MILITARY BUSINESS, Of all kinds attended to.

EUGENE SNYDER, Attorney-at-Law.

Office: Third Street, Harrisburg, Pa. [o271y.

Gov. PICKENS, of Virginia, passed through this city at noon to-day, en route for the State which he governs.

A GRAND COLLEGE PARTY will be given at Frisch's Hall, corner of Fifth and Market Streets, this (Wednesday) evening. Tickets 50 cents.

THE CONSEQUENCES of such a rain storm as that of yesterday—muddy streets, filthy pavements, and puddles everywhere—tell better than all complaints the woes of the people who are compelled to traverse the streets of the State Capital.

I, FRANK BRACH, of Columbia, left a package of printed documents in charge of some friend (name not known) in Harrisburg, in the month of March last. Any person who will make it known at this office, where said package can be found, will be suitably rewarded.

GEN. CAMERON is in Washington city, the guest of the Secretary of the Treasury. He has had a highly satisfactory interview with the President, and was received by the Government in a manner to prove the high appreciation of his worth and services.

IT WAS REPORTED on the street to-day, that Capt. James Gowan had been elected Lieut. Col. of one of the newly organized Cavalry Regiments now forming in Camp Curtin. We hope this is true, as the Captain has the grit to win glory if he is only given a proper opportunity.

SALE OF PRATT'S IRON WORKS.—The iron works of Messrs. Pratt & Son, in the lower part of the city, have been sold to Messrs. Charles A. Bailey, & Bro. & Co., who will fit them up immediately and set them in motion. These works have been lying idle for years past, and been an eye-sore to the business men in the city. We are glad, therefore, that these enterprising men have purchased this establishment. They will employ a large number of men. This firm has won for itself an extensive and a splendid reputation, not alone for the magnitude of its operations, but the liberality with which it conducts all its business enterprises. With this extension of an already extensive business, we of course date the enlarged prosperity of Harrisburg.

LIEUT. D. W. CHAMBERS.—We had the pleasure, to-day, of shaking by the hand Lieut. D. W. Chambers, who is to be located in this city as the recruiting officer of the Third Regiment Heavy Artillery. What rendered Lieut. Chambers more welcome to our sanctum is the fact that he finished his trade as a printer in our establishment, leaving us with credit as a faithful and industrious compositor. Since then, Lieut. C. devoted himself to the study and the practice of the law, which he renounced to take up arms in defence of his country. He has many friends in this city, and cannot fail to draw to the standard which he now raises among his old comrades, many excellent and effective recruits. Both for his regiment and himself, we are ready to render any assistance that will secure success.

CAPTURE OF SUPPOSED PICKPOCKETS AT THE DEPOT.—Counterfeit Money Discovered.—No less than nine different individuals answering to the following names: Charles English, Wm. Richards, Oscar Church, James Richards, Wm. Walters, James Cobby, John Smith, Emanuel Christ and Henry Creamer, were arrested last evening in and around the depot, under the suspicion of being pickpockets. All the individuals above named, except Christ and Creamer, gave their residence as Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and New York, and judging from their movements, we have no doubt that they congregated around the depot, for no other purpose than to relieve strangers and passengers of their money. Several pockets were picked last night. Among the unfortunate was a widow who had gone for the remains of her husband who died in the army and whose body she was taking home. She lost a pocket book containing some $50, a doctor's certificate of her husband's death, and several other papers. Considerable money was found on all the arrested parties, and persons who have been victimized, had better examine the prisoners in jail, where they were committed for a further hearing.

Emanuel Christ, one of the above, says that he belongs to Pinegrove, came here with his captain to go into camp; that he is a drafted man and knows nothing of the others. If this is correct, he will no doubt be discharged.

Henry Creamer, who locates himself also at Pinegrove, had thirty-two dollars of counterfeit money in his possession, consisting of one $2 counterfeit note on the Union Bank of Delaware, and six $5 notes on the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Kent county, at Chestertown, Maryland. The notes seem to be issued from the five dollar plate of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Philadelphia, and is a good imitation. The latter was committed to await his trial at the next court.

Officer Campbell, through whose instrumentality these arrests were made, deserves great credit for his industry in trying to rid the city of a set of pickpockets, counterfeiters and scoundrels, who infest this vicinity, and who are robbing citizens and soldiers almost daily. We hope he may be properly recognized and rewarded by the railroad companies, whose duty it is to run these fellows from their depots.

Court Proceedings.

WEDNESDAY.—The Court met at half-past eight o'clock.

The Jury in the Com. vs. Bob Edwards, returned a verdict of guilty on the third count—selling liquor to minors.

Com. vs. Mary Helsey, charged with larceny. Plead guilty.

