MILITARY BUSINESS,

Of all kinds attended to.

EUGENE SNYDER.

Attorney at Law. Office: Third Street, Harrisburg, Pa. [0271v.

ANY OFFICER of a full company of the drafted men not yet mustered in, who wants to sell out, and procure a good substitute, will hear of a lib ral offer from an experienced military man, by directing a line "TO SUBSTITUTE" at this office.

THE PATRIOT claims that nearly all the soldiers now in camp in this city are Democrats. This may be so, because they are also nearly all drafted men. There were no Republicans to draft. Such as these had nearly all volunteered.

THE BEAUFORT LIBRARY, which was captured by our troops and removed to New York for sale, is to be returned by order of the Government, to the shelves whence they were taken, where they will remain to enlighten the people of the south, on the subject of the magnaminity of the authority which the rebels deny. Right.

REV. C. GEORGE FIELD, of Bellefonte, preached in the Episcopal Church on Sabbath morning and evening. Rev. Field is one of the most eloquent clergymen now in the pulpit, and perhaps one of the most profound scholars of his sect. His scholastic attainments, added to a strong intellect and the experience of ext-usive travel and observation, render him highly popular in the pulpit.

DR. HUTTON, of the firm of Drs. Chamberlain. Hutton & Co., (celebrated Embalmers, of Wash. ington City,) has arrived in this city, and can be consulted in reference to the Embalming of Bodies, at the White Hall Hotel to-day, Monday, Nov. 17th, at from 8 A M., until 7 P. M.

N. B. -Bodies Embalmed look perfectly natural, and remain so for years. Bodies not too much decomposed can be preserved for a long 110 time

THE SUPERVISOR OF STREETS should pay some attention to the crossings, and particularly those from the back stands at the corner of Third and Market streets. In the present condition of the weather ladies and children have difficulty in passing over these crossings. What with the mud, boisterous and profine drivers combined, it is hard even for men to get along in that direction. Will the Supervisor and police look after this business.

CAMP PHILADELPHIA -Affairs at this camp remain pretty much in statu quo. There have been no accessions with the exception of two companies from Wayne county, which have organized by the election of Captains George Hubbell and H. Stevens. One of these companies has been mustered in and the other will be sworn to-day. The men from Carbon county have been incorporated into the companies from Pike. A regiment, under command of Cotonel Nyce, formerly of the Fourth Pennsylvania Reserves has been formed of eight companies from Bucks county and two from Northampton. They appeared yesterday on dress parade, when the regulations of the camp were read, prohititing my officer or soldier leaving without a pass. Seven companies from Lehigh, and three from Monroe, have organized as a regiment, the Colonel of which has not yet been appointed. A regiment is forming of the men gomery. It is expected that one of the Bucks county companies will leave shortly to garrison Fort Ellsworth.

UNMANLY OUTRAGES .- The Wanton Destruction of Property by the Men at Camps Curtin and McClellan. - We alluded some days since to the fact that one of our farmers had actually shot a soldier who was engaged in the wanton destruction of his property, and we then hoped that the warning thus given would have the effect of deterring others from similar destruction. In this, however, we have been mistaken. Accounts from the neighborhood of both encampare never the dirk, the bowle knife, or ments continue to reach us, detailing acts of unprovoked assault and carrying off of property at once dangerous to the farmers of the vicinity at once dangerous to the farmers of the vicinity man his life, was the very embern of assault and carried with the and disgraceful to all connected with the camps. In the neighborhood of Camp Curtin, the fences of the farmers, with those inclosing the stock yards of the Pennsylvania railroad, have been torn down, carried off and consumed as fuel in the camp. There is no necessity for this destruction, because the government furnishes the camps with fuel. Our farmers cannot stand these losses. They have all given freely and liberally to promote the comfort and certain circumstances, to defend himself against the rowdy, the robber and the burglar; while the rowdy, the robber and the burglar; while therefore they should be protected from this vandalism by those in charge of the camps, In the vicinity of Camp McCiellan, as we learn from the most respectable men, the acts and the thefts of the soldiers have been most disgraceful. TEPORTANT TO SCHOOL TEACHERS -- We notice by the November issue of the Pennsylvania School Journal, that Superintendent Burrowes has taken an important and a highly justifiable step in regard to the rights of school teachers. This was made necessary by the fact that certain directors have been exacting twenty two or even twenty-four days from their teachers as the Herr's Hotel, who was operating on the pockets perity and as a determination on the part of school month. Where this is done, of course of the guests present. He was committed for our business men, no longer to remain behind no time is afforded for the self-improvement of a hearing. No doubt this fellow belongs to the higher house, the completion of Eby the teachers by the association and influence of the gang which has been conducting a series & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner it is also alleged, go so far as to insist on opening the schools on Saturday, which is a practical ignoring of the law in regard to District Institutes. Secretary Burrowes requests all County Superintendents to notify his Department where the school time is thus insisted upon, and where also the District Institutes are thereby neglected. If the teacher is not afforded time to improve his own mind, he cannot be expected to improve the minds of those placed in his charge. To use a homely comparison the journeyman who works with edged tools might as well be debarred of the time to keep those tools in order, and then expected to do good work, as the school teacher could be expected to be successful, without the aid and improvement derived from his District Insti-

