THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

HARRISBURG, PA.

SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 19, 1864.

The City Election—Its Political Bearings—A Union Triumph.

The Tory Organ proclaims a secesh triumph in the election held in the city yesterday—and we admit that some of the especial friends of rebels have been elected to office by very trifling majorities; but let us examine the facts carefully.

The copperheads have elected their candidates for Council in the First, Second, Third and Fourth wards by small majorities, in the wards where the election was contested. In the First there was no contest, as the candidates on the Union ticket did not even attend the polls to vote.

The Union men elected their candidates for Council in the Fifth and Sixth wards by large majorities.

The Union men also elected their Assessors in the Second, Third, Fifth and Sixth wards, together with a number of the minor officers. The Assessor is the most important and responsible officer, in a political point of view. Upon his action and honesty depend not only the valuation of property, but he controls, also, the right of citizens to vote to a great extent. The friends of the Union had no greater enemies last year than the copperhead Assessors. In many localities they undertook to decide the right of citizens to vote when they offered themselves to be assessed ten days prior to the election. The soldiers in our hospitals were refused to have their names entered on the assessment books, because they were too sick to run after the assessor, and entreat him to have their names entered, in order that the election officers might decide their right to a vote. In other instances the Assessors could not be found at home when Union men went to be assessed, while copperhead names without number were added to the lists by outsiders. We shall now have an honest assessment in at least four of the wards, and the copperheads will have to confine their operations to the First and Fourth wards, where our friends will watch them closely.

We repeat again that the election held yesterday, in the city of Harrisburg and county of Dauphin, was a complete Union triumph, and a fair indication that we can and will carry the same triumphantly next fall. Mr. Wilson's majority has been reduced nearly one hundred, and if our old quiet Republican Union gentlemen had walked to the polls and devoted ten minutes' time to their country and their God, the copperheads would have been very quiet to-day.

Alleged Frauds in the Management of Camps.

Statements having appeared in various journals, published at posts where large camps are located, as to the management of these establishments, and also as to certain wicked and outrageous frauds being perpetrated on the volunteers, Gov. Curtin has determined, if possible, to secure the most thorough investigation of the facts involved. With this determination, His Excellency has asked for the appointment of a board of officers to investigate the facts, to hear the testimony, on oath, of those making these charges, and to bring the whole matter under such a scrutiny as will prevent all possibility of the escape of the guilty parties. Why not refer this matter to Major General Couch, who is now in command in the State? His known stern regard for the welfare, comfort and rights of the soldier, with his impartial and high sense of justice, fit him peculiarly for such a duty. But whoever may be appointed to conduct this investigation, the people will sustain Gov. Curtin in demanding a thorough examination into the alleged frauds, and we trust that the War Department will make no delay in appointing the commission.

Personal and Political.

Lieut. Harvey Benner, of the 45th Regiment P. V., was in our sanctum this morning, to say "good bye" before he left with his command. Lieut. B. entered the service as a private, and has won his present position alone by his gallant conduct. It would be well for the service if all promotions were made on the same principle.

The ages of twelve of the most eminent American literati are enumerated as follows: Brancroft will be 64 years of age the 3d of next October; Motley 50 the 15th of April; Emerson 61 the 25th of May; Bryant 70 the 3d of November; Longfellow was 57 the 27th of February; Whittier will be 57 in December; Holmes 55 the 29th of August; Lowell was 45 in February; Mitchell (Ik. Marvel) will be 42 in April; Curtis was 40 the 24th of February; Stoddard will be 39 in July, and Bayard Taylor was 39 the 11th of January.

Information received from Richmond leads to the general belief that the ostentatious parade by the Richmond papers of the secrecy of Colonel Dahlgren's burial, was so prompted by the cupidity of individuals who anticipate a profitable speculation when the application is made by flag of truce for the remains of the unfortunate young hero.

Theodore Parker writes in his diary for April, 1863: "Went to Medford. Saw Thomas Starr King—capital fellow, only 19. Taught school three years—supports his mother—reads French, Spanish, Latin, Italian, a little Greek, and begins German. He is a good listener."

A lad of fifteen years has been arrested near Mobile by the rebel authorities, who has documents showing him to be a Federal spy. A slip of paper was found concealed in his shirt, bearing the words, "Trust the bearer," and signed General Hurlburt.

An enthusiastic admirer of the Czar was repeatedly saying to a stranger, "The Czar is great." "Yes," was the reply, "but God is greater." "Ah," exclaimed the Russian, "but the Czar is young yet."

There are four brothers in Thorndike, Maine, by the name of Parsons, whose aggregate height is twenty-five feet three inches. The height of each is as follows: 6 feet 1, 6 feet 2, 6 feet 4, and 6 feet 7.

We learn that 500 of our prisoners died at Richmond during the month of February. This must be an exaggeration.

It is said a separate State will be made out of East Tennessee similar to West Virginia.

