FRIENDS OF THE SOLDIER, READ!

FATHERS, YOU THAT HAVE SONS IN THE ARMY, READ! READ!

BROTHERS, YOU THAT HAVE BROTHERS FIGHTING FOR YOUR COUNTRY, READ! READ! READ!

At a period when the hot shot and bombs were falling thick and fast around the gallant band who were defending their country's honor in Fort Sumter, Gov. Curtin had sent into the Legislature of the State, then in session, a message suggesting the better organization of the militia, and asking for an appropriation of five hundred thousand dollars to place the state on a war footing.

The bill as it passed, can be found in the last year's volume of the laws of the state, page 229—and the proceedings attending its passage in the House, in the Journal of 1861, page 957. We extract the yeas and nays as they appear substantially on the Journal of the House:

YEAS—Messrs. Abbott, Acker, Alexander, Anderson, Armstrong, Ashcom, Austin, Ball, Barnsley, Bartholomew, Bissel, Bixler, Blair, Blanchard, Bliss, Boyer, Bressler, Brewster, Burns, Butler, (Crawford), Byrne, Clark, Cowan, Craig, Douglass, Duncan, Eilenberger, Elliott, Frazier, Gibboney, Goehring, Gordon, Graham, Happer, Harvey, Hayes, Hillman, Hood, Hofes, Huhn, Irvin, Koch, Lawrence, Leisenring, Lowther, M'Gonigal, Marshall, Moore, Mullin, Ober, Osterhout, Patterson, Pierce, Preston, Pugh, Reilly, Ridgway, Robinson, Roller, Seltzer, Shafer, Sheppard, Smith, (Berks), Smith, (Philadelphia), Stehman, Strang, Taylor, Teller, Thomas, Tracy, Walker, White, Wilder, Williams, Wilson and Davis, Speaker—76.

DR. LEWIS HECK, Hill, Kline, Lichtenwalner, M'Donough, Manifold, Morrison, Myers, Randall, Belf and Rhoads—21.

Freemen of Dauphin county! Soldiers! who marched at the first call of danger to the defence of the capital of your country, and who still rest upon your arms night and day around the limits of that capital, are you ready to vote for a man who so lightly estimated the honor of your country and the lives of its defenders? Dr. Heck is one of the old Breckenridge Democrats who sympathized and still sympathize with and confide in the course of the traitor Breckenridge, and showed his attachment for those who are at the head of this rebellion by refusing to make an appropriation to arm the great state of Pennsylvania to aid their overthrow and its suppression.

Freemen, remember that this is the record of Dr. Heck whilst he was in the Legislature. Let us now examine his action at a later period.

On the 7th day of August, 1862, the Democratic County Convention met at the Court House, in this city, for the purpose of nominating a ticket. Dr. LEWIS HECK was a delegate to that Convention, and assisted in nominating himself as a candidate for the Legislature. We copy the following from the Patriot and Union of August 8, 1862, viz:

"Dr. HECK moved that the resolutions passed by the Democratic State Convention on the 4th of July be adopted by this Convention. "The reading of the resolutions was called for, and after reading of which they were adopted amid applause."

The resolutions and nominations of that Convention have thus been fairly and openly approved by Dr. HECK, and we give him all due credit for his action in having them adopted. He stands therefore squarely up to the platform which the friends of the traitor John C. Breckenridge advocated in this State.

The candidates nominated by that convention are also the avowed enemies of the country. Isaac Slenker and James P. Barr, for Auditor and Surveyor General, are both on the record as the abettors of rebellion. Slenker seconded the efforts of Buchanan to steal or purchase Cuba—and he was also in favor and would now establish, if he had the power, the slave trade in every port of the Union. Barr is known to have so far defended treason as to have incurred the wrath and run the danger of a halter at Pittsburg.

Such is the record and such the company in which we find Dr. Heck. First, We find him voting against arming the State.

Second, We discover him in a Convention called to endorse the proceedings of those who openly oppose the National Government.

Third, He refused to vote money to pay those who were willing to defend the honor and glory of the Commonwealth. Is such a man fit to occupy a seat in the Legislature?

A Bold Scheme of the Breckenridgers Frustrated.

THE REBEL RAID AT CHAMBERSBURG.

Our readers are already aware that JOHN HUGHES, a nephew and late partner of Francis W. Hughes, chairman of the Traitor State Committee, is fighting under the rebel flag at the present day, and that he commanded a rebel battery at the battles in Maryland less than a month since.

It is well known to them that if our borders were seriously threatened by invasion from the rebels, that our patriotic Governor would call out the strong armed soldiers of the State to repel that raid, and that a military force of FIFTY THOUSAND could be raised in less time than it would take to transport them.

This audacious scheme of the traitors has been happily frustrated by Gen. McClellan, who has taken the matter promptly in charge, and we expect confidently to hear that he has captured the whole party engaged in this bold and audacious raid ere this paper reaches them.