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—We alluded some time since to the fact that the continued occupation of some of the school houses in this city as hospitals for wounded soldiers, was the source of great inconvenience, delay and actual injury to a large class of pupils. Since then the matter has been brought before the School Department. by the following interrogatory:

Several of the common school buildings o Harrisburg are already occupied as hospitals for the wounded soldiers of the Union army, and the children excluded. It is now proposed to take others of them—especially that of the Female High School in the north ward, for the same purpose. Can this be done!—Director of Harrisburg District. To this Superintendent Borrowes replies through the columns of the School Journal that. of course it can, if the proper military authorities so determine. But if the suffering soldiers can be as well accommodated in other places or in other suitable buildings in the city, the youth of the place should not be deprived of their ordinary and necessary means of instruction. Harrisburg has done its tull share in this respect, and there are other cities and towns ready to aid in this noble duty. There are probably also other buildings in the city procurable for this purpose. While this is the case, the proper authorities should endeavor to make such arrangements as will prevent the closure of the schools. If nothing else will do, the city authorities and the school directors should exert themselves, by erecting temporary or renting unoccupied buildings, to keep the schools in operation and the children out of the

CONCEALED DEADLY WEAPONS .- The habit of carrying daggers and pistols, as it prevails among the young men of this day, had an unfortunate culmination in the city of Pittsburg some months since. One Thomas B. Keenan assassinated John A. Obey. Both were young men, and now we have the fact of the conviction of Keenan, by a jury of his countrymen from Chester; and also one from those of Mont- on a charge of murder in the first degree. The Pittsburg Gazette thus descants on the assassination and the trial:

The evidence went to show that Keenan and Obey were entire strangers, and hence it was not even hinted that there had been any camp Curtin, at the prospect of being sent to previous gridge existing between them. Respectively reinforce the old regiments, was shared equally by those at Camp Philadelphia, but this difficulty having been removed, there appears no further discontent.

But the testimony proved more. It established the fact that Keenan carried the dagger of the assessin. Obey had no weapon but reliad the assassin. Obey had no weapon, but relied for protection upon his good behavior and physical courage. Keenan, excited with liquor was quick for a quarrel, and conscious of hi ability to overcome the most powerful manhaving the dagger to rely upon in case his courage lailed him. The question will suggest itself, "Why did Keenan arm himself with of a dagger? Hundreds of young men, who are never with nation. The dirk is made to kill-to murder with. The maker so intended it to be used, and the purchaser obtains it for no other purpose. In hand to hand encounters it is the most deadly of all weapons—and in a court of justice bloody dagger points only to the gallows. The constant carrying of the pistol—which, compared with the king, is a manly weapon too often leads young men into difficulty, and has cost many an one his life. [Extract from a letter on the Battle Field.]

This battle (Antietam) has been the most sanguinary of the war, and the only one fought with visible design and upon military principles. The arrangement of our corpsthe overlooking position of the commanding General—the sending into action of the right admiration, and carries the mind to the great fields of Austerlitz and Wagram, fought by and the brain reel. The sight is at first positively unendurable. The life-blood of some is still trickling away in silent calmness while the dissevered limbs and maniac brain of others give rise to sounds God grant I may not again witness.

But ye mothers who here seek a son—or wives a husband-or sisters a brother-or sons a father-know and be consoled that even here the hand of mercy is watchful, and better care is bestowed upon your loved ones than might at first seem possible. It was in the hospital where rested the gallant Hooker, that I learned the history of those mythical words so often seen and so little understood, "S.T.—1860— via Columbia, leaves Harrisburg at 1.10 p. m., X.'' Anything alleviating the sufferings and arrives at West Philadelphia at 6.30 p. m. saving the lives of our soldiers, is a national WESTWARD. blessing. I witnessed some astonishing results

It is well known the effect of burnt gunpowde and excitement is thirst, which added to the wise called S.