The order relieving Gen. Meade and appointing his successor will soon be issued.

It is said that the President has adopted measures to enforce the enrollment in Kentucky.

Who Should Select Candidates for High Offices?

There is but one construction to a republican form of government. That construction yields the right to the majority to govern. While it does this, however, it never ignores the right of minorities. But in recognizing the right of minorities, on any question of public policy, it does not follow that such minorities can at any time so control the action of the Government as to bend its powers to their purposes. As it is with the control of the Government, so also is it with parties. Indeed the affinities between a patriotically regulated political party, and a purely administered form of republican government, are the same. Whenever a party organized for a just purpose, yields to the dictation of a few aspiring leaders, it soon loses its cohesive force, to become the embodiment of a few angry factions, whose antagonisms despoil it of principle and of prestige. Thus, too, with government. It is not republican, unless the people have its control; it is not a free government, unless it represents impartially and fairly the rights and the interests of the whole people. The bloody ordeal through which the people are now passing, while engaged in the struggle to rescue the land from rebellion, is daily making these facts plainer to all intelligent communities. The people feel that they have not heretofore governed as they intend to govern hereafter. The business man, the financier, the pioneer of the wilderness, and the creator of new commonwealths, begin to see that they have entrusted the Government too much to the control of mere politicians. How frequently have we heard men, eminent for purity of character and distinguished for vast attainment, declare that they abhorred politics—that they never interfered in the selection of candidates—and on the day of the election, they only vote for the best men. But having waited until the worst men were nominated, their voting for the "best" candidate was merely a choice between two evils. In this manner the government has been wrested from the control of the mass of the people—removed, as it were, from the careful supervision of those who contribute the material for its operation in peace, and peril their lives in its defence when threatened by foreign enemies or domestic foes. The lessons of the hour are happily changing this disposition of supineness on the part of the people, so far as it relates to their participation in the government. The mass of the people are determined to decide not only who shall govern, but they will see to it, hereafter, that those thus called, shall fulfill every obligation which they assume. Public sentiment is now steadily and sternly moving in this direction. Heretofore men called to originate and execute the laws, have arrogated to themselves a higher power, in attempting to control the succession of those who were invested with the brief control of the functions of government. So far, indeed, has this practice been recognized in the past and the present, that it is now a hard task to teach public servants that they are not the masters of the people. The practice of dictating candidates for high officers for the support of the people, as it has been arrogated by those in power, went to such a length, that men robed in the least important authority like he invested with the most exalted power, forget their obligation of duty in their hot haste to achieve control either in a faction or a party. The people have decided that this thing must end here and now. Henceforth the public man who engages in a plot or a plan to dictate a candidate to the people, we care not whether such a public man be a member of Congress, a member of the Cabinet, or the President himself—his presumption will invoke his political damnation. It might have been necessary for a few men twenty years ago, to select candidates for the mass of the people—but that time has gone by, carrying with it into a common grave, the usages and the corruptions of old politicial parties. Members of Congress belonging to the different parties, constituted the bodies to select candidates for President and the Vice President—but such service is no longer required from these gentlemen—and when it is attempted to be forced upon the people, the men thus presuming become extremely obnoxious, while the service itself is highly distasteful to an independent and a free people. Jealous of their franchises—conscious of their power—and convinced of their ability for self-government, the American people will hereafter submit to dictation in no shape whatever. Those whom they call to execute the laws and administer the Government, will be expected to perform that service, and none other. When public servants go beyond this, to engage in schemes for succession in office, that they may make arrangements to monopolize the patronage of the Government, such servants will be certain to provoke the dissatisfaction of the people, as well as incur their most emphatic condemnation. And it is right that the people should thus assert their prerogatives. Too long have they neglected their duty to the Government, by surrendering its treasures to the wasteful consumption of the riotous, and giving up its powers to the perversion of the aspiring and the corrupt. Out of those neglects of the people, has grown a bloody civil war. From the indifference and the absolute negligence of the intelligent masses, have sprung treason and rebellion. But henceforth all these calamities will be avoided and guarded against, by those who uphold a free government, governing!

REPORTED SKIRMISH

MEN FROZEN TO DEATH.

ESCAPE OF THIRTY-ONE UNION PRISONERS.

The Hanging of Union Men.

NEW YORK, March 19.

The steamer Ellen S. Ferry from Newbern, N. C., on the 13th inst., arrived at this port this morning.

There had been a slight skirmish between the enemy and the third New York cavalry, but no serious collision had occurred.

Two of our prisoners were frozen to death on their trip from Richmond to Americus, Ga. Thirty-one escaped from the cars between Branchville and Augusta.

The hanging of fifty-one Union soldiers at Kingston and the reported hanging of several companies of the 2nd North Carolina, who were recently captured by the rebels, has given a fresh start to the enlistment of conscript deserters, who are eager to avenge these atrocities.

THE LATE ELECTION.

