NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—All Advertisements, Business Notices, Marriages, Deaths, &c., to secure insertion in the TELEGRAPH, must invariably be accompanied with the CASH.

HARRISBURG, PA. Friday Afternoon, November 7, 1862.

MILITARY BUSINESS,

EUGENE SNYDER, Attorney at Law. Office: Third Street, Harrisburg, Pa. [52717]

THE TRAINS on the different roads running into and through this city, were considerably interrupted and impeded by the falling snow to day

Snow, pure, white and fleecy, the first of the season, floated in the atmosphere to-day, and soon covered the earth as with a mantle.

GAS DIRECTOR.—In our notice of the election of directors of the Harrisburg Gas Company, we omitted the name of Geo. S. KEMBLE, Esq., as one of the directors elected.

IN THE U. S. DISTRICT COURT, now in session in Baltimore, the cases of sixty-three persons indicted for the crime of treason, were postponed until the April term, 1863, owing to the sickness of Chief Justice Taney.

A SUBSTITUTE BROKER, who was plying his business in one of the camps in the vicinity of Philadelphia, was rather unceremoniously treated yesterday.

IF THE HARRISBURG correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer would occasionally share an item with the local of the TELEGRAPH, and favor us with an odd "chip," we would not complain of his liberties with our columns.

GENERAL ANDREW PORTER ASSIGNED TO COMMAND IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The following order was received in this city last evening, and will be read with interest by the people at large:

HARRISBURG, Nov. 6.—Brigadier General Andrew Porter is assigned to command in the State of Pennsylvania, and will also execute the duties of provost marshal general.

THE HARRISBURG GAS COMPANY ABROAD.—The action of the Board of Directors of the Harrisburg Gas Company, in resolving not to charge the amount of the national tax on gas to the consumer, but that the company would pay the same, has elicited some very flattering commendations from our cotemporaries in other cities.

OUR TROOPS IN CAMP CURTIN.—Some days since allusion was made to the importance of cavalry drill in some of our regiments now in camp.

RECEIVED, Harrisburg, Nov. 7th, 1862, of Governor Curtin, a draft on the Hilds and Leather Bank for two hundred and eighty dollars and thirty cents.

IT IS ESTIMATED that 1,000,000 tons of coal per annum are delivered in New York city and its adjacent counties through Philadelphia.

FINE GROCERIES.—Messrs. Dock & Co., dealers in fine Groceries, Market Street, opposite the Court House, have constantly in store all the choicest in season pertaining to that department of trade.

A SHARP PRACTICE.—While all classes of our business community suffer from the scarcity of small change, our hotel and restaurant keepers are the greatest sufferers.

THE LETTING OF BLOOD FROM A TRAITOR.—Quite a serious rencounter occurred in a grocery store at the upper end of Second Street, yesterday, between a Breckenridge tory son of Esculapian, and a loyal lover of his country.

THESE LINES, before unpublished, are from the pen of our friend, Dr. James Moore, now an Assistant Surgeon and acting Surgeon to the 17th Cavalry in Camp Curtin.

They fall, not in the battle's shock, Where furious steeds rush o'er the plain, And cannon's roar, and bombshell's crack.

When rang'd in line of battle stand Undaunted, firm, the bold and brave, Where volleys pour on every hand, And bayonet charge opens many a grave.

No dreadful stroke cut off life's thread, No sabre wound, nor Minnie ball, No wild foe in ambush laid, No dread explosion work'd their fall.

Not halmed, nor by disease laid low, Did Death to them his mandate speak, As with his scythe he struck the blow.

But, crossing Shenandoah's flood, Whose volume rolls down from Blue Ridge, Those vigorous heroes, noble, good, Pressed with firm foot a treacherous bridge.

It rock'd—gave way—it crash'd—it fell— It plung'd them in the current deep; Their country's tears they and tale tell, For sixty bravos, their sad friends weep.

HARRISBURG, 1862. JAMES MOORE

HIGHLY INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE.—The following correspondence is as well a credit to the State Capital as it is a compliment to one of our most benevolent and kindly spirited ladies.

To Mrs. WILLIAM VERBEKE.—Respected Madam:—When in Harrisburg a short time since, I noted with the sincerest gratification the attentions bestowed upon the sick and wounded men of my regiment, (as well as of every other regiment,) by the ladies of your city.

A STATED MEETING of the Washington Hose Company will be held at the hose house this (Friday) evening at 7 o'clock.

LADIES' UNION RELIEF ASSOCIATION.—At the stated meeting of the Executive Committee held on Wednesday, November 5th, it was decided not to call for daily contributions of food for Camp Curtin.

THE CONDITION OF AFFAIRS AT CAMP CURTIN.—The state of feeling at Camp Curtin is unchanged, so far as the drafted men are concerned. The objections to going into the old regiments are still persisted in, while the idea of giving up their company organizations is regarded as an act of tyranny which, if carried out, will have the effect of creating dissatisfaction and insubordination.

THE BUILDING is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition. Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted), and that they sell at very small profits.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Gout, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates.

LADIES' UNION RELIEF ASSOCIATION.—The ladies named will send to the reception room by 10 o'clock, On Saturday—Butter, eggs, steamed onions.

TO VISIT THE HOSPITALS, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Mrs. O. Brown, Mrs. Henry Gilbert, Mrs. Dr. Dock, Mrs. Mary Thier.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DISSEMBLING.—A legitimate competition in trade is productive of much good, both to the buyer and seller, and is hailed by a business man as the harbinger of energy, and develops all the hidden qualifications of a salesman.

A MODEE ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of property and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Ely & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Gout, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3, 1862. Mrs. Ball.—I feel no hesitancy in acknowledging the virtue of your medicine, its soothing influence and healing power.

[Extract from a letter on the Battle Field.] This battle (Antietam) has been the most sanguinary of the war, and the only one fought with visible design and upon military principles.

But my mothers who here seek a son—or wife a husband—or sisters a brother—or sons a father—know and be comforted that even here the hand of mercy is watchful, and better care is bestowed upon your loved ones than might at first seem possible.

It is well known the effect of burnt gunpowder and excitement is thirst, which adds to the loss of blood in the wounded, creates the necessity of a reviving stimulant.
