THE POST OFFICE.—The Post Office will be open to-morrow from six to half past eight in the morning, and from three to four o'clock in the afternoon.

GRAND DRESS BALL.—The first of the season, at Brand's Hall, this evening, promises to be a highly pleasant and popular re-union of the youth and beauty of the city.

POULTRY THIEVES.—Several of our friends and neighbors, who had been feeding gobblers and hens for the usual Thanksgiving dinner, to-morrow, were surprised this morning to find their stock gone—carried off by thieves.

FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING.—By reference to an advertisement in another column, it will be seen that Messrs. Shellenberger & Bro., have just opened a very extensive assortment of Fall and Winter clothing at their establishment, No. 80 Market street.

TWO IMPORTANT ORDINANCES.—We print today two very important city ordinances, both of which are worthy of the consideration of every good citizen.

With thankful hearts to Thee we raise, O God, our song of grateful praise; Revolving orb and rolling sphere, Have brought us to our annual year.

The earth, its bounties pouring forth, Of fruits and grains of richest worth, A providential care proclaim— O, render thanks to God's great name.

No plagues with dire disease assail Our healthful frames, nor yet prevail, The ill and pains of life decay— Receive, O God, our thanks, we pray.

Almighty Lord, our Father, God, O spare us from Thy chastening rod; Our nation's sins, O Lord, forgive; Grant us again in peace to live.

May strife be banished from our land— May those who war, like brothers stand, In firm accord, in firm array, Our nation's hope and certain stay.

Through all the land let thanks ascend To God, indulgent, kindest friend; Through all the land to God let's pray That war's red hand no more may slay.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—We direct attention to the change of time for running passenger trains over the new Air Line Route to Philadelphia and New York via the Lebanon Valley railroad.

MORE COUNTERFEITS.—We understand that the counterfeiters were busy at work this morning at Market, passing counterfeit $5 notes on the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, Philadelphia.

ESCAPE OF ASSISTANT SURGEON POLLOCK.—We understood yesterday morning, that Assistant Surgeon Pollock, who is charged with having issued a large number of false exemption papers, has managed to make his escape.

A NATURAL CURIOSITY.—We visited a short time ago a remarkable cave which was lately opened on the farm of Adam Hocker, about one mile east of Hummelstown.

THE ORIGIN OF THANKSGIVING DAY.—The origin of fixing a particular occasion of setting apart a day for general thanksgiving to God, is puritanical.

THE CATHOLIC RITUAL WILL OF COURSE BE FILLED, and the usual religious exercises be had in respect for the occasion, but we have not been able to learn whether the regular priest in charge would officiate, or the pulpit be occupied by a stranger.

REV. SHOOKER WILL DELIVER A DISCOURSE APPROPRIATE to the occasion from the pulpit of the Fourth street Bethel church.

REV. GREGG WILL OCCUPY THE PULPIT of the Ridge Avenue Methodist church. This pastor is doing much good in that neighborhood, a result of the testimony of his zeal in religious works, and the power of the truth he proclaims.

THE GIRLS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Fourteen young women of Brentwood, New Hampshire, went a few nights since to the house of an aged farmer who had sent three sons to the war, and husked one hundred bushels of corn for him.

HOW TO CURE A FLEA.—When one of these painful torments appears on the hand, says an exchange, apply a piece of rennet soaked in milk to the affected part, and renew the application at brief intervals, until relief is found.

LAST NIGHT OF THE DRAMATIC COMPANY AT SAMFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—This Company under the management of Mr. R. Johnston take their leave of us after to-morrow night, and we must say we are really sorry, for during their stay amongst us we have passed many a pleasant hour in witnessing their performance, although they have presented only the lighter portions of the drama, all that they have done has been done well.

THE PULPIT ON THANKSGIVING DAY.—From what we can learn, indirectly through those best capable of knowing, the sermons of the different pastors, to-morrow, will not alone discuss the topics usual to the pulpit, though we have no right to announce that the discourses in contemplation will depart from what is appropriate to the pulpit.

REV. FRANK MOORE WILL OCCUPY THE METHODIST PULPIT. Few pulpit orators in this country have acquired a brighter reputation for fervency, lore and eloquence, than Rev. Moore.

REV. ROBINSON WILL DISCOURSE FROM THE N. S. PRESBYTERIAN PULPIT. The piety and patriotism of this reverend gentleman, added to his genius and learning, make him rank very high among the men who are steadily laboring for the purity of government and the good of mankind.

REV. HAY WILL PREACH FROM THE LUTHERAN PULPIT. In this city no other man has labored more steadily or earnestly for the achievement of what he conscientiously deems right.
