Dr. Johnson,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose its has been spent in the neepitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known 'many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being starmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent binshing, attended sometimes with deringement of mind were cured immediately.

Take Particular Notice.

IR. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulge ce and solitary habits, which roin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriga.

These are some of the sad and metancholly effects produced by early habits of youth, vis: Weskness of the Book and Limbe, Pains in the Head, Dimness : Tsight, Loss of Muscular Power, Paluitation of the heart, Dyspepsy, Nervous Irratibility, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debitity, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forbodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of solitude, Tunidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages than now judge what the consequent of their declining health, loging their representations.

THE CONTEST FOR THE SHER IFFALTY.

Sheriff Thompson's Commission Read in Court He Claims Possession of the Office

EWING RESISTS

A Duel Arrangement for a Time [From the Philadelphia Bulletin, Oct. 22.]

[From the Philadelphia Buccess, Val. 2012]
"It was pretty generally understood in town, this morning, that Sheriff John Thompson had received his commission from Governor Curtin, lest night, and that formal possession would last night, and that formal possession would be taken of the office, by the rightful incum-brent this morning. It was also generally believed that this action would not be resisted, but that Mr. Ewing would back out gracefully without force being used to eject him. How these reasonable expectations were realized re mains to be seen from the sequel.

THE COMMISSION IN COURT.
Sheriff Thompson having gone through the ssential preliminary of being sworn into office by the Recorder of the city, proceeded, (attended by his counsel, Messrs. Gilpin, Brewster and Conarroe, and by ex Sheriff Kern.) to the Courts of Common Pleas and Quarter Sessions. where the commission was read and ordered recorded, and where the certificate of the oath

ENTER THOMPSON.

After these formalities had been gone through with, the party proceeded to the office of the Sheriff, and passing through the crowd of dis-comfitted deputies in the outside office directly to the inner office, or Sanctum Sanctorum, where DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure Corns, Carmonder, Ulcers, Warta, Boils, &o

No Heustekeeper should ever be without a box handy for use. The timely use of a single box may prove of more value than 100 times its cost.

Pare 'ts!—If you have a son in the Army, send him a Box of Indicy's Pain Extractor. It may be the means of a aving his life, or the lile of a comrade: for it will cure wounds of all kinds without pain. Try the experiment; if he does not use it, it will cost you but from the street, just to see how things were going to turn out.

> which he is peculiar, that his client had come to assume the duties of the office, and that from to assume the duties of the omce, and that from that time all 'necessary writs, &c., must pass through his (Sheriff Thompson's) hands.
> Mr. Ewing (excitedly)—"Then, sir, you must go somewhere else to do it; you cannot stay

Mr. Gillin then proceeded to assert the legal trights of his client, declaring that while willing to accord any reasonable courtest to Mr. Reino he office until he had consulted his counsel.

Mr. Gilpin said this time had gone by; that heriff Thompson was now in legal possession.

"The Forest Queen, bound up with troops," may also have taken a turn at them.

"We shall probably get further particulars."

and he intended to retain it.

Mr. Brewster now mildly interfered, and in a low tone which could not be heard by the bystanders, he talked Mr. Ewing into some show of reason. Mr. Ewing became mollified, and as an evidence of it, he handed the Sheriff a chair and asked him to be seated.

Chair and asked him to be seated.

The next step was to get the crowd out of the office, and this was accomplished quietly.— Sheriff Thompson and his counsel and friends sel at the office, and an amicable adjustment of the difficulty, if possible. In the outer office the old deputies remained at their posts; but Messrs. Edwin T. Chase and James Freeborn, were authorized to receive writs, &c., on behalf of Sheriff Thompson.

While these scenes were being enacted in doors, a crowd gathered on the outside and anxiously button-holed every one who came out of the office, in order to learn how matters were progressing. All soits of stories were affoat, but enough was understood to elicit the frequent remark that "Ewing dies hard."

At one o'clock, the time fixed for the meeting of the counsel, the representatives of Mr Thompson were present. The counsel for Mr Ewing had not arrived up to two o'clock. Mr. Hirst, who was absent from the city, did not reach here until late, and the consultation with his colleagues had not concluded up to the time of going to press.

Mr. Thompson is virtually in possession of the office, however. The writs have been re-ceived and executed to day by Messrs. Chase and Freeborn, who represent the new sheriff as above stated. THE YELLOW FEVER. - We had hoped that, although the epidemic now raging here had by Friday last reached an unprecedented extent, as regards the number of cases, yet the worst of the mortality was over. And it might have been so but for the violent change in the temperature which occurred on Saturday night.

About ten o'clock on Saturday night a cold rain came on, with but little lightning, and the thermometer fell rapidly, almost immediately according to the control of the Troop oct of the Troop will please call on or address will cause Corporal. diately some sixteen degrees.

The effect upon over five hundred cases of cllow fever may be imagined. The mortality yellow fever may be imagined. The mortality on Saturday night and Sunday exceeded anything that had been known since the epidemic commenced, or since Wilmington was a town. Coffins, coffins, was the great want and so continues. Coffins cannot be obtained as people die. Drip, drip, from the leaden sky. Death die. Drip, drip, from the leaden sky. CAIRO, Oct. 20. The Memphis Bulletin, of the 17th inst., says: 'About ten o'clock yesterday morning, as the Mr. Ewing looked over his shoulder, and when Mr. Charles Gilpin introduced Sheriff this side of Point Pleasant, a blank shot was proffered hand of the former, looking about as to bring her into shore. No heed was paid to sail pleased as though he had been anddenly the summons and she passed on Presently well pleased as though he had been suddenly summoned to then and there swallow the large about fifty men were seen in sight, all beckonest kind of a dose of castor oil.
