PURDON'S DIGEST HAS JUST BEEN PUBLISHED.

PRICE 85 ON.

A N ENTIRE new edition of this well known Law Book has just been issued. It is now distinguished by the following superadded features: The laws contained in the various annual Digests published since the date of the eighth edition (1858) have been incorporated in the body of the work. Many thousand new authorities have been cited; the report of the revisors of the Penal Code has been embodied in the notes to the various sections of it, and the appendix contains for the first time, the Acts of Congress for the Authentication of Records, and the Statute of Fraudulent Conveyances, with full and elaborate notes of the decisions explanatory of them. The work has been prepared by the learned editor, Mr. Beigerix, and its freshness and permanent value will be preserved by the continuation of the annual Digests, which have given so much satisfaction. PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL.

[FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REFORMS.]

MAY 19, 1860,—Elias S., set. 28, single, never was very scrog. Two years ago she had an attack of soute rhousnasism, from which he was confined to her bed for two weeks and subsequently from a relapse fer four more. She has been well since then till last Batur day, while engaged in house cleaning, she took cold, had pain in her back, fell could hot had no decided chill. Two days later her ankles began so swell, which was followed by swelling of the knee joints and of the hands. She has now dult pain in her shoulders, and her knucklee are very tender, red and painful; both hands are affected, but the right is most so. This, then, is a case of soute rheumatism, or, as it is now fashionably called, rheumatic fever. It is a well remarked typical case. We will carefully watch the case, and from time to time call your attention to the various symptons which present themselves. My other object in bringing her before you now, is to call attention to a remedy which has recently been recommended in the treatment of rheumatism. I mean propylamine. Dr. Awenarius, of St. Petersburg, recommends it in the highest terms, having derived great benefit from its use in 250 cases which came under his care. Various commendatory testimonials respecting it have appeared in our journals, and I propose therefore to give it another trial. I must confess I am always moredulous as to the worth of new remedies, which are vanued as specifies; but this comes to us recommended so highly, that we are bound to give it a trial. [FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REPORTS.]

are bound to give it a trial.

SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER!

May 23, 1860.—I will now exhibit to you the patient for whom I prescribed Propylamine, and was then inhoring under an attack of acute rheumatism. She has steadily taken it in doses of three grains every two hours (intermitting it at night.) The day after you saw her, I lound har much more comfortable, better than she expected to be for a week or more, judging from her other attack. (The patient now walked into the room.) The mprovement has steadily pregressed, and you cannot uit to notice a marked change in the appearance of her inits, which are new nearly all of their natural size.—nor far our experiment would have seemed very successful; but; gentlemen, we must wait a little while before one can give a decided opinion as to what is to be the result.

Here is another patient who was placed on the .gsc of .ls same medicine on Sunday last; she has long been suffering from a bronic rheumatism, and I found her at that time with an acute attack supervening upon her chrodic affection. The wrists and knuckles were much swellen and teose. She took the culoride of Propylamine in three grain doses every two hours, and you will perceive that the swelling of the joints has much diminished

THREE DAYS LATER! MAY 26, 1860.—This is the case of acute rheumatiam cated with propylamine, the first of those to which i alled your attention at our last clinic. Sinc is still very comfortable, and is now taking three grains thrice daily. In this case it has seemed to be followed by very satisfactory results. The second case to which your attention was called at our last lecture, has also continued to do well: I will now bring before you a very characteristic case of acute rheumatiam, and if the result be gatefactory. I think, as good in yours, we shall not be result to the case.

tion was called at our last lecture, has also continued to de well I will now bring before you a very character, istic case of acute rheumatiam, and if the result be satfactory, I think, as good jurymen, we snall justly reducer our verdicit in favor of propylamin

He is a scaman, set. 28, who was admitted a few days ago. Has had ocasional rheumatic pams, but not so as to keep his bed, until eight days ago. The pains began in his right knee, subsequently affected the left knee, and later, the joints of the upper extremittes. These joints are all swollen, tause and tender. His tongue is furred; his skin, at present dry, though there has been much sweating. His pulse is full and strong, and about 30.—

He has now used propylamine for twenty-four hours.

This gentleman is what may be called a strictly typical case of soute-rheumatism. There was exposure to cold and wet, and this exposure is followed by a feeling of coldness, severe articular pain, beginning, as it usually does, in the lower joints. There is fever and the profuse sweating, so generally attleadant on scute rheumatism.

I did not be in the proper and the points connected with rheumatism, but to again give a trial to the new remedy we are testing, and to exhibit to you this typical case, as I have called it, than which there could not be a fairer opportunity for testing the medicine in question. We are, therefore, avoiding the use of all other medicines, even anodynes, that there may be no misgivingd as to which was the efficient remedy. You shall see the case of a stature chile.

THE RESULT.

A FAVORABLE VERDICT. Jump 9, 1860.—The next of our convalencents is the case of souterheumatism before you at our collice of May 26th, which I then called a typical case, and which it was remarked was a fair opportunity for testing the worth of our new remedy. It was therefore steadily given in three grain doese every two hours for four days. The patient has get along very utely, and is now able to walk about, as you see. I do not hesitate to a y that i have neves seen as severe a case of acute rheumatism as soon restored to health as this man has been, and without being prepared to decide positive by as to the value of the remedy we have used, I feel bound to state that in the eases in which we have tried the Chloride of Propyzamine, the patients have regained their health. their superiority, and the advantage they are in keeping Horses and Cattle healthy and in and condition.

For a full report of which the above is a condensed extract, see the Philadelphia Medical and Surgical Reporter. It is the report after a fair trial by the best medcal authority in this country, and makes it unnecessary to give numerous certificates from astoniahed doctor and rejoicing patients.
