS.

A N office to recruit for MAJ. ROBERTS'

BATALLION of HEAVY ARTILLERY has been opened on Third street, near Market, Harrisburg. As this is the only one authorized to recruit for FORT MON-ROE, those desiring to enlist will do well to apply at one to oct2-dlw Recruiting Officer, Battery C. ANDERSON CAVALRY.

obtain information as to the duties of the Troop,

NO ADVANCE IN PRICES. NOW is the time to have your Houses
Papered. Go to Henry C. Shafferls, No. 12 Market street, near the bridge, Wall Paper and Window Shade Store. Paper hanging personally attended to. All work warranted.

GAUARA JELLY. - large supply just wat. DOCK, Jr. & 00.

MISS MOLLIE FIELDING, and MISS JULIA EDWARDS; also

FRMALE SCENE OF MINSTRELSEY.

BOB EDWARDS, Sole Leases and Manager UNCLE TO 1MY, 1 ing of the Bucktails, Superintendent

TOM BRO RFIELD, the Great Ethiopean Comedian of the day, will appear on Wednesday night. New Advertisements.

DEOPOSALS will be received at this office until 10 A. M. on Monday, the 13th of Oc-depth, with a projection to near 80 feet. The plan and specifications can be seen at this office from 9 o'clock, A. M., until 3 o'clock, A. M., of

By order of Quarter Master-General, U. S. A.

PROPOSALS FOR FUEL AND

the undersigned Assistant Quartermaster of Volunteers, U. S. A., at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, nntil 3 P. M., of Friday, the 17th day of October, 1862, for supplying the troops at Camp Curtin with fuel for a period not longer than four months, to commence on the first day of November, A. D. 1862.

Good merchantable anthracite coal, of the three times in each week.

Proposals will also be received for furnishing

The contracts to continue for the time above pecified, unless sooner terminated by o the Quartermaster General of the United States

ing to enter into bonds for the fulfilment of the contract—and if these sureties be not known to the undersigned—a certificate of some United States or State Judge or Alderman of this district as to their sufficiency will be required.

CORNER OF MARKET ST AND MARKET SQUARE,

This is a First Class Hotal, and located in the central part of the city. It is kept in the best manner, and its patrons will find every accommodation to be met with in the best houses in the country.

8630-416

Harrisburg Post Office.

THE office for recruits for this organization has been re-opened at the old place, Colder Stage Office, Market Square. Any persons of good character who may desre to calist, or will please call on or address WILL. C. KELLER, Lance Corporal.

ANTED.—A White Woman as Cook.
Mrs. T. J. JORDAN,
Walnut death