HARRISBURG, PA.

Saturday Afternoon, November 22, 1862.

The sum of $2,600 is daily converted into nickle at the Philadelphia mint.

Rev. JAMES COLDER will preach in the Lutheran Chapel, corner of State and Fourth Streets, to-morrow evening at the usual hour.

TO DAY we could look aloft, and be greeted with a slight of the beautiful blue instead of a horrid black and cloudy sky, such as we were overcast with during the past week.

Rev. A. R. JONES, of the Wyoming Conference, will preach next Sabbath, in the Ridge Avenue M. E. Church, at 10 A. M. and 7 P. M.

Gov. CURTIN was unable to leave the Executive Mansion part of yesterday and to-day, on account of sickness. While he is not seriously indisposed, the over-work of his Department and the daily augmenting duties and responsibilities of his position, are sufficient to rack a man of iron nerves.

RAILROAD FARE INCREASED.—The Secretary of War has decided that, under the tax law, Railroad Companies have a right to add three per cent. to their charges for transportation of passengers, under their agreement with the War Department, thus increasing the rate from two cents to 2 1/2 cents per mile.

"THE EVENING HOUR," "Her Bright Smile Haunts Me," "Eranic," solo from the Opera, and "The Hour for Thee and Me," are the titles of some of the pieces of new music just received at Knoche's Music store, 93 Market street.

WORK FOR THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—Including the stock already arrived at Pittsburg, and that which is on the way over the different western railroads, it is estimated that there are fifteen hundred car loads of cattle now waiting transportation east over the Pennsylvania railroad.

THANKSGIVING.—The Governors of the following States have recommended Thursday, Nov. 27, to be observed as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer: Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Vermont, California, Oregon, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Rhode Island, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Wisconsin, Iowa, Michigan and Western Virginia.

MAJOR JORDAN.—From information received in this city from Col. Ludlow, commissioner on the part of the United States Government for the exchange of prisoners, we learn that Major Jordan will be exchanged with the officers of the Fifty-fourth Pennsylvania Regiment, and he may therefore be expected in this city in a very few days.

THOSE who did not purchase a turkey this morning, as a donation to one of the two committees who are preparing to give the soldiers in the hospitals in Camp Curtin and within the city limits a Thanksgiving Dinner, will have only one more chance to do so. Wednesday morning will afford them this last opportunity. Let it not be said that while we are making merry and rendering sincere thanks on the occasion referred to, that the sick and wounded soldiers are in want for a single article of food that will cheer and enliven them on Thanksgiving Day.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH.—It will be gratifying to many friends in Harrisburg, who have contributed towards the erection of the Baptist church edifice, to know that the audience chamber is now completed.

The congregation design to finish the interior of the building the ensuing spring. The audience chamber will be dedicated on Monday evening, the 24th inst., the exercises commencing at 7 1/2 o'clock.

A discourse, appropriate to the occasion, will be preached by Rev. Warren Randolph, of Germantown. On Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock, a discourse will be preached by Rev. Reuben Jeffrey, D. D., of Philadelphia.

The Pennsylvania Baptist Convention will hold its thirty-fifth annual meeting with the Baptist church of this place, commencing on Tuesday, Nov. 25th, at 2 o'clock.

The opening discourse will be preached by Rev. W. S. Wood, pastor of the church. Ministering brethren of other denominations and the citizens of Harrisburg generally, are cordially invited to attend.

NINE THOUSAND SOLDIERS are employed in the hospital service of the United States army.

COMMISSIONER Boutwell has decided that an apothecary's license covers all articles usually sold by apothecaries except spirituous liquors and tobacco.

TWENTY of the drafted men of Montour county absolutely refuse to submit to the draft, and have so far defied the efforts of the Marshal to induce them to yield to the law.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.—On the 29th ult., Wm. Stonebreaker, a citizen of Bayne township, Indiana county, was instantly killed by the falling of a tree. He was engaged in gathering the bag to have the corn thrown into it, a tree, near by, fell out of root, and he was struck on the back of his head by it, killing him instantly, while the person assisting him escaped unhurt.

RAILROAD ELECTION.—The annual election for President and Directors for the Hempfield railroad, took place in Washington, Pa., on Monday. The annual report was read and adopted, after which the stockholders elected C. M. Reed, Esq., of Washington, President, and Joseph Henderson, Wm. McKennon, of Washington county, and James C. Clark, of Westmoreland county, and S. Brady, T. Sweeney, and J. C. Achenson, of Wheeling, Directors. The meeting then adjourned.

NOVEMBER TWENTY-FIRST was the festival of the patron saint of music, St. Cecilia.—This saint was a Roman lady who lived and suffered martyrdom in the early part of the third century. So skillful was she in singing that she has for centuries been regarded as the patron saint of music, and several churches were built in her honor in Rome. St. Cecilia was a favorite subject with the old painters, and inspired Raphael with one of his divinest conceptions—the celebrated picture of the saint in the gallery at Bologna.

STOICISM.—A man named Richard Sproats, residing in the vicinity of Washington, Pa., committed suicide on Wednesday morning by hanging. The deceased was a single man, between the ages of thirty-five and forty years, and resided on his father's farm. A short time previous he had sold a lot of grain and some hogs at a figure which he subsequently found was too low, and this had given him considerable trouble. He was discovered suspended by the neck, in the stable, near his father's residence, and the only cause assigned for the act is that above alluded to. Animals in human shape are better out than in the world.

THE ROBBERIES AT HERR'S HOTEL.—The following note from the proprietors of Herr's Hotel, fixes the amount of property and money purloined by the burglars who have been reported to work in that establishment:

Mr. Local Editor of Telegraph: As exaggerated stories prevail regarding the losses sustained by the recent robbery at Herr's Hotel, we beg leave to inform you that the entire amount stolen amounted to but two hundred dollars in money and three gold watches. Please make the correction in your paper, and oblige. COYLE & HERR.

TWO HUNDRED dollars in money and three gold watches is pretty good at one haul, and we think, requires no exaggeration. A TERRIBLE DEATH.—Joseph Kellerman and family, who immigrated from Bedford county to Anderson county, Kansas, about four years ago, were again proceeding further west, when they were overtaken by prairie fires, which consumed him and his wife and two little boys. They had resided in Anderson county until about the 80th of October last, when they started for a point some fifty miles west of their late residence. They were overtaken when they were about ten miles out and everything on or belonging to their wagon, was devoured. Three of the older children were driving the cattle and succeeded in escaping this horrible end. The fates of this terrible death were communicated to the Bedford Inquirer.

STRIKING THEM FROM THE ROLL.—The secret Provost Marshalls of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, are procuring the names of every officer who they notice lounging in the rum shops, gambling halls, and side walks of those cities, which are immediately forwarded to Washington city, and there, when found to be absent without leave, or having absented themselves over a period fixed, such officers are at once stricken from the army lists. One hundred have already been stricken from the lists, and their names are shortly to be published. We suggest to the government immediately to detail an officer to inspect the absentees who are strutting in this city. It is currently reported that some of our rum shops, gambling dens and bawdy houses would afford the material for a splendid report to the War Department.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—A Word for the Poor.—Thursday next will be Thanksgiving Day in this State, as recommended by Gov. Curtin, and we notice that the cities and towns surrounding us, who have hospitals in their midst, are making extensive preparations to give the sick and wounded soldiers a generous entertainment of the good things of the land on that day. While the ladies of Harrisburg are endeavoring to provide for the sick and wounded soldiers, let them not forget that we have others in our midst beside the sick and wounded soldiers who are worthy of some consideration and contribution to render them happy on Thanksgiving Day. We have here the families of the absent soldier. Mothers with their little ones, who must not be suffered to go uncheered on Thanksgiving Day. We have the poor, too, pining in penury, whose hearts should be lifted up on Thanksgiving Day. We should therefore seek out those whose wants are pressing, and endeavor to lighten their burdens and cheer them on the approaching festive occasion. We should remember the precept "that it is more blessed to give than to receive." If we all act upon this precept we can enjoy our blessings with more zest—we will feel freer and better in the consciousness that we have done a good deed.

SPECIAL NOTICES. MILITARY BUSINESS, Of all kinds attended to. EUGENE SNYDER, Attorney-at-Law, Office: Third Street, Harrisburg, Pa. [o271y.]

To the Afflicted. The undersigned would respectfully inform those who are afflicted with Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Consumption of Liver and Kidney, Coughs, Fevers, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, that she is prepared to furnish Mrs. Westhoven's German Vegetable Medicines at very moderate rates. I have also on hand a quantity of invaluable Salves for Sore Eyes, Frozen Feet and Piles. References can be furnished as to their wonderful efficacy, whenever called upon. There need be no apprehension in regard to my competency to administer it, as I have had it on hand for the past six years. As they are now sold at reduced prices, no family should be without them over night. They can be had at any time at my residence, in Pine street, between Second and Front. (an13-dlm) MRS. L. BALL.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3, 1862. Mrs. Ball.—I feel no hesitancy in acknowledging the virtue of your medicine, its soothing influence and healing power. For several years I was afflicted with dyspepsia, and during my stay in Harrisburg you cured me in the short space of one month, of that annoying and distressing disease, and at the same time also cured me of a running scrofula, which had existed for over one year without ceasing.—During my years of affliction, I applied frequently to doctors of medicine, but they proved ineffectual. I have the utmost confidence and belief in the power of your medicine, and would say to those afflicted, who wish to enjoy life in its natural element, with a system renewed to vigorous nature, to try your medicine as I did. Yours, truly, GEO. J. MCCREERY, 54 North Eighth Street, Philadelphia.

S-T-1860-X. The language of nature and experience demonstrates that whoever would enjoy the pleasures of food—the beauties of landscape—the joys of companionship—the richness of literature—or the honors of station and renown—must preserve their health. The stomach is the receptacle of all nourishment, and the fountain from which all parts of the body derive sustenance. The effect of foul injurious food, entering the stomach, is to derange the digestive organs, and produce headache, loss of appetite, unrefreshed sleep, febrile breath, loss of spirits, feverish burning, constipation, incapacity to perform any mental or physical duty, &c., and are the symptoms of that horrid disease DYSPEPSIA.

Which assumes a thousand shapes, and points towards a miserable life and premature decay. The Medical Faculty has labored for generations to discover reliable appetizers and the proper means of overcoming stomachic derangements. Certain ingredients have been long known as partially effective. Among these were CALISAYA BARK & ST. CROIX RUM. An invalid physician, sojourning in the tropical island of St. Croix, observing the habits of the natives, gathered the recipe for the final accomplishment of this most important end. The article was first used as a private medicine, when its salutary effects becoming known, it was brought out under the name of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS.

They act with unerring power, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage. They perform most wonderful cures in stubborn cases of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Intermittent Fevers, Diarrhoea, Sour Stomach Headache, Fever and Ague, Weakness, Mental Depreciacy, &c. As a morning appetizer and after dinner tonic, they should be in every family. They are a delightful, exhilarating stimulant, without any subsequent stupefying reaction. IMPORTANT CERTIFICATE. "ROCHESTER, December 28th, 1861. Messrs. P. H. Drake—Gentlemen:—I have suffered terribly with Dyspepsia for three or four years, and tried many remedies without effect. I had to abandon my profession, and suffered greatly from everything I ate. I have now tried the Plantation Bitters—they helped me—I continued their use, and am now nearly well—I know of several similar cases. Respectfully yours, Rev. J. S. CATRON."

S. T.—1860—X. Intelligent persons and physicians can judge of the efficacy of the Plantation Bitters from the following partial formula. CASCARILLA BARK Was known and used in Germany for Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhoea, Cholera, Dysentery, and diseases of the Stomach and Bowels, as early as 1690. DANDELION. For Inflammations of the Lungs and Spleen in Dropsical Affections and Biliary Secretions, or Obstructions of the Abdominal Viscera. CALISAYA, OR KING'S BARK. Was known to civilization until the middle of the 17th century. Humboldt makes favorable mention of the febrifuge qualities of this article as an Antidote to Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Malarial Fevers, and its extensive South American travels. The Countess, wife of the Viceroy of Peru, having experienced the beneficial effects of this Bark, sent it to Europe in 1640. It was sold by the Jesuits for the enormous sum of its own weight in silver, and was thus called Jesuits' Powder. In 1658, Sir John Talbot employed it with great success in France, in the treatment of Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Debility, and Palpitation of the Heart, Diarrhoea, &c., under the name of English Powders; and in 1679, he sold the secret of its origin to Louis XIV, by whom it was divulged. It is now a standard remedy in all Pharmacoopsia, and is employed in preparing the Plantation Bitters. Chamomile Flowers, for enfeebled digestion; Winter-green, valuable for Scrofula, Rheumatism, and Nervic Affections; Lemoner Flowers, aromatic stimulant and tonic, highly invigorating in Nervous Debility; Anise, an aromatic carminative, creating flesh, muscle and milk. Much used in nursing.

S. T.—1860—X. Another ingredient of remarkable and wonderful virtue used in the preparation of these Bitters, is a native of Brazil, and as yet unknown to the commerce of the world. A Spanish writer says: "administered with St. Croix Rum, never fails to relieve nervous tremor, wakefulness, disturbed sleep, &c., and that it is used with great effect by the Brazilians, Spanish and Peruvian Ladies to heighten their color and beauty. It imparts cheerfulness to the disposition, vigor to the appetite, and brilliancy to the complexion." We withhold its name from the public for the present. To the above are added Clove Buds, Orange, Caraway, Coriander, Snake Root, &c., all prepared in perfectly pure ST. CROIX RUM. The tonic properties of St. Croix Rum, and its powerful invigorating effects, have been long known to the physicians of the world. Bilious, Intermittent and Chill Fevers, engendered by the change of water and diet of travelers, particularly upon western rivers, are prevented and cured by the Plantation Bitters. They are also reliable to prevent sea sickness.

WHAT OTHERS SAY. PHILADELPHIA, 1st month, 16th day, 1862. "I REMEMBERED FRIEND.—Wilt thou send me another dozen of thy Bitters? Nothing has proven so beneficial to my invalid wife or myself, as the Plantation Bitters. Thy friend, ISAAC HOWLAND." The friend, ISAAC HOWLAND. N. B.—The secret of the immense sale of the Plantation Bitters, is their guaranteed purity. The St. Croix Rum, and every article used, is warranted perfectly pure, and the money will be returned if not as represented. The Plantation Bitters are put up in unique quart bottles, and sold by all respectable Druggists, Grocers, Hotels and Restaurants throughout the world. Be particular that every bottle bears the fac-simile of the Proprietor's signature. P. H. DRAKE & CO. 202 Broadway, N. Y. nov4 wed sat sunday