Com. vs. John S. Brown. Charge, larceny; verdict guilty.

Com. vs. Samuel W. Freeburn. Assault and battery on oath of Mary Freeburn, a daughter-in-law of defendant. Verdict not guilty, but pay the costs.

Com. vs. Isaac D. rrey. Fornication and bastardy. Verdict guilty.

Com. vs. Wm. Green. Larceny. Verdict not guilty.

Com. vs. Edward Wright. Larceny. Verdict not guilty.

WHAT COMES OF GETTING A "SUBSTITUTE."—Persons anxious to avoid the draft will see by the following special notice that the act of procuring a substitute frees the latter, but leaves the principal still subject to the draft:

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1, 1862.

"Hon. Silas Livermore, Guthrieville, Pa."

"Sir:—In reply to yours of the 27th ult., desiring to be informed of certain questions pertaining to the draft, the Secretary of War directs me to say that, when a drafted man furnishes a substitute that is accepted, the two change places. The principal is liable to another draft, if made, just as he would be if he had not been drafted at first, and the substitute is bound by the first draft of the principal just as if he had drafted himself.

Very respectfully,
C. P. BUCKINGHAM,
Brig. Gen. and A. A. G."

The War Department will also hereafter insist that drafted men, when procuring substitutes, shall obtain the consent of the substitutes to join the old regiments. This is the method adopted by the Department to bridge the difficulty of filling up the old regiments. Henceforth all substitutes will be compelled to enter the old regiments, to remain for nine months. With this understanding the government will prefer substitutes to the original drafted men.

GREAT FIRE.—Destruction of the Second Largest Saw-Mill in the World, and about Four Hundred Thousand feet of Lumber.—About half-past twelve o'clock on Saturday night the immense saw-mill of Langdon, Divin & Co., at the west end of this borough, commonly known as the "Big Water Mill," was discovered to be on fire, and before the flames could be checked it was burned to the water's edge, together with about four hundred thousand feet of sawed lumber. The night was excessively cold, and it was only by the most exertions that our firemen and citizens could prevent the flames from extending further into the millions of feet of boards piled upon the acres adjacent. The flames spread over the mill and consumed it so rapidly that an attempt to save any part of it or its contents was not to be thought of. The effort was made to save the sawed lumber on hand, and it was remarkably successful. So great was the light caused by the conflagration that the streets of the town were illuminated in every part, and the flames were visible from the clouds. The mill extended from the north bank of the river to the east, and contained about one hundred and fifty saws. In size it was probably the largest saw-mill in the world, and its number of saws the second largest in the world. The loss is estimated at $60,000. The parties destroyed was partly insured. All parties present agree that the fire was the work of an incendiary.—Lycoming Gazette.

LYRICS OF THE CAMP.—Besides the stories of suffering and the descriptions of deadly strife, that reach us from the army, we occasionally receive the evidence that our boys are not forgetful of what is beautiful and animating in music and song. The following really stirring lines from Camp Dauphin, written by F. C. Schut, of Co. G, 127th Regiment, P. V., prove that we are more than right in respect to the enthusiasm and good spirits which prevail among our absent soldier friends:

HURRAH FOR OUR PENNSYLVANIANS.

WRITTEN FOR THE TELEGRAPH.

I. Hurrah for our brave Pennsylvanians,

To their flag they are always so true,

Hurrah for Ahs and his generals,

Three cheers for the red, white and blue.

II. Like Baker, Lyon and Ellsworth,

Our hearts would forever upbraid,

Should we fail while fighting for freedom,

In the ranks of the Keystone brigade.

III. Far away across the blue mountains,

Are the homes of our fathers so true,

We love them with heartfelt devotion,

While we fight for the red, white and blue.

IV. We've sons in the land of the rebels;

There our banner is proudly displayed,

In the battle field full of great danger,

It waves o'er the Keystone brigade.

V. They fear not the loud cannon's rattle,

Their feet they are sure to subdue,

As bravely they march into battle,

Upholding the red, white and blue.

VI. Like Baker's brave soldier's undaunted,

May it now and forever be said,

That none but brave hearts are wanted,

In the ranks of the Keystone brigade.

VII. In armies of mighty battalions,

Our true sons are marching so brave,

They are marching to crush out rebellion,

They are fighting, their country to save.

First Lieutenant McIntosh, of the Fifth Regular Cavalry, has been appointed Colonel of the Third Pennsylvania Cavalry, vice Col. Averill, also promoted.

AN ORDINARY STAGE COACH, running from Washington city to Leonardtown, Va., was stopped and searched the other day, as it was about to leave Washington, when a large rebel mail was captured, which implicates many prominent citizens of conveying information to the traitors at Richmond. About $500 in medicine was also seized in the same coach.

MILITARY RELIEF FUND.—The regular monthly payment will be made on Friday afternoon 21st inst., at the Sheriff's office, from four until six o'clock.

The recipients will please attend punctually as there will be no more payments made at the residence of the secretary.

GEORGE BERGNER, Pres.

OLIVER EDWARDS, Sec'y.

IT IS PROPER to explain to the people that copper cents, nickel cents and three-cent pieces are all of them of much less intrinsic value than the sum they represent, and that, consequently, the hoarding of them is unwise and injudicious. There must be an erroneous idea on this point prevalent in the community, or this currency would not have been withdrawn from circulation; and unless this idea can be corrected, the free supply of the new postal currency will not entirely do away with the use of the old postage stamps, as change of smaller denomination than five cents must still be had and be used to considerable extent.

WHISKY AND NEWSPAPERS.—A glass of whisky is manufactured from perhaps a dozen grains of corn, the value of which is too small to be estimated. A pint of this mixture sells for one shilling, and if, of a good brand, is considered well worth the money. It is drunk in a minute or two—it fires the brain, sharpens the appetite, deranges and weakens the physical system. On the same sideboard upon which this delicious beverage is served lies a newspaper. It is covered with half a million of types—it brings intelligence from the four quarters of the globe. The newspaper costs less than the glass of grog—the juice of a few grains of corn; but it is no less strange than true that there is a large portion of the community who think corn juice cheap and the newspaper dear!

THIRD PENNSYLVANIA HEAVY ARTILLERY.—We notice that Maj. George D. Hand has just issued a call for men for the Third Pennsylvania Heavy Artillery, offering the most superior inducements for recruits. This branch of the service is decidedly the most preferable, notwithstanding all departments and branches of the army now offer fields in which any man of true mettle and patriotic devotion can immortalize himself by serving his country. We can recommend our friends to the Third Artillery. It is to be organized in a manner at once effective and complete. Its officers are all men—soldiers of experience, who know how to require all that is due to themselves (which few officers lack in knowledge) and render all that is due to those under their commands, (which few officers are willing to accord,) and therefore the organization must attract the best of the dauntless men who are now anxious to serve their country with those who know how to lead as well as command.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—At the suggestion of the Pastoral Association of Harrisburg, a number of Sunday School Superintendents and other friends of Sunday Schools who were in attendance at the annual meeting of the Dauphin county Bible Society, assembled in the Presbyterian church at Dauphin, on the 18th of November, 1862, and organized a Sunday School Convention, by calling to the chair Rev. T. H. Robinson, of Harrisburg, and appointing Geo. H. Brubaker, of Millersburg, Secretary.

The object of the meeting, which called attention to the resolutions adopted by the Pennsylvania Sunday School Convention assembled in Philadelphia in May last, urging upon friends of Sunday Schools throughout the State, to establish county organizations for the purpose of becoming acquainted with each other, and encouraging each other in their great and good work; of ascertaining the number of children within their bounds that have not yet been gathered into the regular Sabbath School instruction.

After considerable discussion of the general subject, which was participated in by Hon. A. O. Hiest, Messrs. Brubaker, Robinson, Collier, Martz, Eberhart, Fenn, Kay, Torrence, Laverty and others, the following resolution, offered by Theo. Fenn, Esq., was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Superintendents of the Sunday Schools of the several denominations of Christians of the city of Harrisburg, be a committee to correspond with the Superintendents of all the Sabbath Schools in Dauphin county, and to call on or converse with all persons who are not gathered into the instruction of the Sunday School cause, at some suitable time and place, for the purpose of effecting a county organization of the same, in conformity with the recommendation of the late State Sunday School Convention held in Philadelphia.

Theo. Fenn and Rev. T. H. Robinson were appointed to inform the gentlemen of the above named committee of their appointment, and the duties the Convention devolved upon them. The Convention adjourned sine die.

Geo. W. BRUBAKER, Sec'y.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—Among the many improvements lately made in our city, to which we can point with pride as an evidence of prosperity and as a determination on the part of our business men, no longer to remain behind the "light house," is the completion of Eby & Kunkle's large brick building at the corner of Market and Fifth streets, which is alike creditable to the owners and ornamental to that part of our city.

The building is not only one of the largest, devoted to the grocery business, outside of New York, but the stock challenges competition.—Without going into detail, we may safely say that the firm keep on hand everything usually kept in a grocery store, (liquors excepted,) and that they sell at very small profits. Their clerks are civil and accommodating, and have strict instructions under no circumstances whatsoever to misrepresent or take advantage of any customer. A general invitation is extended to the public to visit the new building and examine the extensive stock, whether they purchase or not.

