

Daily Telegraph.

PEOPLE'S UNION STATE TICKET. AUDITOR GENERAL: THOMAS E. COCHRAN, of York County. SURVEYOR GENERAL: WILLIAM S. BOSS, of Luzerne County. UNION COUNTY NOMINATIONS. CONGRESS, JOHN J. PATTERSON, of Juniata county. ASSEMBLY, THOMAS G. FOX, of Hummelstown. JAMES FREELAND, of Millersburg. DISTRICT ATTORNEY, A. JACKSON HERR, of Harrisburg. COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, JACOB MILLEISEN, of Lower Paxton. DIRECTOR OF THE POOR, DANIEL SHEESELY, of Upper Swatara. COUNTY AUDITOR, DANIEL LEHR, of Gratztown. COUNTY SURVEYOR, THOMAS STROHM, of Linglestown. COORNER, JESSE B. HUMMEL, of Hummelstown.

HARRISBURG, PA. Friday Afternoon, October 10, 1862. EXAMINE YOUR TICKETS! Let every voter examine his ticket. Compare it with the names as published at the head of this column. See well to it that no "stickers" are pasted over the names of our candidates. Efforts will be made to DECEIVE THE VOTERS in this manner.

VOTERS OF DAUPHIN COUNTY, Beware of the Most Infamous Falsehoods. The emissaries of the Breckenridge County Committee are flooding Dauphin county with extras printed at the Patriot and Union office, containing the most infamous falsehoods ever uttered by mortal man.

THE CENTRE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT. We continue to receive letters from numbers of the honest and intelligent men of Centre county, complaining bitterly of the conduct of James T. Hale, whose apostasy they denounce in the broadest terms, and whose ingratitude they declare they will repay, if it takes years to find the opportunity.

READ AND REFLECT. We direct attention to an expose of the treasonable designs and purposes of the Democratic party, as it is represented by Frank Hughes, which appears in an article on the fourth page of to-day's TELEGRAPH. The addition made to this expose by the testimony of Mr. Till, is particularly frightful. Let the people ponder the facts thus set forth, and then decide upon voting for loyal men, instead of the friends of traitors.

OUR STATE TICKET. No local consideration—or no personal preference for any candidate—of the candidates for the Legislature or for Congress, must lead us to forget the weighty reasons which should urge us to secure, by all honorable means, the success of the state candidates, respectively, Hon. Thomas E. Cochran for Auditor General, and Gen. William S. Boss for Surveyor General. If these men are defeated, of course the tory sympathisers will claim that the people of the state are opposed to the policy of the government to crush out the rebellion. It will be claimed, and quoted abroad, that Pennsylvania, the largest among the loyal states, is opposed to a war of coercion—opposed to force to vindicate authority—and in favor of the recognition of the Southern Confederacy.

ARGUMENTS AGAINST THE DOUGH-FACE DEMOCRACY. If any man is not satisfied with the strong facts and arguments which we have presented to all men during this short but bitter political campaign, let him seek the different hospitals in this vicinity and satisfy himself of the necessity of not only putting down rebellion, but crushing out the spirit and institution which have engendered this strife. Every amputated limb is an argument against slavery, because if slavery had not existed in this land, liberty would have been secure, and of course this war for its defence unnecessary.

THE TORY ORGAN OF THIS MORNING says: "The time is arrived to start the cry of Down with the politicians and up with the people." The organ is far behind the times. The people rose long ago and put down the politicians. They did this in 1860, when they pronounced condemnation on the rotten administration of James Buchanan, when they hurled the traitor Breckenridge to the oblivion he so justly merited. And they intend to keep down all such traitors as Breckenridge, the editors of the organ, &c. ad omnia genera. "Down with the politicians, and up with the people!" We endorse the sentiment cordially.

FOR OUR COUNTRY. We use this term very often, while appealing to each other, and yet it is not often that we use it understandingly. In the present juncture of politics, we use it when appealing to men to beware how they vote; to beware lest their single vote might forever ruin the country. They must understand, then, what this interest in our country means.

OUR LOSS 2,000 KILLED AND WOUNDED. REBEL LOSS NOT ASCERTAINED. Bragg's army attacked two divisions of Gen. McCook's corps d'armee, near this place, yesterday. The fighting was desperate. Gen. Jas. Jackson, ex-Congressman, of Kentucky, commanding a division, was killed. Gen. Terrell, of Virginia, commanding a brigade, formerly of Terrell's battery, was very seriously wounded.