PRICE ASSUMES COMMAND OF THE DEPARTMENT OF ARKANSAS.

Concentration of the Union Forces in Texas.

FT. SMITH, ARK., March 19.—The Arkansas election closed last night, having continued three days under the old viva voice system. All the counties north, and about twenty south of the Arkansas river have voted. From ten to fifteen thousand votes are expected.

Old Pap Price has assumed command of the department of Arkansas, and tells his demoralized ragamuffins that he will soon lead them against their cowardly, boasting foes, retrieve their reverses, re-occupy their territories, and ostablish their property and their government. Poor Pap!

The Union men of Texas are concentrating, in anticipation of speedy protection from Gen'l Herron and the column which is moving from this direction.

It has been decided that the army of the frontier shall remain under General Thayer, which leaves General Blunt without command.

All is quiet in the Indian country.

FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.

The Austrians Before Duppell.

AN ATTACK ANTICIPATED.

Copenhagen for the Prosecution of the War.

NEW YORK, March 19.

The steamer City of Baltimore, from Liverpool, with dates to the 5th, and Queenstown to the 7th, arrived this morning. She took the place of the City of Cork.

The Cork papers of the 7th contain a little additional news.

The Morganblat, published at Christiana, says the people of Norway will be grateful to the King for abstaining from war. The Legislature will doubtless approve of this view.

A Copenhagen dispatch, dated on the night of the 5th, says that the Austrians had arrived before Duppell, and an attack on that place was shortly expected; also, that those districts of Schleswig, not occupied by the Austrian and Prussian troops, had elected members of the Danish bessaad.

In Copenhagen all the candidates favorable to the energetic prosecution of the war were elected.

WARSAW, March 6.—An imperial manifesto, advancing the emancipation of the peasants, was solemnly proclaimed to-day.

NEWS FROM ARKANSAS.

Result of the State Election.

ARKANSAS A FREE STATE, &c

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., March 18, 1864.

Partial election returns from eleven counties give more votes than the whole number required by the President's proclamation to replace Arkansas in the Union. The other counties, forty-three in number, will give fully 5,000 votes more. The new State constitution framed by the last convention was almost unanimously ratified, there being so far only one hundred and thirty-seven votes against it. Arkansas is thus declared a free State in the Union by the voluntary action of its own citizens. Governor Isaac Murphy and the whole free State ticket is elected.

Guerrilla bands made violent threats. Nevertheless the citizens were enthusiastic in their determination to vote the State back into the Union, many going to the polls at the risk of their lives. The military authorities used every exertion to protect voters.

News from the Southwest.

DEPARTURE OF AN EXPEDITION FROM VICKSBURG—THE SIXTEENTH ARMY CORPS ON THE MOVE—THE FIGHT AT YAZOO CITY, &C., &C.

CAIRO, March 18, 1864.

The steamer Continental, from New Orleans on the 10th inst., has arrived with the Twelfth Wisconsin and the Eleventh and Fifteenth Iowa Veteran Volunteers. The Twelfth Wisconsin regiment disembarked here, the others go on to St. Louis.

An expedition, composed of three brigades, started from Vicksburg just before the Continental left.

The Sixteenth army corps has left for the South; destination unkown.

Gen. Lee's cavalry, which followed Sherman's expedition on its return, had gone back into the interior.

New Orleans papers of the 10th and Memphis papers of the 16th are devoid of interest.

The Memphis Bulletin of the 11th says an increased revenue tax of two cents per pound, together with the amount of stock on hand and the reported weakness in the northern market has depressed cotton. The market closed last evening with a decline of four cents on previous rates. No sales are reported, but prices may be stated a 60@66c for middling to strictly do. and 62@63c for good middling.

Large quantities of forage are coming into Cairo, and are daily examined by the government inspectors on account of adulteration and inferior quality.

The hospital steamer C. C. Wood, from Vicksburg and Memphis, has arrived with three hundred and forty-nine sick and wounded troops, left yesterday morning for St. Louis. Eight died on the way up, among them Julius Remers, of the Thirty-fifth New Jersey Volunteers, who was buried at Helena.

The estimated force of the enemy in the recent fight at Yazoo City was five thousand men with four pieces of arillery. The Eighth Louisiana (colored) Volunteers lost eighty killed, wounded and missing. The First Mississippi cavalry and the Eleventh regiment thirty. Nine out of eighteen officers of the Eleventh Louisiana were found dead.

The church was valued at $35,000, insured for $10,000.

BANNVART'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES,

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannvart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggist every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON,
Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Bronchial Troches.

W. C. CATTELL,
Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.,

JNO. WALKER JACKSON.
Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: Having used your Bronchial Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, &c., G. G. RAKESTRAW,
Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE,
HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir:—I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers. A. J. HERR

I think I can safely say it is the very best offered to them. It will regulate the whole system; can be taken at any time; no fear need be apprehended in regard to it.
