HARRISBURG, PA

Wednesday Afternoon, October 15, 1862.

COL. E. C. WILLIAMS, of the Lochiel Cavalry, is in town, having arrived at noon to-day. We have not had the pleasure of seeing the Colonel since his presence in his old home, but Battes, M we learn that he is in fine health and spirits.

ATTENTION !- Any members of Company B. Fourth Ward, having in their possession knapsacks, haversacks or canteens, will return the Biggs, L. same to Captain Curzen and save further trouble. By order.

DISTURBANCES. -There were no disturbances of any consequence at any of the election polls yesterday, as far as we were able to ascertain up to the time of going to press. There were some angry words in consequence of challenges, but they resulted in nothing serious.

McCormick Guard, Attention !- A meeting Brakeley, C of this company will be held at Wagner's Ho- Chambers, tel this (Wednesday) evening, and not this evening, as was announced at the last meeting. Every member is requested to be Clark, S punctual in attendance. By order.

How DID THE CAT JUMP .- One of the bitter Breckenridgers of the First Ward, who had done all in his power yesterday to bring the Government to disgrace, was met this morning by one Christ, A of our oldest citizens, with the question, "Well, how did the cat jump yesterday?" meaning, of Barr, M course, as to the result of the election yester- Davis, SE day. Breckenridger was very grum and gloomy, and in his gruffest voice he replied, that the cat had jumped "into a d—n deep hole." He was right. The cat of locofocoism has descended Elser, M into a hole from which it will never be res- Epler, M A SPIRIT OF THE BRECKENRIDGERS.—The poor, defeated and disgraced leaders of the Breckenridge clique in this city, are consoling themselves and giving vent to their petty spite, by Ford, CS declaring that they give it up-"the people have been licked," and "we must now all bow to King Lincoln." None but the veriest slaves German, E would use such language. If the Union men Gillespie, E had been defeated, they would not have bowed Gallagher, E to King Breckenridge. Oh! no! That is not our style. We would have yielded to the Constitutional majority. Have the dough-faces for- Gurtner, M gotten their zeal for the Constitution, that they now prate about kings?

A VERY INTERESTING CEREMONY came off at Camp Simmons last evening. After dress Hardy, A parade the cavalry officers in Camp Simmons Herr, F.M. aurorised Cant. Tarbutton by presenting him Heuderson, H. surprised Capt. Tarbutton by presenting him with a magnificent gold pen, as a mark of their esteem for him as the Commanding Officer of Heim, E the camp. The presentation was made by Heart, E Capt. James Gowan. Capt. W. A. Tarbutton's Hilt, C Himmelrich, M reply was patriotic, graceful and spirited. The press upon our columns, and the excitement Hiner, E consequent upon the election just so gloriously Hiney, M C transpired, prevents us from doing justice to the Hill, E J Hillyer, A subject. Believe us, however, the occasion Howard, M T was one of interest, and all parties concerned Howard, C did themselves full credit.

THE LADIES OF THE UNION RELIEF ASSOCIATION Hoffee, E acknowledge the receipt of, and return thanks Hoover, M J for the following, viz: for the following, viz:

To Mrs. J. R. Eby for $30.
To the Laidies' Aid Society of Bristol, Bucks county, for two boxes of hospital stores.
To Miss Rank and Mrs. J. T. Garberich of East Hanover, for boxes of lint and bandages.

To Mr. Samuel Miller for apples, apple butter,

To the West Ward School of Easton for lint and bandages.

To the ladies of Millersburg for a box of Alden, S

To Mr. Leonard Crum of Lower Paxton for Baker, WR apples, apple butter and linen.

To the ladies of Rauch Gap for 2 boxes of Barber, J hospital stores.

To the German Lutheran Congregation of Barnes, C

Washington township for $9.

M. S. BEATTY, President. E. A. Bispop, Secretary.

"THE RESULT." The Patriot and Union men, under the above Backer, E Lt heading, express themselves as glad that the election is over. "The Abolitionists," they say, "have probably succeeded. It looks blue for Bence, G W the Democracy. We are sorry for it. We con-fess we have never seen a darker hour," &c. Bestchler, H. D. No doubt Messrs. Barrett & MacDowell, You Bell, S. have never seen a "darker" hour for your Berry, G. A. hellish party projects, but the great masses of Beaber, S. E. the people of all parties see that it is a light hour Berry, G S for the country. A GLORIOUS hour! Rebellion Beatty, Lt. E as your party designs and personal and politi-cal aspirations will naturally be found in the Blake, J same condemnation, and share the same heaven Black, S J accursed extermination into outer darkness, Bower, D the hour will, most probably, be growing Boyle, J darker and darker to you till the consummation Books, E of the blackness of your political darkness is Boon, C fully and forever attained. The treasure and best blood of the country are PLEDGED to this Brown, Lt. A l result in a spirit of solemn determination; as Bricker, Lt. PD enduring as the throne of heaven's eternal Brown, C enduring as the throne of heaven's eternal truth, and as invincible as the deep foundations of the everlasting hills. In the bitterness of your wailing, cry on "Abolitonist," for who would be so unkind as to curtail you of that apparent enjoyment, the term doubtless furnishes you with associations, correspondent with your feelings—dark, darker, darkes; and while the country is blazing with the light of such patriotic demonstrations as the election of yesterday, it is not in the heart of humanity to kick even the continually growling cur, nor to Brenner. J terday, it is not in the hears of numanity to Brown, L kick even the continually growling cur, nor to Brenner, J deprive you of consolations, so long your most familiar, though murky associations.

Browrer, J J Among the facts developed by the inquiries Baum, H already made by the Military Commission, of Brown, F which Gen. Hunter is chairman, is the strange Barry, B which Gen. Hunter is chairman, is the strange one that not a single rebel was wounded, or in any manner injured, during the so called defence of Harper's Ferry. Our artillery, under Col. Ford, appears to have been handled with especial desire that there should be "nobody burs,"

TO VOLUNTEERS. FALSE BEPORTS CONTRADICTED.

AREPORT has been circulated that the Battalion of Heavy Artillery, now recruiting under Major Joseph Roberts for Fortress Monroe, is not to be permanently established at that post. As such a report is circulated to injure that battalion, I take the opportunity to deny said statement. The government wishing to provide for further contingencies, has determined to put our seaboard in a stage of defence. Fort Monroe being the key to our Confidence. defence. Fort Monroe being the key to our Capital, becomes of the first interest, and a battalion of picked men are carnestly called for by the War Department to garrison that blace. Said men will be enlisted for that and no other purpose; nor will they be liable to be sent out to do any other duty.
