Saturday Afternoon, October 11, 1862.

EXAMINE YOUR TICKETS!

Let every voter examine his ticket. Compare it with the names as published at the head of this column.

See well to it that no "stickers" are pasted over the names of our candidates.

Efforts will be made to DECEIVE THE VOTERS in this manner.

Look well to the STATE TICKET!

Look well to the CONGRESS and LEGISLATIVE TICKETS!

Look well to DISTRICT ATTORNEY!

Look well to COUNTY COMMISSIONER, AUDITOR, SURVEYOR, DIRECTOR OF THE POOR, and CORONER!

VOTE THE WHOLE UNION, STATE AND COUNTY TICKET, and do not strike a single candidate!

By such action alone will the peace of the land and the security of the Government be attained and maintained!

THE SITUATION.

The latest advices say that 3,000 rebel cavalry, with six pieces of artillery, under command of Generals Stuart and Hampton, took possession of Mercersburg and Chambersburg yesterday evening—the latter about 8 o'clock.

This morning they destroyed the shops, road and rolling stock of the Cumberland Valley Railroad, and the railroad bridge at Scotland, five miles east of Chambersburg.

The rebels seized about five hundred horses and a large amount of clothing, which they immediately exchanged for their own dilapidated garments.

It is impossible to learn their intentions. Means are being devised to capture the invaders.

The rebels crossed the Potomac near Clear Spring early yesterday morning, and entered Pennsylvania by Blair's Valley.

THE LAST CARD.

The last card of the aiders and abettors of the Breckenridge faction and treason is now circulated by that party throughout the county in the shape of a bill signed THEO. FENN, giving certain private transactions between him and our candidate for Congress. We know nothing of the financial transactions between these two gentlemen, and care less, but we do know that there are other persons who are now living sumptuously on farms and in houses owned by their wives, while at the same time debts are unpaid by the husband; but these are private matters, and we leave them between the creditors and debtors to arrange as they may see fit.

But we are now dealing with public men, and we pronounce the allegations made against the public character of JOHN J. PATTERSON as untrue and maliciously false. Mr. Patterson has been in the Legislature, and always discharged his duty faithfully. His record is such that he is entitled to the support of every loyal man, and he who supports such a man for Congress as Wm. H. Miller, cannot be considered anything less than a sympathizer with the Breckenridge faction.

The only question asked by the people of this district is, is JOHN J. PATTERSON A LOYAL AND GOOD UNION MAN? As such he is supported. Let courts determine private transactions, and we fear Mr. Fenn will have his hands full, but that is his and not our business.

The fact that these bills are circulated two or three days prior to the election, is proof sufficient that they are false, and will remind our readers of the celebrated Coffin Handbills issued more than twenty years since by our enemies. These bills were printed at a loofoco printing office, in this city, and are circulated by Breckenridge loofocos. That is sufficient for every intelligent voter of Dauphin county. They are well acquainted with these old loofoco bills issued before the election, and they will have no effect upon their votes. Every loyal Democrat and Republican will vote for John J. Patterson, the loyal candidate in the 14th Congressional District. Mark our prediction.

THE LAST PLEA OF TRAITORS.

THE TORY ORGAN EXECUTING ITS OWN REQUIEM.

The Tory Organ, this morning, is burdened with what it doubtless considers will be a crusher to those who have been exposing and defeating its plans to embarrass the efforts of loyal men to crush rebellion, and thus increase the opportunities of traitors effectually to destroy the government. As a specimen of this document, we make such extracts from its sentiments, as were doubtless intended to effect the great object to which we allude, that our readers may fully understand the means used by the Tory Organ in this campaign. Thus for instance, it declares, in order

"that the Constitution be not violated by any unholy hand—that the rich heritage of liberty which you received from your fathers, shall be transmitted unimpaired to your children. For this throttle the monster of abolitionism, which dares to rear its hideous head. Restore the government to the purity in which patriots left it!"

The purity in which the patriots who are now at the head of the government, found it, was with the treasury depleted, forts and arsenals seized, the army and navy full of traitors, the Union threatened with destruction by states which had already seceded, and a gigantic rebellion organized, with an immense army in full motion for the invasion of the north. All this was the work of a Democratic administration, and that the government may be restored to the hands of such men as Floyd, Cobb, Bigler, Buchanan and their associates, the Tory Organ has labored and is now laboring with desperation. Do the people desire such a restoration? In the following the organ invites its own condemnation:

The manes of the slaughtered dead stalk unavenged among us! and invoke your justice on their murderers! The living and the dead alike implore you to remember the price paid by your revolutionary ancestors for the Union and freedom you enjoyed.

