A CORRESPONDENT informs us that the patriotic soldier, Smith, of razor-strop notoriety, is enlisted in the 140th N. Y. regiment, instead of an Illinois regiment, as published a day or two ago.

COUNCILMAN IN THE SIXTH WARD. -The copperheads are sore and testy on the subject of the Councilman of the Sixth ward. The Tory Organ this morning alleges that the "Abolitionists" seemed over-anxious to get might be elected in his place. Now, the facts new election to fill the vacancy created by the removal of their representative from that ward.

War brought to a speedy close, the Rebellion quelled, and the Union, prosperity and happiness of the Country restored.

In our advertising columns will be found fill the vacancy created by the removal of crochetted mittens, wrought up the odds and Wm. Morris from said ward.

A NEW disease termed the "Idaho fever," has appeared in various places. The principal symptoms are a love of gold and a desire to travel towards the Rocky Mountains. The Idaho mines are said to yield an abundance of "filthy lucre," but we would not advise any one to risk the trouble and expense of a trip for all money they will be enabled to obtain DEPARTED. -The Fifty-fifth Pennsylvania regiment left here on Saturday evening—their destination being the South. The regiment, which has had its ranks filled with recruits, is commanded by Colonel Dick White. Captain Waterbury's company is connected with the Fifty-fifth. A large crowd witnessed their departure. May these brave men all return when "this cruel war is over."

DISORDERLY. -Between eleven and twelve clock on Saturday night, a fight occurred between a party of soldiers and others, in Raspberry alley, between Market and Chestnut streets in which stones, brick, mud, fists, &c., were freely used, and one or two of the parties badly disfigured. The noise created by the men engaged in the muss dis-. turbed the citizens of the neighborhood, and the language, cursing, etc., issuing from walking lager beer vessels was disgusting in the extreme. The fight commenced at Milligan's saloon, but it is due Mr. M. to state that he was in no manner connected with the disturbance or the cause of it. There are, however, too many lager beer saloons in that portion of town, and the law-abiding citizens of the neighborhood demand that the nuisance be abated.

Ir crowded houses, and increasing popularity, are gratifying to managers, our friend Rouse, of the Star Combination Company, must be one of the happiest men in the world. It is surprising to witness the success that attends the efforts of the troups to please our citizens. Night after night the capacity of the hall is tested. On Saturday night every seat was filled, and hundreds of persons standing, long before the time for the performance to commence. That excellent two-act drama, The Factory Girl, was repeated, and the members of the Star Company "acted cout" their parts in a manner that could not be excelled. Mr. Jennings never appeared to better advantage than in his personation of Stephen Plum. Mr. Rouse, as Toby Twinkle, was irresistibly funny. Miss Fanny Denham's "Martha Gibbs" was a grand character, and nobly sustained. The other parts were equally well sustained. Should this play be repeated, many who were present on Saturday night will "take a card." and go to the hall. The Two Highwaymen, concluded the entertainment.

To-night two new plays will be produced, viz: Aline, the Rose of Killarney, or the Mother's Prayer; and Jenny Lind. In the former, Miss Josephine Tyson will appear as Aline, Miss Fanny Denham as Lilly Lover, Mr. Jennings as Farmer Sawler, Mr. Rouse as Davey, Mr. Kent as General Blacksin, Mr. Dunn as Mr. Rosselyn, Mrs. Jennings as the Countess of Dunmore, Miss Aglon as Miss Danbigney; other characters by the members of the company. The closing piece (Jenny Lind) is a laughable and musical farce, with a fine cast of characters. Go early.

