The Pennsylvania Reserve Corps - Crediting of Pennsylvania Veteran Troops to other States.

The State authorities have been anxiously laboring for the achievement of two great purposes, affecting the interest and the glory of the volunteers of Pennsylvania...

The other object secured by Gov. Curtin during his late visit to Washington, relates to the annoying and unfair practices of other States, in sending agents to the army to tempt veteran Pennsylvania regiments re-enlisting to credit themselves to localities within such States...

Something Practical in the Way of American Representation Abroad.

The diplomacy of the United States has never been in a condition to cope successfully with the diplomats of the old world. Not that we lack in men of accomplishment...

Gov. Bramlette of Kentucky.

We understand that the Executive of Kentucky passed through this city yesterday at noon, on his way to Washington, and expressed himself very decidedly in the determination to carry out his notification to the President...

The Liberty of the Press vs. the Fastidiousness of a Copperhead Legislator.

Were it not for the liberty and independence of the press, and those who control its columns, the liberties of the American people would have long since been invaded and destroyed...

Personal and Political.

The vote of Louisiana for Governor as officially returned, stands: Hahn, 6,158; Fellows, 2,720; Fanners, 1,847. Terrebonne Parish, the returns from which were not received in time to count, would change these totals to: Hahn, 6,171; Fellows, 2,950; Flanders, 2,225. Hahn over both 996; total vote of the State, 11,346.

It is supposed that Franklin Pierce is not so much a candidate for the United States Senate in New Hampshire as he was. It would be well for the ex-President to perfect himself in equestrianism, as, since his experience in Mexico, people have no confidence in his ability, which requires a clear head and a steady hand.

The full returns from New Hampshire will settle the Union majority at about 5,000. The total vote is about 1,300 more than that of last year. The Legislature will probably stand thus: Union—Senate, 9; House, 207. Democrats—Senate, 3; House, 124. Union majority on joint ballot, 89; last year 53. This will do.

The Germans of New York, supported the soldiers' voting measure earnestly. One of them modestly offered two tickets to all who approached with this remark. You take your choice; but the voter, if he examined

THE SILVER SHIP.

Away she sailed—the Silver Ship— The bloodhound at her prow— And high above the howling blast Was heard the pirate's vow! His vow that from his bosom's core Should flow life's crimson tide Ere Ruy Leol, his rival brave, Should call sweet Yola bride!

Another New Story!

NOW READY IN THE NEW YORK WEEKLY.

(THE BEST STORY AND SKETCH PAPER PUBLISHED.)

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY has succeeded, at great expense, in securing the services of one of the greatest of living romance writers, who, for reasons of his own, chooses to write for them not under his proper name, but under the non de plume of

LOUIS LEON.

The fame of this gentleman is world-wide, and it is safe to say that there is hardly a reader of romance on this continent who has not, at one time or another, been charmed by his genius. As a writer of romance, it is not too much to say, that he stands without a superior on either side of the Atlantic.

THE SILVER SHIP.

OR THE BLOODHOUND OF THE CARRIBBEAN.

A SPANISH-AMERICAN STORY.

BY LOUIS LEON.

The tale is historical, and the main incidents are true. The principal characters are CALLOCARAS, the famous pirate, commonly called by the Spanish-Americans of his times, before the proper name was known, El Sabino del Mar Caribe, or the Bloodhound of the Carribean—a title that arose from his