While every Democrat is not a traitor, and while thousands of honest and patriotic Democrats will support the loyal candidates, whose names appear at the head of our columns, we holdly declare that every traitor in the land voted for James Buchanan, and is a Democrat of the school to which John C. Breckenridge now belongs. According to the ethics and the logic, then, of the Tory Organ, the slaughtered dead will be unavenged as long as this Democratic party is in existence. Let the voter remember this great fact, and deposit his ballot against such men as Rounfort, Heck and Miller, with their associates in political crime, put forth as candidates in this crisis, against the Government. These men, by their sturdy and persistent defence of slavery, have assumed the vindication and encouragement of those who slaughtered our brethren. This encouragement has been extended so far as to induce the rebels to repeat their attempts to carry the war into Pennsylvania. That war is at our doors. A rebel foe is now treading the soil of the state; and it is well attested by those who should know, that this invasion was partly attempted in the hope that Gov. Curtin would once more arouse the energy of the state, by summoning soldiers to the rescue, and thus take within the limits of the Commonwealth thousands of loyal votes. BY THE MEANS THE DOUGH-FACES OF PENNSYLVANIA HOPED TO CARRY THE ELECTION IN FAVOR OF A COMPROMISE WITH TREASON, AND THUS EFFECT A RESTORATION OF THE UNION TO THE CONTROL OF TRAITORS.

We might go on quoting from this proclamation of treason, but the extracts we have given are sufficient to convince the reader of the object of the Tory Organ. The party which it endorses represents slavery, and slavery is the rebellion. In order that this institution may be preserved, all other interests, all other hopes, all other enterprises, must be sacrificed. Under the protection of the Constitution, the worst crimes of slavery have been enacted—and now, with that sacred instrument of human rights in their hands, the allies of slavery are preparing for the success of rebellion by the defeat of the loyal men of the north at the ballot-box. It is a last effort at falsehood, detraction and vituperation, and like the present invasion of the State of Pennsylvania, by the rebel foe, it is bound to fail.

THE ELECTION.

The last word of the aiders and abettors of the Breckenridge faction and treason is now circulated by that party throughout the county in the shape of a bill signed THEO. FENN, giving certain private transactions between him and our candidate for Congress. We know nothing of the financial transactions between these two gentlemen, and care less, but we do know that there are other persons who are now living sumptuously on farms and in houses owned by their wives, while at the same time debts are unpaid by the husband; but these are private matters, and we leave them between the creditors and debtors to arrange as they may see fit. But we are now dealing with public men, and we pronounce the allegations made against the public character of JOHN J. PATTERSON as untrue and maliciously false. Mr. Patterson has been in the Legislature, and always discharged his duty faithfully. His record is such that he is entitled to the support of every loyal man, and he who supports such a man for Congress as Wm. H. Miller, cannot be considered anything less than a sympathizer with the Breckenridge faction. The only question asked by the people of this district is, is JOHN J. PATTERSON A LOYAL AND GOOD UNION MAN? As such he is supported. Let courts determine private transactions, and we fear Mr. Fenn will have his hands full, but that is his and not our business. The fact that these bills are circulated two or three days prior to the election, is proof sufficient that they are false, and will remind our readers of the celebrated Coffin Handbills issued more than twenty years since by our enemies. These bills were printed at a loofoco printing office, in this city, and are circulated by Breckenridge loofocos. That is sufficient for every intelligent voter of Dauphin county. They are well acquainted with these old loofoco bills issued before the election, and they will have no effect upon their votes. Every loyal Democrat and Republican will vote for John J. Patterson, the loyal candidate in the 14th Congressional District. Mark our prediction.

ALL WHO DESIRE TO SEE THE REBEL INVADER EXTEND HIS RAVAGES TO EVERY ACRE IN DAUPHIN COUNTY, LET THEM VOTE FOR WILLIAM H. MILLER.

ALL WHO DESIRE TO SEE HIS HOME PUT TO THE FLAMES BY A REBEL TORCH, LET THEM VOTE FOR ROUNFORT AND HECK.

ALL WHO DESIRE TO HAVE DESOLATION, AND FAMINE CURSE THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA, LET THEM VOTE FOR WILLIAM H. MILLER.

ALL WHO DESIRE TO HAVE THE CAPITAL OF THE STATE HELD BY A REBEL FORCE, LET THEM VOTE FOR ROUNFORT AND HECK.

