A DUTCHMAN'S heart-rending soliloquy is described thus: "She loves Shon Mickle so petter as I, because he has got a couple toolers more as I has."

The 50th and 51st Pennsylvania regiments left here yesterday morning—following in the track of the 4th, which left on Saturday morning. Their ranks were full.

POSTAL AFFAIRS.—The post office at Codorus, York county, has been re-established, and George Kraft appointed postmaster. Joseph Pierce has been appointed postmaster at York Furnace, York county, vice Samuel Dittenbaugh, resigned.

A SOLDIER writes that the most useful article that can be sent men in the field is a bunch of woolen yarn and a darning needle to mend their socks. He begs that persons desiring to contribute to the comfort of soldiers should think of this.

COMPLETION OF THE CONNELLVILLE RAILROAD.—Mr. Latrobe, president of the Connellville Railroad Company, advertises for proposals from contractors for the completion of the road from its present terminus in Fayette county, Pa., to Cumberland, Md. See advertisement in another column.

ESCAPE OF A DESERTER.—This morning a guard was sent to the depot to arrest a deserter on one of the trains. On their arrival there, the offender jumped out of one of the car windows, but was subsequently captured. A body of soldiers afterward assaulted the men composing the guard, and during the melee the deserter made his escape.

A DISH-WASHING MACHINE is the invention. It will, among other things, wash knives and forks without wetting the handles. There are so many inventions being introduced into the kitchen for saving labor, that bye-and-bye Bridget will have nothing to do but to keep the machine from going to destruction by neglect, and receiving her wages.

Our citizens should not forget the concert at the Court House, to-morrow evening, for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association. The Association is one of the best institutions in our midst, and if properly sustained, can accomplish an immense amount of good. A fine programme has been prepared, and the concert promises to be one of rare interest. Full particulars can be seen in our advertising columns.

WARNING TO BOYS.—Thursday afternoon George Shook, a son of Mr. Samuel Shook, of New Brighton, was almost instantly killed by an eastward bound train. From the evidence at the inquest it seems he attempted to jump on the cars, and missed his hold and went under, several of the trucks striking him. His right arm was horribly mangled, his neck dislocated, and head much bruised. He lived but two or three minutes after being taken up.

BUGLERS ABOUT.—An attempt was made last night to enter Kahnweiler's store, corner of Second and Walnut streets, by some evil-disposed person or persons, who filed a brass lock off the cellar door. The night was rather cold for such operations. Mr. K. has provided for such customers, and says that any person who may hereafter attempt to enter the store on a cold night, shall receive a very warm reception.

LADIES should never put pins in their mouths. Their lips should be roses without thorns.

THE CANAL BASIN is filled with a large number of old boats, which the canal company are perfectly willing that any person or persons may remove and convert to their own use. The timber of these boats would make excellent fuel, and is well worth the trouble of moving it. We therefore give this notice for the benefit of those interested and in want of fuel in these days of high prices of coal.

THERE was a genuine wedding at the Sanitary fair, in Elmira, on Thursday evening. The happy pair were Mr. William Oliver Brown and Miss Josephine M. Burke, both of Ohio. Rev. Mr. Beecher, of Elmira, officiated. The ceremony took place in one of the churches. Twenty-five cents admission fee was charged, and the proceeds devoted to the Sanitary Commission. The church was crowded.

SANFORD has a fine bill for this evening—which he says is Shakspearean night. Besides a variety of popular songs, &c., by the company, there are several amusing plays, viz: Romeo and Juliet; Break-Neck Act; and the Black Letter Edition of King Dick; or Richard III. In the latter will be introduced the famous battle scene. Sanford's Opera House was so never densely packed on each succeeding evening, as it has been this season. Samuel's reputation for amusing the public is unequalled. Go and see his splendid Opera troupe, which is composed entirely of stars.

GRAND STAR COMBINATION COMPANY.—A splendid legitimate bill will be presented this evening by this large, efficient and popular troupe, offering a treat for the intellectual and a feast for the lovers of fun. This evening will be performed the beautiful play written by the late Rev. James Sheridan Knowles, entitled the "Hunchback." This beautiful dramatic creation is the most popular that has been written by its gifted author, beautiful in its conception, vigorous in its style, moral and elevating in its tone, rich in its humor and absorbing in its developments. To conclude with the delightful comedietta, entitled the "King's Gardner."

NEW FIRM IN THE GROCERY BUSINESS.—The old and popular firm of Wm. Dock, Jr., & Co. having been dissolved by the death of Mr. Dock, the surviving partner, Mr. Josephus Shisler, has connected with himself Mr. Christian S. Frazer, so that the firm will hereafter be known as that of Shisler & Frazer, and the business be conducted as heretofore, at the old stand on Market street. The gentlemen composing the new firm are both men of great energy and courtesy, and will no doubt add largely to the prosperity of the business which they have just assumed. The remaining partner of the old firm, Mr. Shisler, has made for himself a great reputation, and won hosts of friends during his business connection in this city. He and his new partner have our best wishes for their future success.

DOGGEREL LABEL OF THE ADMINISTRATION.—When the Tory Organ cannot manufacture a direct lie to impair the dignity or the influence of the national authorities, it resorts to almost any shift to damage those in power laboring for the suppression of the rebellion. For instance, in Saturday's issue, that sheet contained the following couplet:

More joy Vallandigham in exile feels Than Lincoln with a rable at his heels. Patriot and Union.

