A Cure Warranted in Two Days. No Mercury or Nauteous Drugs, Dr. Johnson,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, Loudon, Grad-nato from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and else-where, has effected some of the most astonishing oures that were ever known 'many troubled with ringing in the head and cars when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at audden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended constitues with derangement of mind were cured immediately.

Take Particular Notice. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulge ce and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, both body and mind, unitering them for either varieties, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholly effects produced by early habits of youth, vis: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsy, Nervous Irratibility, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreated—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forbodings, Avers on to Modesty, Seif Distrust, Love of bolitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaclated, having a langular appearance arount the eyes, cough and symptoms 10.) Besides Pennsylvanians, there are many of consumption.

Young: Men

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice in dulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured render marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be anatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain scoret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are it he most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pigrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholly reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

Disease of Imprudence.

Disease of Imprudence.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often hapens that an til-time some of shames or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from elucation and respectability, can alone between the property of the sease make their appearance, such as uithis horr d disease make their appearance, such as uithis horr d disease make their appearance, such as uithis horr d disease make their appearance, such as uithis horse throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, dealness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the painte of the mouth or the benes of the nose fall is, and the victim of this awful disease become; a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Urdiscovvered Country from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholly fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the oask it fullness of "igno-tant pretanders, who by the use of that Deadly Poison, of the miserable.

Trust not your lives, or health, to the care of the many Unlearned and Worthless Pretenders, destitute of knowledge, name or character, who copy Dr. Johnson's adververtisements, or style themselves in the newspapers, regularly Educated Physicians incapable of Curing, the keep you trifling month after mouth taking their filthy and poisonousness on pounds, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair, leave you with ruined health to sigh over your galling disappointment.

Dr. Johnson is the only Physician advertising. His credential or diplemas always hangs in his office. His remedies or treatment are unknown to all others, prepared from a life spent in the great hospitals of Kurope, the first in the country and a more extensive Private Practice than any other Physician in the world.

Indoresisent of the Press.

The many thousands cured at this institution year after year, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnson, witnessed by the reporters of the "Sun," "Clipper," and many other papers, notices of which have appeared sgain and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarrantee to the affected.

FROM OUR SICK SOLDIERS.

List of Pennsylvanians in Smoketown Hospital, Md.

Correspondence of the Telegraph.]

SMOKETOWN HOSPITAL, Nov. 14, 1862. Smoketown is a hamlet of six or seven small log houses in Washington county, Md., about ten miles south of Hagerstown and three miles north of Sharpsburg. It is one mile east of the turnpike road leading from Hagerstown to Sharpsburg. It is easiest reached from Pennsylvania via Hagerstown, whence hacks run daily to Sharpsburg, Smoketown and the battle field of Antietann. Smoketown is on the margin of the battle field.

The following list was in chief part furnished me by the chaplain, Rev. Isaac O. Sloan, copied from the book of the hospital. The ren appended to some of the names are from the books or added from personal knowledge of this correspondent. Persons desiring further in-formation, especially concerning the dead, can and the chaplain, an excellent and obliging man thus, "Rev. Isaac O. Sloan, Smoketown. Hospital. Sharpsburg, Ma!" I am persuaded he will give them every satisfaction in his power. It would be well to enclose a postage stamp for the returning answer.

It is not probable that all the names in this list are perfectly correct, but, as the name of the company and regiment is added, the person in most cases can be identified. The letter stands for the company, the figures for the regiment. It is probable that some of those below 14 may be of the Reserves, though not so designated on the books.

There have been over 500 patients in this hospital and about two hundred others connected with the establishment as officers, nursers, &c. 10.) But this is far from the fact. There are some noble men and wo-men here who are doing all they can for them with their limited means; but there is much there is perhaps no great lack of blankets; but few of the tents are supplied with bedsteads or cots. The most of them are lying in tents, on mattrasses placed upon the ground, with some straw beneath them, or slightly levated on boards. Some of the men have no upper garments, or only summer clothing. some, when convalescent, have been unable to go out on this account; others may be seen going about in their drawers, having no panta loons. It is to be hoped, however, that the government will soon be able to supply this ck. But many of them are without suitable underclothing, or without a change of them. And those who have suitable shirts and drawers are afraid to put them off and let them go to wash for fear they will never see them again. A man who has worn a woolen shirt for a time may be compelled to put up with a muslin one the next Let me appeal to the wives, mothers, sisters and neighbors of these men throughout the State to send on to them, immediately, or as soon as possible, the needed supplies. The most of these men have been shedding their blood for their country. Let them not feel that they are forgotten or neglected, when suffering from wounds and sickness.

I received from an excellent lady, Mrs. Husbands, of Philadelphia, who is laboring day and night in the fever ward of the hospital, and as was informed, without any other compensa. You loving me, tion than the satisfaction of doing good, nursing the poor sick boys with the tenderness of a mother, the following list of things most needed at this time: Woolen shirts, drawers and hose, brandy and wine, home made bread, butter, milk and eggs, applebutter, preserves, &c., lemons, apples, onions, tomatoes, oat meal, mustard, pickels, gelatine, tea. Another lady also mentioned to me another article of great use and much needed, viz: condensed milk.