The terrible effect which the election of these men would have on the domestic security, social peace, general order and business prosperity, is already being exhibited by the fact that a rebel foe is even now in possession of one of our wealthiest and most important border cities.

This last invasion was made on the encouragement derived from the speeches of such men as Miller and Rounfort, and the editorial which daily appears in the Tory Organ; but the rebels were too anxious, and appeared rather soon.—They imagined that the election had been held in this state, and on the assurances which they have received from the Tory Organ, and such men as Miller and Heck, they believed that a welcome was in store for them from the triumphant candidates—of their old allies and present friendly sympathizers.

But the rebels have been deceived, and time

TAXES OR NO TAXES!

A heavy debt is already upon the Nation, and it is accumulating every day. Each minute adds thousands to it. What are we to do? How can we escape from the impending and threatening burdens? There is but one way. So end the war as to make those who brought it about, pay for their crime. This is called "Confiscation." No matter what it is called, out of the means of the Rebels and Traitors, we must pay all the costs and expenses of this unholy rebellion. If this is done, the loyal people of the North will not be burdened long. Taxes will be of short duration. Who objects to this? The Breckenridgers of the North, and the Traitors of the South! Who are in favor of it? All loyal men everywhere who do not desire to die, leaving as an inheritance to their children nothing but a load of public debt. If the Government is sustained by the people at the ballot box on Tuesday next, this policy will be pursued. If it is not sustained, it will be rejected. If it is sustained, the rebellion will be virtually ended. If not sustained, years more of warfare will be the result. At the Ballot Box, then, is the great battle to be fought. Reader, how are you going to fight—for yourself and children, or for the Rebels, and theirs? There is no half way position. Fight on one side you must, if you vote at all. If you do not vote, it will count on the side of the Rebellion.

A COWARDLY ATTACK.

The Tory Organ of yesterday, makes a cowardly attack on our present efficient District Attorney, A. J. Herr, Esq., in order to elevate the Breckenridge candidate for the same office, by asserting that A. J. Herr, Esq., marched with the militia to Chambersburg, and then left the ranks. This is a wilful and malicious falsehood. Mr. Herr did march as a private to Chambersburg, and after spending some time in camp, he was detailed for other duty by Gen. Wright, who was his superior officer, and in that capacity he rendered important services. He went with Gen. Wright to Hagers town, Md., in the very first train that entered the town after the rebels had left, and there continued to perform the duties assigned him. He was in advance of his regiment at Hagers town two days, and did not return until the entire force had been ordered back. These are facts which cannot be controverted. His opponent, Mr. Auchmuty, was all this time in camp at Chambersburg, some thirty miles in the rear of the regiment, to which Mr. Herr belonged. It is not necessary to speak of the capacity of these two candidates for District Attorney. Every loyal citizen of Dauphin county knows that Mr. Herr is perfectly competent to discharge the responsible duties of District Attorney, and every legal gentleman will also testify that his opponent, Mr. Auchmuty, is incompetent to fill the same position. The people will elect Mr. Herr by such a sweeping majority on Tuesday next, that Mr. Auchmuty will not be heard from for the next ten years, except it be in a Breckenridge Tory Convention to nominate such worthies as himself and Dr. Heck.

DON'T BE DECEIVED.

It would be strange, indeed, and inexplicable, if Pennsylvania should succumb to the Hughes Democracy. And yet this is possible—only, however, in the event of criminal apathy on the part of the loyal men of the State. A large majority of the people desire the election of the Union candidates for state, district and county offices, but there is danger that they will not all vote to effect what they desire, because they will not all see that their individual votes are necessary to secure success. If this feeling shall be general it will be fatal; for the Tory sympathizers are already organizing their forces with a minute efficiency which indicates a determination to leave nothing undone to elect their ticket.

ORGANIZE.

There is danger that the work of political organization will be neglected. There is just now so much to divert and absorb the public mind, that it will be difficult to secure the needed attention to mere political work. And yet this is indispensable to success—not merely to the success of the nominees of a party, but to the success of a fundamental principle. The defeat of the Union cause on Tuesday next, would put back the dial of Freedom many years. Let us organize to avert such a calamity.

UNION VS. SECESSION—PATTERSON VS. MILLER.

Let every voter who desires to have the Union perpetuated and the rebellion crushed out of existence, deposit his ballot for John J. Patterson. Those who desire to strengthen the arm of rebellion, and bring into questionable repute the loyalty of Pennsylvania, will vote of course for the dough-face Tory candidate, Wm. H. Miller, simply because he is opposed to the regular Union candidates.

THE BEST WORKERS ARE OFF TO THE WAR.