Sanford's Opera House.—Nothing escapes anford's eye. He is always on the alert for attraction. This week he terms Museum week, introducing curiosities. To-night he presents a Mummy-also personates one himself-one of his most laughable efforts. On Tuesday he gives us the elephant, Van Amburgh, who will be put through his tricks by Sanford, who thoroughly understands training an elephant. Wednesday evening the Eutaw Indians, who will pass through this city on Wednesday, have been secured, and they will go through their Indian war songs and dances. Thursday evening Shakespeare will be murdered, as Sanford will perform King Dick in his way and conception; and so every evening this week will be presented a variety of novelties that no one can resist visiting, as the entertainment is of the highest order of originality and burlesque. But the reigning attraction is in store for next Monday evening. Sanford assures us, as he has been so extensively patronized since his return, that he will give the public something never heretofore exhibited outside of New York and Philadelphia—a scenic pantomime. In order that the machinery may be complete, the whole resources of the Eagle Works are brought in as assistance. The castings, mouldings and revolving scenery are all to be made in this city, the patent being taken from Laura Keene's Seven Sister scene, the "Birth of the Butterfly," so prepare for a LECTURE ON THE PENINSULA CAMPAIGN. - The lecture to be delivered to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, by HENRY M. FLINT, Esq., on the Peninsula Campaign of the Army of the Potomac," is one of no ordinary interest. The Lecturer accompanied Gen. Woodbury, Chief of the Engineer Corps, through the whole campaign-was constantly near the person of the Commanding General, and enjoyed every advantage of witnessing all the incidents of that stirring period of the war. The lecture is a lively, spirited and graphic description of the whole campaign, from the landing of the forces and the siege of Yorktown, down to the withdrawal of the army after the Seven Days' Retreat. The campaign being complete in itself, it is so treated in the Lecture; but it is also viewed as a relative part of the war. The rid of one 'Democrat," in order that another | Object of the campaign is eloquently portrayed; and in the course of the Lecture it is are, that the Democrats of the Sixth ward were themselves the most anxious to get rid of "a foreigner" as their representative in Council, and the leading Democrats in the ward took the lead in these efforts to have a new election to 50 th.

An Appeal to the Little Gibls of Manthe Mayor's proclamation for the election of a RISBURG. - Dear Girls-To all of you whose member of Council from the Sixth ward, to nimble fingers have picked boxes full of lint, ends of various "pieces" into shapely, strong "housewives" for the soldiers, and in every way your warm hearts could devise, have labored to show your love for your country, and desire to help her defenders, to you particularly this appeal is addressed. Have you heard that in June next there is to be a magnificent fair held in Philadelphia, for the benfit of the Sanitary Commission? One of its anticipated attractions is to be a Children's Department, containing all things useful and interesting to children, and to the furnishing of that Department you girls of Harrisburg are most earnestly invited to contribute, both of articles burg. and money.

How shall you raise the means? Let us propose a plan, by citing you an example. The little girls and young people of Norwalk, Ohio, seven months ago wondered "if they could no anything for the soldiers." Determined to try, they formed themselves into an association, called the "Alert Club," and recently sent to the "Central Treasury," of the Sanitary Commission, the sum of $560.12. Their village contained but two thousand inhabitants, and had really no wealthy men in

it. Their plan has been tried throughout different parts of the State of New York with equal success, and why should not the girls of Harrisburg have the honor of organizing the first one in Pennsylvania. You are bound to succeed, if you only go to work in earnest. With so many thousand inhabitants to work upon, so many really rich men who delight in being liberal, (or who should do so at least,) and so many whole-souled patriotic mothers to assist and cheer your offorts, a work far beyond your greatest expectations can cer-tainly be accomplished. Every school in our city can have its "Alert Club." The plan of operating is simple, but complete, involving no expense, but that of thought, energy, affection, and plenty of out-door exercise; an expenditure which will, after awhile, bring you an interest more valuable than the best arithmatician among you can compute. A copy of the "plan" of organizing "Alert Clubs" has been furnished to the teachers of each of your schools. They will doubtless co-operate with you as heartily as they do in all else that concerns your happi-

OUR CLOAR AND SHAWL ROOM.—It is not our intention to lead the artless mind astray or build in imagination untold splendor that would rival the fabulous stories of the Arabian Knights, or the fiction of oriental travelers for do we intend to borrow from the gold that freighted the ship by which Columbus made known to Spain that he had discovered a new world, to gild the unpretending room that C. L. Bowman has just fitted up, especially for cloak, shawls and hoop-skirts; and owing to the quick communication by railroad, cloaks, shawls and skirts that adorned the counter of the manufacturer a few hours since in Boston, New York and Philadelphia, can be purchased herc. And indeed the watchful energy that guides the business of the cheap dry good store, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets, is always on the alert to tap any avenue by which goods can be obtaind less than the regular trade price, so as to give the advantage to the buyer.

C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church. Tagree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Bronchial Troches.
W. C. CATTELL,

Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864. To C. A. BANNVART-Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.,

JNO. WALKER JACKSON. Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART - Dear Sir: Having used your Bronchial Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.
