GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—Godey for November is out, giving the ladies ample time, after studying the subject in all the light of these colored plates and plain (but still most intricate) diagrams, to make such preparation as may be needed to pay their debts at the shrine of Fashion in due season. Call for copies at Berguer's bookstore. Price 20 cents.

A FRIGHTFUL FALL.—Donaldson, the rope walker, whose feats on Market street were witnessed about a year ago by thousands of our citizens, was severely injured last week, while performing at the Stark County Fair, in Ohio. He had a rope stretched between the tops of two trees, forty feet above the ground, and while performing thereon, one of his feet came in contact with a guy rope, and he fell to the ground, breaking his right arm in two places, the bone protruding several inches.

THE DWARF, Commodore Nutt, who was on exhibition in this city during the summer, last week paid a visit to the White House, and saw the President and Secretaries. Mr. Welles claimed jurisdiction over him as a lord of the sea. Mr. Chase promised to recommend him as his successor, in consideration of his faculty of making money; but he thought he could not make it so fast as Mr. Stanton could spend it. Mr. Lincoln expressed the opinion that if he were shipwrecked he would hardly waste ashore; and the Commodore thought Mr. Lincoln's legs were better adapted than his to the drama.

THE DRAMA AT THE OPERA HOUSE.—The debut of the dramatic company that has taken possession of Sanfor's Opera House, was a brilliant success, and notwithstanding the actors who compose this company came among us unheralded, they have succeeded in a very short time, in winning great favor from the people. The pieces which are nightly presented are of a character to please as well as improve, and therefore the public have not had an opportunity within a long time, of passing an evening more pleasantly and profitably than is afforded by the entertainments at the Opera House. The bill for this evening is a splendid combination of interest and attraction.

SAD ACCIDENT.—One of those sad accidents which so frequently occur from handling fire arms, took place in Derry township, Mifflin county, on Tuesday last week, which resulted in the death of a promising boy named William Kearns, son of Thomas, deceased. So far as we can gather from the various reports about, it appears that the gun was in the hands of a boy named Housley, and that while gathering chestnuts it was discharged, the contents lodging in the side of young Kearns, who died from the wound on Wednesday. It is alleged by some that he had threatened to shoot the other—that an altercation had taken place—but it is quite as likely that it was an unintentional act, and until shown ought to be so regarded.

LADIES' UNION RELIEF ASSOCIATION.—The ladies named will send to the reception room, (Dr. Bailey's,) by 10 1/2 o'clock.

On Friday, Oct. 24th.—Sup.

THE roving rebel bands in Missouri have come to the conclusion that the climate is unhealthy, and they are leaving the state as fast as possible.

ORDERED TO DUTY.—Acting Ensign Isaac J. McKinley, of this city, has been ordered to the iron clad steamer Montauk. He is a good sailor, and we hope to hear good accounts from him. Our best wishes attend him.

DR. JAMES MOORE, of Philadelphia, was mustered into service to-day, an Assistant Surgeon to the 17th Pennsylvania cavalry, (162d regiment P. V.) The Doctor has seen service, and was a captain in Virginia during the present struggle. He will make an efficient surgeon.

THE DRAFTED MEN from counties adjacent to the capital are steadily pouring into Camp Curtin. Yesterday and to-day, we noticed several large trains steam into the city, all carrying freight of this description. In a very few weeks the Government will have an army, we hope, sufficiently large to justify a forward movement—one, too, for which the "radicals" will not be held responsible.

MAJOR JORDAN.—The Washington Star of last evening learns by a refugee from Richmond, by the name of James Gurbrick, a few items of interest. He was a teamster in our army, and fell into the rebel's hands at the first battle of Bull Run. A portion of his time while in captivity was spent in the employ of the rebel Medical Department, and when Gen. McClellan advanced upon Manassas last spring, he tried to escape, but hunger compelled him to give himself up, and he was sent to Richmond and confined in prison, whence he was released a few days ago.

Gurbrick says that he saw the Merrimac No. 2 lying near Rocketts as he passed down, and thinks she is nearly ready for service. She has had all the iron plates placed on her, and looks as if she would be an ugly customer to deal with. He heard persons say, who saw the old Merrimac, that this one is similar in construction and plan, though not so large, and will be much more easily handled.

Major Jordan, 9th Pennsylvania cavalry, and Captain Arnold Harris, were confined in the same room with Gurbrick, and were retained for trial and punishment for depredations said to have been committed by their troops. Four of the First Maryland cavalry (Union) are confined, to be tried on the charge of murder.—What the facts are he could not learn.

COMMUNICATED TO THE PUBLIC.—Curiosity, Inexperience and Prudence started out one day shopping. Curiosity insisted upon visiting all the different places of business to see what was to be seen. Inexperience, with all the noble impulses of young life, was pleased and delighted with the gay colors and shining goods, and disposed to purchase everything that looked handsome. The old lady, Mrs. Prudence, said my inquisitive Grand Curiosity, I think there is nothing to be gained from the mere looking around; and now my impetuous but docile acquaintance Inexperience, while I cannot help but feel kind towards you for your artless and kind intentions, you will please let me give you advice in making your dry goods purchases for winter. At this time when every description of goods are far above the usual price, it is to your interest to go where good goods can be had for the least money—that place is Union & Bowman's, southeast corner of Front and Market streets.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Ely & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition.—Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted,) and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer. A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchase or not.

To the Afflicted.

The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates. I have also on hand a quantity of invaluable Salves for Sore Eyes, Frozen Feet and Piles. References can be furnished as to their wonderful efficacy, whenever called upon. There need be no apprehension in regard to my competency to administer it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front. (au13-dlm) MRS. L. BALL.

MRS. BALL.—I am happy to inform you that your medicine has been a complete success in curing me of Dyspepsia. Before taking it, my appetite was gone, and I could eat nothing without much distress. My health generally was bad, and at times I suffered much from shortness of breath. Now, I feel like another man. My appetite is good. I eat hearty three times a day without the least pain, and have gained four pounds in three months. I take pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as I am certain it is a sure cure.

REV. O. W. LANDRETH, Mount Joy, Pa., Oct. 18, 1862

WE HAVE received a large assortment of hoop skirts, from 75c. up to $2.50. A large assortment of linen and needlework collars, and collars and sleeves, at all prices. MISCELLANEOUS.

PRAYER OF A POLITICIAN.—The Delaware County American, of the 22d inst., gives the world the following incident in the life of a politician: A well-known Brackenridge in our midst, who is said to be "wonderfully gifted in prayer," (we are informed by a fellow member of the same church, who happened to overhear it) lately delivered the following stirring if not very appropriate appeal, and who, whilst he practised strangely bold his protest against "mixing up politics with religion." Whether the apparent earnestness of the petition will atone for his manifest blasphemy when the subject of invocation is considered, is somewhat questionable, but if so, then the devil himself may aspire to the position of class-leader, and we shall not despair that his inflammatory realm may not even yet become the scene of a genuine and general revival. We are all aware that when the "foul fiend" was "under the weather," he became reflective and repentant, for, as the old song says:

"When the devil was sick—the devil a monk would be,
But when the devil got well—the devil a monk was he!"

It may be that the petition below was extorted from the soul of our "pious brother" under circumstances somewhat similar, and was wrung from him of late by the shadows of those "coming events" of which we now have the substance:

"O Lord," said he, "uphold the Democratic party, which has received thy support ever since the great Jeffersonian struggle. Continue to bless that party which has, under thy protection and providence, brought great blessings upon the Republic. If it be thy pleasure, and I believe it will be, oh, carry that party through to a complete triumph. Thou knowest best the objects of the Democratic party, therefore utterly destroy their fanatical and injurious schemes if it be thy will to do so, as I verily believe it is. Be on the side of Democracy, O Lord, as thou hast been in the past, and I beseech thee, instead of warring wickedly, man against brother. And oh, I beseech thee especially to free the Christian Churches from the political life and bitterness which are rending them asunder, destroying their usefulness and turning them unhappily into mere political associations. Let us hear something of thy word and mercy on the Sabbath. We have already been plied to fulness with political fanaticism, and our minister has become a stump orator against the good old party which thou, in thy wisdom, hast upheld so long, and so repeatedly guided to victory, and sustains in the establishment of sound measures. Oh, turn his mind from these things, and direct his attention to his legitimate religious duties, or turn him over directly into the hands of the Abolition party and let them take care of him, and provide us a true minister of the gospel. At any rate, the present state of things cannot last. It politics are to rule, I shall claim one half of the time in behalf of the Democratic party."