Multitudes of those upon whom the local work of political organization has hitherto fallen, are now on the tented field. What they have hitherto done so well must now be done by others. Every true man at home should see to it that the cause of Justice, Equality and Freedom shall lose nothing in organization in Pennsylvania by the absence of the brave men in Virginia.

G. DAWSON COLEMAN, the Union candidate for the legislature in Lebanon county, is the fairest illustration of the good old principle of the office seeking the man, that we have presented in any of the candidates in the entire state, we care not with what party the comparison is attempted. Nothing but the highest sense of patriotism could have tempted such a man to stand the contest of a political campaign.—While exercising a vast influence in his locality, occupying too a position of great responsibility as the conductor of an immense business, in which thousands of dollars are disbursed weekly, and which offers employment to hundreds of men—office or legislative honor could have no attraction to such a man, beyond the noble purpose of serving his country at a time when the services and devotion of every good man are needed. We look to the election of Mr. Coleman as the success of a great cause, and shall also look to his triumph in the Legislature as the inauguration of a new era in legislation.

TURN OUT THE MERE SPY WHO PROWL ABOUT YOUR HOUSES AND PRY INTO YOUR BUSINESS, UNDER THE PRETEXT OF ASSESSING THE FEDERAL TAXES.—Tory Organ this morning.

This paragraph preaches direct opposition to the government. The Tory Organ found that it would not do only to give secret encouragement to the rebels to invade the soil of this state. It was demanded by the rebels that something more than this encouragement was needed, and hence, the Tory Organ boldly counsels the people to resist the officers of the federal government. Where is Marshal Kleckner? We call on him in the name of the outraged laws of the land, to arrest the proprietors and editors of the Tory Organ for their repetition of treason.

THE TRUE PHOENIX MAN.—If there is a sincere peace man in the country, he will not fail to vote the loyal ticket which is in favor of the most vigorous measures in order to bring this bloody war to a speedy close. To vote the Breckenridge ticket is to prolong the war for years.—They avow their policy to be to extend the war beyond the term of this Administration and then make a disgraceful compromise with the rebels. Peace men! true, conscientious peace men, will vote for a speedy close of the war.

TAXES! TAXES!—The traitor sympathizers cry out against the taxation in consequence of the war! Base hypocrites! they are plotting for compromise, by which the debt of both rebels and Unionists shall be assumed by the government. A vote for Miller and his ticket is a vote to heap upon the north more than three thousand millions of taxation, for the benefit of traitors. It is a vote in opposition to the confiscation of rebel property to pay the expense of the war.

RESIGNATION OF SURG. GEN. SMITH.

HIGHLY INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE

The following letter was received at the Executive Department, a few days after its date, and only withheld from publication because the acceptance of the resignation which it conveys was not acted on until to-day.

SURGEON-GENERAL'S OFFICE, STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA, HARRISBURG, October 1, 1862.

Governor:—After seventeen months of active service in the "Hospital Department" of the State, I find urgent private interests demanding my attention.

I therefore respectfully tender you my resignation as Surgeon-General of Pennsylvania, and embrace this opportunity to express my high appreciation of your untiring interest in the welfare of the sick and wounded of our Pennsylvania volunteers.

Your judicious plans to ameliorate our sufferings, have opened to me a sphere of usefulness, in which I have felt it an high honor to have been permitted to co-operate.

With sentiments of respectful esteem and consideration, I remain Your obedient servant, HENRY H. SMITH.

To His Excellency, A. G. CURTIN, Governor of Pennsylvania.

The resignation of Surg. Gen. Smith, will elicit the regret of all who came professionally in contact with, or who know the man personally. Gov. Curtin, in his letter accepting this resignation, pays Surg. Gen. Smith a higher compliment than any which we could convey, and therefore we must content ourselves with this as our reference to the affair.

PENNSYLVANIA EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 10, 1862.

Sir:—I have hesitated in regard to the acceptance of your resignation of the date of the 1st instant, of your position as Surgeon-General of Pennsylvania, although fully sensible of the private inconvenience and loss which the office has caused you. Having now an opportunity of securing the services of a gentleman of high character and qualifications, I have appointed him as your successor.

It is impossible to over-estimate the benefits which your sick and wounded men have derived from your science, ability, laborious activity and administrative capacity.

You have organized a very difficult department so efficiently that it will be comparatively an easy task to continue its operations. The zeal with which you have repaired to remote scenes of battle and pestilence, and your untiring efforts to minister to the safety and comfort of our men, will not soon be forgotten by the people of the Commonwealth. In assenting to your wish to retire, I must give you my thanks for the services which you have rendered, and repeat my regret at the severance of our official connection.