THE LANCASTER CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT. It is amusing to read the efforts of those who are attempting to defeat Thaddeus Stevens in the Lancaster Congressional district. That clique of rotten politicians have set up a sort of wooden man named Gen. George M. Steinman, and claim for him all the virtues and abilities of the great republican statesman when the fact is that the moral and physical appetites and propensities of the man are such that he should never be trusted from his home. His father made a fortune for him—experienced tradesmen conduct the entire business of the establishment he owns—and yet on that fortune and this business the dough-faces of Lancaster claim for Mr. Steinman great merits as a man, and of course the requisite qualities to make a useful representative.

CONFISCATION. A legal friend, who is thoroughly acquainted with the records of Schuylkill county, assures us that the property of Frank Hughes in that county, is all mortgaged to his brother Isaac Hughes, of North Carolina, who is at present engaged as one of the most active and energetic abettors of rebellion in the South. Indeed, this same Isaac Hughes is the father of John Hughes, at one time the dough-face candidate for Congress in the Schuylkill district, while Isaac and his son John, with three other sons, are all reported to be actually in the rebel army, fighting with more courage than even Frank Hughes exhibits for the rebel cause. In view of this fact, we demand that this mortgage of Isaac Hughes, as it is down on the records of Schuylkill county, be at once confiscated. What has District Attorney Coffee, of the United States District Court, to say on this subject? We write this notice for his information, and trust that he will at once move in the matter.

Great Battle in Kentucky. THE MOST DESPERATE FIGHTING. THE REBELS OUTNUMBER US AGAIN. Severe Hand-to-Hand Fighting. Our Army Heavily Re-inforced. THE FIGHTING RENEWED YESTERDAY. Gen. James S. Jackson, of Kentucky, Killed. Gen. Terrell, of Virginia, Wounded. Gen. Sheridan, of Illinois, Reported Killed. THE RESULT OF THE BATTLE YET IN DOUBT. The Rebels in Possession of Part of the Field. OUR LOSS 2,000 KILLED AND WOUNDED. REBEL LOSS NOT ASCERTAINED.

PERRYVILLE, KY., Oct. 9. Bragg's army attacked two divisions of Gen. McCook's corps d'armee, near this place, yesterday. The fighting was desperate. Gen. Jas. Jackson, ex-Congressman, of Kentucky, commanding a division, was killed. Gen. Terrell, of Virginia, commanding a brigade, formerly of Terrell's battery, was very seriously wounded.

THE REBELS DESTROYED THE TURNPIKE BRIDGE BEFORE THEY WERE ATTACKED. Louisville, Thursday, Oct. 9. The battle at Perryville commenced early in the morning by an artillery duel, which continued all day. Gen. McCook's corps was engaged at 12 o'clock the rebels made an effort to turn our left flank, and desperate fighting ensued at close quarters. The rebels were here driven back with heavy loss. The battle continued till dark, when both parties rested. Gen. Terrell was mortally wounded; also Col. Webster, of the 9th Ohio. Gen. Jackson was killed. The report of the death of Gen. Roseau is not confirmed.

LATER. Particulars of the Fight on Wednesday. CAPTURE OF TWO BATTERIES. THE ENEMY DRIVEN BACK EIGHT MILES. THE CASUALTIES. LOUISVILLE, Oct. 10. Among the casualties at the battle of Perryville, on Wednesday, are the following: KILLED. General Jackson. General Terrell. Acting Brig. Gen. Webster. Acting Brig. Gen. Lytle, of Ohio. Lieut. Col. Jewett, 16th Kentucky cavalry regiment. WOUNDED. Col. Pope, 15th Kentucky cavalry. There is no confirmation of the reported death of Gen. Sheridan.

THE VICTORIES IN MARYLAND. General Order Congratulating the Army of the Potomac. HEADQUARTERS, ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, CAMP NEAR SHARPSBURG, MD., Oct. 3, 1862. GENERAL ORDER NO. 160. The commanding general extends his congratulations to the army under his command for the victories achieved by their bravery at the passes of the South Mountain and upon the Antietam creek. The brilliant conduct of Reno's and Hooker's corps, under Gen. Burnside, at Turner's Gap, and of Franklin's corps at Crampton's Pass, in which, in the face of an enemy strong in position and relating with obstinacy, they carried the mountain, and prepared the way for the advance of the army, won for them the admiration of their brethren in arms.

Occupation of Grand Junction, Tenn. Reported Capture of Camp, Tenn. Cairo, Oct. 8. Our troops occupied Grand Junction to-day without opposition. It is reported that we have occupied Tupelo, Miss., with this needs confirmation. GEN. McCLELLAN IN PHILADELPHIA. PHILADELPHIA, October 10. General McClellan arrived in this city yesterday afternoon on private business, but left in a special train this morning to resume his position in the field.
