'HE language of nature and experience de monstrates, that whoever would enjoy the pleasures of food—the beauties of landscap the joys of companionship—the richness of lit erature—or the honors of station and renown must preserve their health.

The stomach is the receptacle of all nourish ment, and the fountain from which all parts of the body, derive sustenance. The effect of foul injurious food entering the stomach, is to de range the digestive organs, and produce headache loss of appetite, unrefreshed sleep, facted breath, low spirits, feverish burnings, constipation, incapacity to perform any mental or physical duty, &c., and are the symptoms of that horrid disease DYSPEPSIA

"ROCHESTER, December 28th, 1861. Mesers. P. H. DRAKE. - Gentlemen :- I have suffered terribly with Dyspepsia for three or four years, and tried many remedies without effect. I had to abandon my profession, and suffered greatly from everything I ate. I have now tried the Plantation Bitters-they helped me—I continued their use, and am now nearly a well man. I know of several similar cases.

Respectfully yours, Rev. J. S CATHORN." S. T.—1860—X. Intelligent persons and physicians can judge of the efficacy of the Plantation Bitters from the following partial formula.

CALISAYA, OR KING'S BARK, Was unknown to civilization until the middle of the 17th century. Humboldt makes favora-ble mention of the febrifuge qualities of this article as an Antido:e to Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Malarious Fevers, in his extensive South American travels. The Countes wife of the Viceroy of Peru, having experience the beneficial effects of this Bark, sent it to Europe in 1640. It was sold by the Jesuits for the enormous sum of its own weight in silver, and was thus called Jeaurrs' Powder. In 1658, Sir John Talbot employed it with great success in France, in the treatment of Fever and Ague Dyspepsia, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Weakness and Debility, Palpitation of the Heart, Diarrhees, &c., under the name of Eng-lish Powders; and in 1679, he sold the secret of its origin to Louis XIV, by whom it was divulged. PENNSYL VANIA SS: In the Name and by the Authority OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, ANDREW G. CURTIN, GOVERNOR OF THE SAID COMMONWEALTH.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, It is a good thing to render thanks unto God for all His mercy and loving kind-

Therefore, I, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do recommend that THURSDAY, THE 27th DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, be set apart by the people of this Commonwealth, as a day of solemn Prayer and Thanksgiving to the Almighty:—Giving Him humble thanks that He has been graciously pleased to protect our free institutions and Government, and to keep us from sickness and pestilence—and to cause the earth to bring forth her increase, so that our garners are choked with the harvest—and to look so favor-ably on the toil of His children, that industry has thriven among us and labor had its reward; and also that He has delivered us from the hands of our enemies—and filled our officers and men in the field with a loyal and intrepid spirit, and given them victory—and that He has poured out upon us (albeit unworthy) other great and manifold blessings :-Beseeching Him to help and govern us in His steadfast tear and love, and to put into our minds good desires, so that by His continual help we may have a right judgment in all

And especially praying Him to give to Christian churches grace to hate the thing which is evil, and to utter the teachings of truth and righteousness, declaring openly the whole counsel of God :-

And most heartily entreating Him to bestow upon our civil rulers, wisdom and earnestness in council, and upon our military leaders. zeal may be quenched—that we, being armed with His defence, may be preserved from all perils, and that hereafter our people, living in peace and quietness, may, from generation to genera-tion, reap the abundant fruits of His mercy, and with joy and thankfulness praise and mag-nify His holy name.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this Twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the Commonwealth the eighty seventh. A. G. CURTIN.