Very respectfully, your obt. serv't. A. G. CURTIN.

H. H. SMITH, M. D., Phila. Dr. John King, of Pittsburg, has been appointed as the successor of Dr. Smith, and enters on the performance of the important duties of his position immediately. Dr. King has been identified with the military organization of the state, from the calling out of the three months' men. He was made Division Surgeon of the Reserve Corps, until that splendid body of men went into service, when he was appointed surgeon of a regiment, and afterwards, by the manner in which he discharged his duties, and the splendid ability which he displayed on all occasions when his regiment needed his care and attention, he was made a Brigade Surgeon. From this position, with the full consent of the War Department, he has been transferred to that of the Surgeon General of Pennsylvania. Certainly no better man or able physician could have been selected for the position. To talents of the highest order, Surgeon General King joins an enthusiasm in his profession which is essential to efficiency and success. We congratulate the Governor on this appointment.

Terrific Battle Between Buell and Bragg's Forces near Perryville.

The Result of the Two Days' Fighting.

A DECISIVE UNION VICTORY.

General Buell in Pursuit of the Flying Rebels.

Official Dispatch From Gen. Buell.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 10—1 P. M.

Early yesterday morning General Buell attacked Bragg's forces at Chaplin creek in the immediate vicinity of Perryville.

A short but terrific fight ensued, when the rebels broke and retreated rapidly over three diverging roads southward, our forces in close pursuit.

It is hoped that the lot will be bagged.

At the last accounts General Gilbert's forces were in the rear of the rebels and some distance below them.

Military exigencies require the suppression of details.

No further accounts of losses on either side have been received.

Louisville is in great excitement respecting the fate of our soldiers in the pending battle.

Captain Oldershaw, Jackson's Adjutant, is on the way either from Bardstown with the remains of Generals Jackson and Terrill, and Col. Webster of the Ninety-eighth Ohio regiment.

THE OFFICIAL DESPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.

The following despatch has been received at the War Department:

PERRYVILLE, KY., via BARDSTOWN, Oct. 10.

To Major Gen. Halleck, General-in-Chief, U. S. A. I have already advised you of the movements of the army under my command from Louisville. More or less skirmishing has occurred daily with the enemy's cavalry since then. It was supposed the enemy would give battle at Bardstown. My troops reached that point on the 4th, driving out the enemy's rear guard of cavalry and artillery. The main body moved towards Springfield, whither pursuit was continued. The centre corps, under Gen. Gilbert, moved on the direct road from Springfield to within two miles of the town, where the enemy was found to be in force. The left column, under Gen. M'Cook, came upon the Maxwell road about 10 o'clock yesterday, the 9th.

It was ordered in position to attack, and a strong reconnaissance directed at 4 o'clock. I received a request from Gen. M'Cook for reinforcements, and learned that the left had been seriously engaged for several hours, and that the right and left of that corps were being turned and severely pressed. Reinforcements were immediately sent forward from the centre; orders were also sent to the right column, under Gen. Crittenden, which was advancing by the Lebanon road to push forward and attack the enemy's left, but it was impossible for it to get into position in time to produce any decisive results. The action continued until dark. Sharp fighting also occurred in the centre; the several corps were put in position during the night and moved to attack at six o'clock this morning. Some skirmishing occurred with the enemy's rear guard; the main body has fallen back in the direction of Harrodsburg.

I have no accurate report of our loss yet, and is probably pretty heavy, including valuable officers. Generals Jackson and Terrill, I regret to say, are among the number of killed.

D. C. BELL, Major Gen. Com'dg.

LATER FROM NEW ORLEANS

Brig. Gen. Arnold Appointed Commander at New Orleans.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.

New Orleans papers of the 1st inst. have been received. The city continues in remarkable good health. Brigadier General Arnold, by order of General Butler, has assumed the command of all the military forces at New Orleans and Algiers.

The Picayune of the 28th ult. says: Rumors of an unpleasant character reached us from the negroes on the plantation below the city. The steamboat Iberville had been fired into while passing a plantation, three miles below Bayou Goula, from a battery of four rifled cannon.—Some fifty shots were fired, killing one man and a horse on board, but the boat escaped.

LATER

The New Orleans Picayune of the 1st inst. says: The rumored rising of three hundred negroes on the plantation below the city was not attended by all the anticipated circumstances of atrocity. A few white men were attacked and beaten, but we did not learn that any of them were killed.

Most of the runaways got up to the city.
