LITTLE FEET is the title of the following exquisite stanzas. The subject and the description thus so beautifully expressed and given, convey Mrs. J. D. Cameron, Mrs. Wm. Kirby, to us a familiar face with its bright beaming "J. H. Berryhill, "Jos. Kahnwe eyes, and lisping lips; while the speaking picture flies from door to door, in quest of the amiles which greet it wherever it goes. We are certain, too, that every reader will have its own reality of the sweet ideal which the poet thus so beautifully portrays: . .

Up with the sun at morning, Away to the garden he hies. To see if the sleepy blossoms Have begun to open their eyes. Running a race with the wind, With a step as light and fleet, Under my window I hear The patter of little feet.

This child is our "speaking picture,"

A birdling that chatters and sings, Sometimes a sleeping cherub—
(Our other one has wings.)
His heart is a charmed casket, Full of all that's cunning and sweet,
And no harp-strings hold such music
As follow his twinkling feet.

When the glory of sunset opens The highway by angels trod, And seems to unbar the city Whose Builder and Maker is God. Close to the crystal portals, I see by the gates of pearl The eyes of our other augel-A twin born little girl.

And I asked to be taught and directed To guide his footsteps aright, So that I be accounted worthy To walk in sandal's of light, And hear amid songs of welcome From messengers trusty and fleet, On the starry floor of Heaven The patter of little feet.

CHARLES C. FRANCISCUS, Superintendent of Chester county, where he was boarding a portion of the summer. This not having been the permanent residence of Mr. Franciscus, the result will probably be deemed null and void. During the exciting periods of the rebellion, the duties of the Superintendent of the Philadelphia division were of the most onerous description, and the services rendered to the Government are far in excess of those afforded by a single arm upon the battle field.

The venerable Hall of Representatives, although disrobed of furniture and principal decorations, retains much of its original appearance. The beautiful American eagle, copied from nature by an Italian artist named Valaperte, and the entablature so much admired now occupy other appropriate positions. The fine life-like portrait of Washington, by Vandalyn, and one of LaFayette, to correspond, by a French artist, which so many years adorned the right and left of the Speaker's chair, now most appropriately occupy recesses in the new Hall.

The venerable hall is of the form of the an-carved by Anadrei, after the Cotinthian order. Over the main entrance from the rotunda the clock attracts attention. This represents stands on a winged car traversed by the signs of the Zodiac; the wheel of the car composed of a clock. This was executed by Iradella. The building, now in course of construction opposite the east front of the Capitol, is for the use of the architect, Thos. U. Walter, Esq., and will be very convenient for all having business therewith.

He was precipitated one hundred and fifty-three feet to the bottom, but striking the water, was not injured beyond a thorough sousing. He was drawn out safely, ran home and changed his clothes, and in forty minutes from the time of the accident, was back again as though nothing had happened.

One of the arrows, discharged by the Indians in the recent massacre at Madelia, was taken from the body of one of the victims on the day after the fatal occurrence. The arrow pene-trated through the heart to the depth of twelve inches. The indians discharge these instruments with wonderful accuracy and terrible effect. Instances were seen of their having gone entirely through the body.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most peries to purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these Phis have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedents if up in the esteem of all men. They are sade and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital scivities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and exped disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, simulate sluggish or desped disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, simulate sluggish or desped disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, simulate sluggish or desped or the remaining to their natural action, and impure healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that here balled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-couted, the are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exatted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untroth. Many eminen: elections to be public the reliability four remedies, while others have soft me the assurance of their obviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afficed, suffering fellow-men.

The sgents below named are pleased to unish graits our american Almana containing directions for the use and criticates of their cures of the following complaints. THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine
