THE NEW EDITION

PURDON'S DIGEST HAS JUST BEEN PUBLISHED, PRICE $5 00.

N ENTIRE new edition of this well know. A Law Book has just been issued. It is now distinguished by the following superadded features: The laws contained in the various annual Digests published since the date of the eighth edition (1858) have been incorporated in the tody of the work. Many thousand new authorities have been cited; the report of the revisors of the Penal Code has been embodied in the notes to the various sections of it, and the appendix contains for the first time, the Acts of Congress for the Authentication of Records, and the Statute of Fraudulent Conveyances, with full and elaborate notes of the decisions explanatory of them. The work has been prepared by the learned editor, Mr. Bright, and its freshness and permanent value will be preserved by the continuation of the annual Digests, which have given so much entisfaction. ## Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their ut nost to produce this best most per net purgative which is known toman. Innumerable proofs are shown that these little have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly up in the esteem of all men. They pare sale and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties sumale the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which brill and grow determper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs mot their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. White they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished does, the salest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugarcosted, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exaited position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminen: clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of our remedies, while others have set me the assurance of their convolved intensity. The agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis our American Aimanac, containing directions for the use and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costivness, Bilious Complaints, kheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising fron a feul stomach, Nansand, Indigestion, Morbid inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of App tite, all Diseases which require an exaceant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulaung the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they would reach, such as Beafmess, Pertial Blindness, N THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine
