ARRIVAL OF PRISONERS. - Four prisoners cap rebel army, were brought to this city to day at noon, and were taken to the Provost Marshal's office, and from thence to Camp Curtin. While undergoing examination at the Provost Marshul's office, one of the prisoners became for the rebels. Who knows but the divils are quite boisterous, and gave the Marshal to un derstand that "there would be more of them here before long." The Marshal replied that it was just such company as that which was knows the ould Ginral as well as I do, has no per 100th gross for hogs, and $4.20 per 100th

WHO PIONEERED THE REBELS INTO PENNSYLVA-NIA?--In conversation with a gentleman this morning, who had just arrived from Adams county, and who is a respectable physician in Gettysburg, he informed us and a large crowd at the railroad depot, that the rebels were conducted into Franklin county, by three Breckinridge Democrats, by the name of, respectively, ampton county has contributed the first regi-Wilson, Logan and Simes. He asserted that ment in lieu of the draft. On Saturday last these traitors knew every by-road, cow-path, these men were marched into Camp Curtin, and and private lane in Franklin county, and are now organized and mustered in as follows: that it was to them that the rebels were indebted for their success in reaching Chambersburg. Comment on this horrible development is useless Let_ the people ponder the fact, as they go to the polls, to morrow.

THE EVE OF ELECTION .- Under this head, the patriot poet Whittier, thus produces a most stirring poem. It is appropriate to the occasion, and like all of Whittier's productions will not fail to elicit a response of approval from every sensible reader:

rom gold to gray, our mild sweet day Of Indian Summer fades too soon ; But tenderly, above the sea, Hangs, white and calm the Hunter's moor

In its pale fire the village spire Shows like the sodiac's spectral lance; The painted walls, whereon it falls, Transfigured stand in marble trance.

O'er fallen leaves the west wind grieves, Yet comes the seed time round again; And morn shall see the State sown free, With baleful tares or healthful grain

Along the street the shadows meet. Of Destiny, whose hands conceal The molds of fate that shape the State, And make or mar the common weal

Around I see the powers that be, I stand by Empire's primal springs; And princes meet in every street, And hear the tread of uncrowned kings.

Hark! through the crowd the laugh runs loud Beneath the sad, rebuking moon; God save the land, a careless hand May shake or swerve ere morrow's noon

No jest is this; one cast amiss May blast the hope of Freedom's year; O! take me where are hearts of prayer, And foreheads bowed in reverent fear.

Not lightly fall beyond recall, The written scrolls a breath can float, The crowning fact, the kingliest act

Of Freedom, is the freeman's vote. For pearls that gem a diadem.

The diver in the deep sea dives; The regal right we boast to-night Is ours through costlier sacrifice. The blood of Vane, his prison pain,

Who traced the path the pilgrim trod, And hers whose faith drew strength from death, And prayed her Russell up to God.

Our hearts grow cold; we lightly hold The right which brave men died to gain, The right, the cord, the axe, the sword, Grim nurses at its birth of pain.

Your shadows rend, and o'er us bend, O martyrs I with your crowns and palms,

O martyrs I with your crowns and palms,

Breathe through these throngs your battle songs

Your scaffold prayers and dungeon psalms.

Look from the sky, like God's great eye,

Thou solemn moon, with searching beam, Till in the sun of thy pure light, Our mean self-seekings meaner seem. Shame from our hearts unworthy arts,

The fraud designed, the purpose dark; And smile away the hands we lay, Profanely on the sacred Ark. To party claims and private aims,

Reveal the august face of Truth,
To which are given the age of Heaven, The beauty of immortal youth.

So shall our voice of sovereign choice, Swell the deep base of duty done, And strike the key of time to be, When God and man shall speak as one.

THE WAY OF THE TRANSGRESSOR IS HARD .-A rank secessionist was treated to a ride on the sharp edge of a rail the other day in Wilksbarre, Pa. He was taken to his mother's house, but the old lady refused to receive him, as he was Mrs. Eliza Bellman, a traitor and not worthy to enter the house. She told the boys to take him down South and Zouaves, Captain Awl, arrived in the city last give him to Jeff. Davis. tion incident to this wicked rebellion the minds of a community to some extent become accus tomed to hearing of death and the spilling of blood, but when an occurence of an unusual and mysterious nature happens immediately in our midst, as was related to us by a friend on Saturday evening last, the mind naturally seeks to develope it. Our friend came rushing into our presence, his countenance and gestures indicative of a disposition to communicate something frightful, the subject, of which, in brief, was as tollows: He had met on the street a well dressed lady, whose manner and gestures were singular, and who occasionally gave voice to disconnected sentences, "as that was the circumstances of the case," and so on. We upon subsequent reflection concluded it must be the lady that had seen those beautiful dress goods at Urich & Bowman's, and was but giving voice to her admiration and delight.

have been taxe: their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these Pills have virtues which surposs in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly up in the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimula e this stick organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs in o their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffied the best of humors skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished dozes, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pieas int to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exaited position and character as to forbid the suspicion of natrath. Many eminent: lergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of our remedies, while others have sait me the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief our and many affliced, suffering fellow-men.
