HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Afternoon, November 12, 1862. MILITARY BUSINESS, Of all kinds attended to.

LOST.—A DIAMOND SET of a BREAST PIN was lost to-day. A liberal reward will be paid for its recovery. J. H. ZEIGLER, no12 d8t.

Gov. CURTIN left for Philadelphia, at noon to-day, to be absent for a very limited time. The business that calls him hence is of a purely private though unimportant character.

THE LADIES acknowledge the receipt of a quantity of butter, dried apples and apple-butter, for the use of the sick and wounded soldiers in various hospitals in this city, sent by a young lady from Herndon, Northumberland county, Pa.

HON. JAMES M. PORTER, of Easton, and a brother of Ex-Governor Porter, is dead. He died yesterday. The Ex-Governor left this city to-day for Easton, to be present at the payment of the last and honor and respect to the remains of his distinguished kinsman.

THE CITY was full of rumors all day on the subject of anticipated invasion of Pennsylvania and the contemplated capture of the State Capital by the rebels. The public would do well to discountenance all such exaggerations. They are the result of the disappointment of some men with recent changes in the army, and therefore we may expect to be annoyed with all sorts of stories, if for no other purpose than only to excite and alarm the timid.

WHILE PASSING THROUGH CAMP SIMMONS, yesterday, we were surprised and pleased with the solitary appearance which many of the companies of drafted men are already presenting. Among those most efficient in drill and discipline, without indulging in invidious distinctions, we must mention two companies from Locoming county.

THE COMPANY from Locoming will be organized with the following officers: Captain—W. H. Gosline. First Lieutenant—Allen G. Dudd. Second Lieutenant—George Bubb.

MEADVILLE, from Monday last, was to have had railroad connection with the east, thus affording its citizens an opportunity of competing with the "balance of mankind."

THE WATER WORKS, ENGINE-HOUSE, RESERVOIR, &c., of the city of Pittsburg have been levied upon. The right to levy upon such property of a municipality, deemed essential for the safety of the lives and property of the people of the corporation, is to be argued in the U. S. District Court.

WON'T PAY POSTAGE.—Persons mailing letters must expect to find them "held for postage" provided they attempt to pay postage by affixing United States Internal Revenue stamps.—The Postoffice Department will not recognize them; and although we consider this as an unnecessary display of red tape, on the part of our venerable Uncle Sam, still postmasters must obey the orders of the Department.

TAX DOMESTIC MARKET, this morning, rounded with all that a man could want, and much that many could not get—owing to the extravagantly high prices of produce. We really think that the markets of this city, in quantity and quality, and in enormous prices, exceed those of any other in the country.

AN OUTRAGE.—Mr. Henry Wickel, Deputy Marshall for Brecknock township, Lancaster county, while engaged in serving notices upon the drafted men in his district, was murderously assaulted by several men named Smith.

A MAN BURNED TO DEATH IN A KILN KILN.—The body of an unknown man was recently found burned to death in a lime kiln in Collins township, on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, eight miles above Pittsburg.

SAVED THEM RIGHTS.—Several unscrupulous and rascally Jew traders of this city lately visited the camps at Harrisburg for selling gum and woollen blankets to the drafted soldiers.

THE FOLLOWING EXQUISITE LINES, while they are not entirely applicable to the season, are yet appropriate in marking the change in the weather as its atmosphere is breathed to day, when compared with that of Saturday and Friday.

As high in air he carols, faintly quiver; The weeping birch, like banner idly waving, Bends to the stream its spray branches laving;

I love thee, Autumn, for thy scenery, ere The bliste of winter change the varied dyes That richly deck the slow declining year;

SWORD PRESENTATION AT CAMP CURTIN.—Yesterday, immediately after dress parade, a beautiful sword, belt and sash were presented to Capt. Boynton, in behalf of the citizens of Harrisburg, as a memento of esteem and respect for his brave and noble acts, while gloriously leading his men to victory on the victorious fields of Williamsburg and Fair Oaks, and his universal, kind, and happy intercourse with those whose business relations brought them in contact with him while in command of the post.

THE sword was presented on behalf of the donors, by Captain Sands, of the First Pennsylvania Cavalry. Capt Boynton received the sword, and responded by addressing the soldiers on the duty they owed to his successor as commander of Camp Curtin, and expressed himself pleased with the manner in which that duty had been discharged towards himself while in charge of the camp.

RELEASE ON ALIENAGE.—The following are the names of additional persons who were drafted in this state, and released by the State Department, Washington, on alienage:

Table listing names of individuals released on alienage, such as J. R. Skelton, Joseph Welch, Jacob Christopher Branes, etc.

A CARD FROM ONE OF THE EXCLUDED LADIES.—We alluded, yesterday, to the fact, that one of the ladies, who were excluded from camp, where she was honestly and laboriously endeavoring to make a living, had written to us on the subject.

MR. EDITOR.—Having seen a piece communicated in last evening's paper concerning the removal of the stores in Camp Curtin, now let me give you full particulars of the affair, as I am among the number removed.

In the Name and by the Authority OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, ANDREW G. CURTIN, GOVERNOR OF THE SAID COMMONWEALTH.

A PROCLAMATION. Whereas, It is a good thing to render thanks unto God for all His mercy and loving kindness:

Therefore, I, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do recommend that THURSDAY, THE 27th DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, be set apart by the people of this Commonwealth, as a day of solemn prayer and Thanksgiving to the Almighty.

Respecting Him to help and govern us in His steadfast love, and to put into our minds good desires, so that by His continual help we may have a right judgment in all things.

And especially praying Him to give to Christian churches grace to hate the things which are evil, and to utter the teachings of truth and righteousness, declaring openly the whole counsel of God;

And at heartily entreating Him to bestow upon our civil rulers, wisdom and earnestness in council, and upon our military leaders, zeal and vigor in action, that the fires of rebellion may be quenched—that we, being armed with His defence, may be preserved from all perils, and that hereafter our people, living in peace and quietness, may, from generation to generation, reap the abundant fruits of His mercy, and with joy and thankfulness praise and magnify His holy name.

Attest my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this Twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-seventh.
