FACTS FROM THE ARMY.

How the Iowa Boys Vote—the 104th Illinois on the Proclamation—A Straw from Michigan.

[Special Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.]

ST. PAUL, MINN., Oct. 15, 1862.

It is a standing assertion of the Democratic and Union papers, that the Democrats have sent a majority of the soldiers to the army.

Fortunately the Legislature of Iowa at its late extra session provided the means of testing this matter, and settling the question so far at least as Iowa is concerned. One of the Iowa regiments, the 27th, was sent to Minnesota to help quell the Indian outbreak.

The Commissioner, Mr. E. H. Hemenway, dispatched to take the vote of the regiment, has completed the labor. The 27th is from the Dubuque Congressional district, in which Allison and Mahoney were the opposing candidates. There are from Allamakee county, three companies; Buchanan county, two companies; Delaware county, one company; Chickasaw county, one company; Floyd and Mitchell counties, one company.

Whole number of votes cast. 564

For Republican State ticket. 493

For Democratic State ticket. 71

Republican majority. 422

MEMBER OF CONGRESS—THIRD DISTRICT.

Allison, Republican. 484

Mahoney, Democrat. 39

Majority for Allison. 455

It will be observed that eight-ninths of the regiment are Republicans. And when the returns are received from all the Iowa regiments, the proportion of Republicans will be found but slightly less than the 27th. And yet we are told that the Democrats furnish a majority of the soldiers!

They have a majority of the high officers, and that is the reason the war drags so miserably. They will not let the men fight, but hold them back to wear out their patience and eat up the subsistence of the people, lest their rebel friends may get hurt, and slavery may be wiped out. This is the opinion of more than one.

[From the Ottawa Republican, 18th.]

Democrats in and about Ottawa, having frequently denied that a large majority of the 104th or LaSalle county regiment, are Republicans, a request was sent to some of the officers of the regiment, to obtain its views on the President's proclamation. In answer to this request we are favored with the following statement of the vote taken:

By Capt. SHREVEVILLE, KY., Oct. 10, 1862.

Enclosed you will receive a copy of the vote taken to-day in camp, by the companies of the 104th Regiment Illinois Volunteers, giving their views on the late emancipation proclamation of the President of the United States, which resulted as below. The proclamation was read to every company, and the ayes and nays taken:

Co. A—70 for and 8 against. Lieut. Osman, acting captain, would not let his men vote, but they gave me their names as above.

Co. B, Capt. Howe, 95 for.

Co. C, Capt. Hazlett, 82 for.

Co. D, Capt. Collins, 95 for.

Co. E, Capt. Doy, 83 for.

Co. F, Capt. McKernan, 85 for.

Co. G, Capt. Minder, 87 for; 1 against.

Co. H, Capt. Ludington, 80 for; 7 against.

Co. I, Capt. Wadleigh, 78 for.

Co. K, Capt. Palmer, 89 for.

Total for, 844; against, 15.

A GARD.

W. the undersigned, members of the 104th regiment of Illinois volunteer infantry, citizens of LaSalle county, having read the resolutions denouncing the emancipation proclamation of the President, passed by the Democratic Convention, held at Ottawa, Sept. 24th, 1862, take this occasion to express our condemnation of the same, and view said resolutions in no other light than "as giving aid and comfort to the enemies of the national Government," by their votes at the polls next November, their approval of the course of the President in issuing his proclamation of emancipation; and also express their condemnation of the course of the Democratic party of LaSalle county, as expressed by their said resolution.

Col. A. B. Moore, 104th regiment; Major H. Winder; Adjutant E. C. Stevens; Quartermaster E. L. Herrick; Capt. Wm. H. Collins, Co. D; Lieut. W. W. Tewksbury, Co. C; Lieut. D. C. Byrneson, Co. C; Lieut. Otis S. Foster, Co. C; Lieut. John C. Linsley, Co. F; Capt. Johnson Minder, Co. G; Lieut. J. P. Fitzsimmons, Co. K; Capt. John Wadleigh, Co. I; Lieut. Chas. E. Webber, Co. I; Lieut. Wm.