We hope that the true friends of the Union will use every effort to make the majority against the Traitor Ticket as large as possible. Let not a man fall behind—this is no time to talk about men. A defeat to the traitors at the polls is one of the sure means of resisting a raid on our borders by the rebels.

THE LAST TRIP.

On the return of the Chairman of the Breckenridge County Committee, Dr. HECK made a hurried trip to the upper end, no doubt for the purpose of imparting new falsehoods to the leaders for the purpose of circulation on the day of the election. The last batch of lying bills and tales told by the motley crew assembled in the upper end, has not only made us many votes, but aroused our friends to such an extent that every man will come to the polls.

We ask, again, can any Union man, who loves his country, the land that gives him happiness and protection, vote for such men as compose the ticket presented to the people of Dauphin county?

PRINCIPLES NOT MEN!

This is not the time to cavil about the individuals composing the Union ticket. We are now working for the preservation of the government, and he that acts and talks otherwise, is not with us. We care nothing for men and we shall vote for any true, good Union man in preference to the best sympathizer with traitors living.

Our ticket is composed of good, sober and industrious men who will represent the wishes of the Union men faithfully, while some of the candidates on the Breckenridge ticket are living evidence to the contrary.

FROM CHAMBERSBURG.

The rebels left that borough about nine o'clock on Saturday morning, in a hurried manner, fearing that our forces would be after them. They violated their given pledges not to disturb private property. They entered a shoe store and took about two hundred dollars worth of goods, and entered private houses just as they pleased. The cashier of the bank was held as a prisoner during Friday night and compelled to open the vaults of the bank, but the bank officers had been more vigilant than others and removed all the valuables—they had to leave the premises without plunder.

In addition to this some five hundred horses were stolen from the citizens, and before they left all the property of the Cumberland Valley railroad was destroyed by fire, consisting of the machine shops, a large house used for the ticket, telegraph and other offices of the company, and also as the residence of the Superintendent, Mr. Lull. The warehouses of Messrs. Wunderlich & Meeds were also destroyed. In these buildings was stored a large amount of ammunition, captured from the rebels a short time before the battle near Sharpsburg. While the fire was raging the shells exploded and flew through the town but we heard of no accidents by them. The damage done to the citizens and Cumberland Valley Railroad, must amount to a large sum, and we must confess, that if the citizens had used a little more energy their houses at least might have been saved.

We also learn that some fifteen hundred government muskets were sent to them some time ago but that the citizens of that borough had not energy enough to take them and the boxes, hence they were burnt. If these muskets had been properly used and the citizens drilled as they should have done, they might have resisted any cavalry force. The number of rebels at Chambersburg is variously estimated; some say that but eight hundred entered the town and that another force joined them yesterday when they left, until it was estimated from two thousand to twenty-five hundred strong.

The rebels left in the direction of Gettysburg, but when they got within five miles of the town, the citizens made some show of resistance by capturing one of the advance guard, and sending him on to this city as a prisoner. This had a good effect, no doubt, as the rebels did not deem it prudent to enter the town of Gettysburg, but went in the direction of Emittsburg, Md.

The railroad from here to Chambersburg is in full operation—no bridges having been destroyed, and the telegraph wires are also in working order. All the communication with Gen. McClellan are open; he is fully posted as to their doings, and we expect to be able to record their capture.

Large numbers of troops have been tendered to the Governor, but he has decided that the services of the militia are not necessary.

Pickets were thrown out within three miles of our town, and one of them was taken prisoner by our home guard and sent to York.

From Fairfield, the rebel force this afternoon went again in the direction of Waynesboro'. They are crossing into the valley. A large number of horses were taken from the farmers.

From official dispatches received here last evening we learn that the rebels succeeded in escaping. They crossed the Potomac near the mouth of the Monocacy, having made a march of ninety miles in twenty-four hours. Gen. Pleasanton's forces arrived at the crossing just as they had finished, and engaged their artillery, but nothing is known of the result. His force marched seventy-eight miles during the last twenty-four hours.

Cheering News from Philadelphia.

The Victory on Tuesday Next Certain.

Late on Saturday night we received the following gratifying news over the telegraph wires from Philadelphia. It comes from a highly respectable gentleman, residing in that city, and who has canvassed it thoroughly, his statement can be relied upon and is only confirmatory of what we have heard from private hands. Let us follow their example. Read it: PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 11, 1862.

To GEO. BERGNER, Esq.:— We have the satisfaction of telling the friends of the Union throughout the state that within the past week there has been the most astonishing change in the public mind and feeling in this section of the state, which was ever known to occur in the same space of time. Where there was formerly apathy and indifference as to the result of the coming election there is now the utmost enthusiasm and nothing seems to be talked of and thought of in the workshops and factories, offices and counting rooms and public places, except the duty every man has to perform in defence of his government and country at the ballot box and the invasion of the state has intensified their feeling.

The workmen employed in our most extensive factories, workshops and ship yards have met together and resolved that they consider the contest not one of a political nature at all but a question of Government or no Government, and almost to a man have ranged themselves on the side of the Government and the country.