Anything sent in packages or boxes may be pital, Hagerstown, Maryland. Arrangements are made for the forwarding of all articles so directed. Let the patriotic and benovolent be-stir themselves, lest the men who have fought our country's battles perish through our neglect. The winter storms are coming down upon them, and it is pitiable to see the poor fellows who are able to be out shivering, half clad, around their fires in the open air few of the tents have stoves as vet; and the few stoves already in have been purchased by the men themselves or their friends. Few of these men, however, have any money; many have not been paid for months. This is somewhat of the condition of the Smoketown General Hospital. How it may be with others in this region remote from the great cities, I know not. But something needs to be done, or the men will suffer and die for lack of things needful under the circumstances.

I cannot close this communication without expressing my profound respect for those he pines of benevolence and patriotism—the noble women who are toiling with such self-sacrificing levotion in this obscure and isolated place for the sick and suffering defenders of their country. In addition to Mrs. Husbands, already mentioned, there is Mrs. Lee, of Philadelphia, to whom a sick soldier never applies in vain for a bit of toast, or a cup of tea, or soup, while she has any to give him. From morning till night, seven days in the week, this lady stands over and around an old rickety cooking stove, boiling, stewing, toasting and roasting, with such a lack of implements and means as would perplex almost any other housewife; and yet with such a cheerful spirit and unwearying assidutely as to commend the admiration of all the state of the sta signify as to commend the admiration of all who come near her. The same may be said of Miss Maria M. C. Hall, of Washington city, a young lady of fortune and high accomplishments, who is here drudging like a slave in the service of humanity and country. She has also a worthy co-laborer in Miss E. F. in the service of humanity and country. She has also a worthy co-laborer in Miss E. E. Tyson, of Baltimore, who I am sorry to learn has been sick for a few days past, doubtless the result of toil and exposure. Mrs. Harris, of Philadelphia, has also been a leading spirit in the work of benevolence here; but has now, as I team transferred her benedounter. learn, transferred her headquarters to Harper's

Steam Printing Office.

SINGING SANDS AND SOUNDING MOUNTAINS .-Thousands of years ago the pillars of Memnon were famed for giving musical sounds. Sounds ike those of belis have been heard, at different ocalities, to come from the depth of the ocean, and now we hear of musical mountains and inging sands.

singing sanus.

Five such localities are already on record.

The first is Dschehel Nakus (ell Mountain) upon the peninsula. Sinai, on the shores of the Red Sea, northwestward of the city of To.— The celebrated traveler, Sectzen, of Oldenburg, was the first European savant who ascended it. He found it consisting of a brittle white sandstone, covered on two sides with loose sand. This sand when brought into motion, produces the sound. The traveler, when ascending, passed over this region of loose sand, and he soon discovered that the noise it made in glid ing down the slope became by degrees louder and louder. When he reached the summit such a frightful sound was heard that it shook the whole mountain, and he himself became excited in the highest degree.

Some time afterwards this same mountain was visited by Mr Gay, of Oxford, and more recently by Mr. Ward, both Englishmen. They give very nearly the same account of this phenomenon. All ascribe the cause to the fact that the sand glides down the bare mountain sides. Ward heard at first only a feeble tone like that of the flute; suddenly it became strong like that of an organ, and the whole hill began to vibrate. The sound became louder in proportion to the quantity of sand set in motion by the steps of the traveler. Alexander Burns visited, in 1837, a similar hill. This way the Rey Rawan, (the moving mountain,) which is also about four hundred feet high. Its ascent is an incline of about forty degrees, covered with a layer of sand, surrounded by a still deeper border of lime and sandstone. Gliding down on this sand, it emits a loud, hollow tone, similar to that or a great drum. This was already known in the fifteenth century. A third mountain of this kind is the "El Bromador," the yelling, barking mountain in Chili, in regard to which Charles Darwin made similar observations.

Charles Mayer, in his book "Towards Sacramento," mentions another to exist in Califor-nia, and recently a fifth locality of this kind has been discovered by Hugh Miller, upon the small island Eigg, on the western coast of Scot land. According to Miller, a geologist of great renown, a stratum of colite exists on this island. This substance, when reduced to sand, becomes suffering for want of even the necessaries of life.

Many of them are very destitute of clothing—a white, mealy mass. Miller observed, that on every step he took the send gave a recelling every step he took, the sand gave a peculiar musical sound. It is, however, not proven that colite sand alone produces sounds. The above mentioned Mr. Ward says that the friction of the sharp edged grains of siliceous sand, exposed to the rays of a trophical sun, caused the resonant quality of the sand. "THERE is a step from the sublime to the ridiculous." This distance is not greater from the poetical to the prosy. Somebody wrote some rather pretty verses about "Love." Some other body borrowed the metre and taking 'Soap' for a theme, wrote some wicked verses in parody. Here are the two pieces : SOAP.