STONEWALL JACKSON.—This famous rebel general, we have heard it many times asserted, was formerly stationed in the city of Pittsburgh, as mustering officer for the regular army, and a very clever gentleman he is said to have been. Others dispute this, and say that it was another Jackson. It is not of much consequence whether this dispute is ever settled or not; but there is another, in reference to his birth-place, which appears to be settled in the following note, addressed to the Wheeling Intelligencer, by an old citizen of Clarksburg, Va.:

I notice in your paper, of the 16th inst., that you express a doubt as to the place where Stonewall (Thomas J.) Jackson was born. I suppose it is of little consequence where he was born, but the fact is he was born in Clarksburg, Va. I knew him well in 1812, when he was a little boy, about four or five years of age. He is the son of Jonathan Jackson, who died in this place about 1827. He had a brother, Thomas, now dead, and a sister, Laura, now Mrs. Arnold, of Beverly, Randolph county. His mother married B. B. Woodson about 1820 or '21. I was at the wedding. Upon the formation of Fayette county, Capt. Woodson was appointed clerk of the circuit court of that county, and shortly after moving there to enter upon the duties of his office his wife died. By her he had one son, named Wirt, who now lives in one of the western states.

Stonewall Jackson was taken in charge by some of his relatives in Lewis county, when quite young, and afterwards, through the influence of Samuel L. Hay, then representative in Congress of this district, he obtained a situation in the military academy at West Point, where he received his education.

SAD CASUALTY.—A young man named James Adams, about 25 years of age, was drowned last night under the following circumstances: He had been employed on a boat belonging to Mr. James Donnelly, and had started for Newark, N. J., with a load of iron from the Glendon Furnace. He brought his boat as far down as Easton, yesterday afternoon, and finding out that it leaked, he ran it over to the foot of Hillard & Siskin's wharf, where the leak was repaired. He was working at the boat up to 11 o'clock last night, engaged in leaking out the water; when Mr. Donnelly left the boat he laid down in the cabin to sleep. Sometime during the night the boat sunk and he with it. Efforts were made all the morning to get him out but without avail, and this morning an attempt will be made to raise the boat, by Mr. Thos. Bishop. A coat and portions of clothing were hooked up out of the cabin. It will be a day or two before the boat can be raised, as it is heavily loaded with iron, and the water is of considerable depth at the wharf.

A NEW little financial speculation has just been performed at San Francisco. The State Treasurer it seems has paid the United States Assistant Treasurer, on account of the direct tax levied in California for national purposes, sixty-three thousand dollars in legal tender notes. The money was paid into the State Treasury in gold, and much indignation is manifested against the Treasurer for changing the gold for notes before setting with the United States Treasurer. The government formally protests against the State, on account of the expense of the National Government, and the public is apparently in his favor. It is thought the Legislature will disapprove of such financiering and compel the Treasurer to hand over, for the benefit of the general Government, whatever profit the State realized.

SHOCKING DEATH.—A lad named John Chamberlain, aged thirteen years, and employed at a rolling mill at Youngstown, Ohio, met with a shocking death last week. He was lying, during a temporary stoppage of the machinery, on a belt attached to a large cog wheel connected with the mill-plate shafts. The engine was suddenly started, and he was quickly carried, in its revolutions, into the jaws of the wheel, which in its revolutions crushed his body into a shapeless mass before the engine could be stopped. A wild cry as he was being drawn between the wheels, and a few convulsive gasps after being taken out, and all was over.

In the Name and by the Authority OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, ANDREW G. CURTIN, GOVERNOR OF THE SAID COMMONWEALTH.

A PROCLAMATION. WHEREAS, It is a good thing to render thanks unto God for all His mercy and loving kindness:

Therefore, I, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do recommend that THURSDAY, THE 27th DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, be set apart by the people of this Commonwealth, as a day of solemn Prayer and Thanksgiving to the Almighty:—Giving Him humble thanks that He has been graciously pleased to protect our free institutions and Government, and to keep us from sickness and pestilence—and to cause the earth to bring forth her increase, so that our gardens are choked with the harvest—and to look so favorably on the toil of His children, that industry has thriven among us and labor had its reward; and also that He has delivered us from the hands of our enemies—and filled our officers and men in the field with a loyal and intrepid spirit, and given them victory—and that He has poured out upon us (albeit unworthy) other great and manifold blessings:—

Beseeching Him to help and govern us in His steadfast love and to put into our minds good desires, so that by His continual help we may have a right judgment in all things:—

And especially praying Him to give to Christian churches grace to hate the thing which is evil, and to utter the teachings of truth and righteousness, declaring openly the whole counsel of God:—

And most heartily entreating Him to bestow upon our civil rulers, wisdom and earnestness in council, and upon our military leaders, zeal and vigor in action, that the fires of rebellion may be quenched—that we, being armed with His defence, may be preserved from all perils, and that hereafter our people, living in peace and quietness, may, from generation to generation, reap the abundant fruits of His mercy, and with joy and thankfulness praise and magnify His holy name.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this Twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-seventh.

A. G. CURTIN, By the Governor, ELI SLIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.
