The man way not dangerously wounded, and was carried to the camp by the farmer who shot him, for the purpose of proving to the officers in command, that he was determined to protect his property at all hazards. Of course a scene of great excitment occurred at the camp. The soldiers also cured me of a running scrofula, which had feigned to be very indignant at the fate of their thieving comrade, and threatened to puring my years of affliction. I applied frelynch the farmer, but his determined bearing and resolute declarations to defend not only his property, but his life, induced the men in camp to desist.

It is certainly a great evil, that our farmen should be thus annoyed. The Commissary Department supplies the men in camp with A. Dailus Bache, Superintendent of the Coast ample provisions. The necessity of foraging on the defenceless farmer does not exist, and of the latter, which, it will be recollected, was when a soldier meets the fate of the man who was shot on Monday evening, while in the act of stealing, though it is a hard one, he deserves all the punishment he suffers.