W. B. KUNKLE, Proprietor.

HOUSEKEEPERS will find Burnett's Cooking Extracts an agreeable and economical assistant in their labors. They have the endorsement of the first Hotels in the States and Canada.

To the Afflicted.

The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates. I have also on hand a quantity of invaluable Salves for Sore Eyes, Frozen Feet and Piles. References can be furnished as to their wonderful efficacy, whenever called upon. There need be no apprehension in regard to my competency to administer it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them overnight. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front. (no18-dlm) MRS. L. BALL.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3, 1862.

Mrs. Ball.—I feel no hesitancy in acknowledging the virtue of your medicine, its soothing influence and healing power. For several years I was afflicted with dyspepsia, and during my stay in Harrisburg you cured me in the short space of one month, of that annoying and distressing disease, and at the same time also cured me of a running scrofula, which had existed for over one year without ceasing. During my years of affliction, I applied frequently to doctors of medicine, but they proved ineffectual. I have the utmost confidence and belief in the power of your medicine, and would say to those afflicted, who wish to enjoy life in its natural element, with a system renewed to vigorous nature, to try your medicine as I did.

Yours truly,
GEO. J. MCNEERY,
54 North Eighth Street, Philadelphia.

[Extract from a letter on the Battle Field.]

This battle (Antietam) has been the most sanguinary of the war, and the only one fought with visible design and upon military principles. The arrangement of our corps—the overlooking position of the commanding General—the sending into action of the right and the left division—the closing up of the centre, and final success—excites bewildering admiration, and carries the mind to the great fields of Austerlitz and Wagram, fought by Napoleon. Of all this have I spoken. The heart history of such a conflict, purchased by the life and blood of twenty thousand men, must be found in the hospitals. War has its glories—but it has its ten thousand demons in these human tortures, that make the eyeballs ache—the heart bleed—the lips pale, and the brain reel. The sight is at first positively unendurable. The life-blood of some is still trickling away in silent calmness—while the dismembered limbs and mangled brains of others give rise to sounds God grant I may not again witness.

But ye mothers who here seek a son—or wives a husband—or sisters a brother—or sons a father—know and be consoled that even here the hand of mercy is watchful, and better care is bestowed upon your loved ones than might at first seem possible. It was in the hospital where rested the gallant Hooker, that I learned the history of those mythical words so often seen and so little understood, "S. T.—1860—X." Anything alleviating the sufferings and saving the lives of our soldiers, is a national blessing. I witnessed some astonishing results from this article.

It is well known the effect of burnt gunpowder and excitement is thirst, which added to the loss of blood in the wounded, creates the necessity of a reviving stimulant. In this particular hospital, the physicians were allowed their patients to drink Plantation Bitters, otherwise called S. T.—1860—X, and although the wounded are most numerous here—this division having opened the fight at 5 in the morning—the men were mostly composed, and there was very little fainting. The article acts upon the stomach and nerves in a most incomprehensible manner, superior to brandy, and without subsequent stupefying reaction. It originated in the West Indies, composed of the celebrated Callays Bark, Roots, Herbs, &c.; all preserved in St. Croix Rum—the S. T.—1860—X being a secret ingredient, not revealed to the public. It is principally recommended for want of appetite, disordered liver, intermittent fevers, stomachic difficulties, &c. I understand it was somewhat known in the Southern States prior to the war, and it appears an agent of Jefferson Davis recently applied to make it for hospital purposes during the war, to which they made the following reply:

New York, Jan. 16th, 1862.

Dear Sir.—In reply to your communication, offering us "Fifty thousand dollars for the recipe and right to make the Plantation Bitters for your hospital purposes during the war," we beg to say, your price is a liberal one, considering it would cost us nothing to comply, and that otherwise we can derive no revenue from the Southern States; but sir, our duties to our Government and our ideas of consistency would not allow us to entertain it, although it might please us to assuage the sufferings of your misguided followers.

We remain,
Very respectfully yours,
P. H. DRAKE & CO.

These gentlemen give the history of certain ingredients to their article for over two hundred years—showing that through all changes of the medical profession and its practitioners, strength, composure and cheerfulness have been derived from these sources. Dr. Woods in the Washington Hospitals informed me that one patient was fast sinking and crazy, and had not slept an hour for two weeks, until the Plantation Bitters came to his knowledge, when one day's trial gave him a night's rest, and he was now fast recovering. I am surprised our Government has not equalled Jefferson Davis in energy, and adopted this invaluable article in all our hospitals. The weak soldiers cling to it like a brother. As a lay member, I can bear witness it is "good to take," and affords more energy and life than anything I ever tried. Success to the Plantation Bitters.

But I have digressed. In my next I shall speak of gathering in the wounded, burying the dead, &c. NICODEMUS.