A veteran soldier, now in camp Curtin, sought to get a place for the following reply to the choice article, offering to pay for its insertion, but was insultingly refused. Here is what the soldier had written:

More joy the soldier feels to right his country's wrong, Than all the Copperheads who are making songs. Co. R, 51st P. V.

This is proof positive that the scamps who conduct the Tory Organ cannot be hired to print a good word in favor of the Government.

GREAT CENTRAL FAIR OF THE SANITARY COMMISSION, TO BE HELD IN PHILADELPHIA.—All the great cities in the west and the northwest, as well as many in the eastern and middle States, have, under the direction of the U. S. Sanitary Commission, held fairs for the purpose of raising funds to relieve the many wants of the heroes now occupants of the federal hospitals. Desirous to emulate the good which has already been done in this respect, the Women's Pennsylvania Branch of the United States Sanitary Commission have resolved to hold a fair in the city of Philadelphia in the first week of June next. It is expected to make the fair one in which the people of the entire Commonwealth will take an interest, as the object is national, humane and patriotic, and the means derived from the undertaking will be credited to the liberality of Pennsylvania. Already associate managers have been appointed for each county, each of whom are emulous to excel in inducing her own particular county to make the largest possible contributions to this fair. Mrs. David Eyster, of this city, is the lady manager for Dauphin county. Any articles of donation intended for the fair, can either be directed and sent to the Sanitary Commission, 1307, Chestnut street, Philadelphia, or to Mrs. Eyster, in this city.

JENNIE BRENNEMAN'S WEDDING.—On the afternoon of Thursday, in March, 1864, might have been seen a large number of ladies and gentlemen wending their way in carriages to the residence of farmer Brenneman, to attend the wedding of his daughter Jennie, the belle of the surrounding country. The holy ceremony was consummated, and gay, good humor and fun ruled the hour. Jennie and her two bridesmaids were dressed in beautiful violet-colored broadcloth silk, and trimmings of orange blossoms, with gloves in color to match, and in their hand each held a handsome white linen cambric handkerchief, trimmed with lace. Reader, all of these beautiful dry goods were purchased at the cheap store of C. L. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Front and Market street.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC GROUNDS.—A public meeting of the citizens of Harrisburg was held in the court house on Saturday evening, for the purpose of expressing their views in regard to the applicants for the position of superintendent of public grounds. The meeting was called to order by S. S. Child, and,

On motion, VALENTINE HUMMEL, Jr., was chosen president.

The president announced the following gentlemen as VICE PRESIDENTS: Eby Byers, W. W. Boyer, George Dunn, William Sayford, Benjamin Peters, E. S. Zollinger, Jacob Bomberger, William Duncan, Albert Hummel, C. F. Muench, Jno. C. Kunkle, Jacob D. Boas, David Unger, Joseph Strouger, John J. Shonaker, William Parkhill, Sr., Levi Weaver, Sr., Jacob D. Hoffman, Chambers Dubs, Samuel C. Weistling, William H. Kepner, Andrew K. Black, Alfred Slentz, Leonard Cunkle, Wien Forney, J. B. Boyd, Washington Barr, David Crawford, Wm. H. H. Sieg, Jacob Mish, S. W. Myers.

SECRETARIES: Amos W. Young, E. C. Williams, Richard Fleming, Joseph J. Weitzer.

The president stated the object of the meeting, and read the call, when Col. A. J. Herr, was called upon who made a very eloquent speech, stating that we should always take care of the man who perils his life and health on the battle field, and then offered the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, There are two candidates for the position of superintendent of the public grounds, both residents of this city; And whereas, it is just and proper that this community should enunciate in some respectful form preference, as well as its sentiments, in respect to these candidates; therefore

Resolved, That in the exigencies of these times, the principle of selecting for officers of trust and emolument, men who have testified their devotion to their country's cause by the sacrifice of comfort and health, appeals to our patriotism and commends itself to our sympathy.

Resolved, That every sentiment of our hearts—our humanity—our loyalty, should plead trumpet-tongued, in favor of him who amid fire and smoke meets the shocks of war that marks him for life as a cripple; or, who amid the perils and hardships of the camp and the march loses his health so as to be unable to follow his usual avocation.

Resolved, That in Captain Wm. E. Sees, we recognize a man who, rising above selfish considerations, offered his life and laid on the altar of his country all he had in this world—his health—in the glorious cause of Constitutional liberty and universal freedom.

Resolved, That we are strongly, decidedly and firmly in favor of Captain Sees, for the post of superintendent of the public grounds.

Resolved, That our Senator and Representatives be and they are hereby respectfully requested and earnestly urged, to use every honorable means to secure this situation for Captain Wm. E. Sees.

Resolved, That the President of this meeting, with four of Vice President, shall wait upon our Senator and Representative and present them with a copy of the proceedings of this meeting.

Mr. Jacob Houser then made a few remarks in which he stated that our community was also indebted to Capt. Sees for his energies as a fireman, and he hoped the preamble and resolutions would pass.

C. C. Rawt, Esq. and Rev. C. A. Hay, also made some remarks urging the passage of the resolutions, when on motion, the resolution was unanimously adopted.

The meeting then adjourned.

Our Common Schools.—No. 8. From the earnestness with which I have advocated the transfer of the Academy property in Front street, to the city for high school purposes, just on the eve of its being delivered for several years longer into the control of its present worthy incumbent, some persons who do not know who the writer is, might suspect that there was at least some unkindly purpose in the agitation of this question.

Just the reverse is the fact. That excellent teacher and amiable christian gentleman, of whom one of our oldest and most respectable families has reason to be proud, is my warm personal friend, and is the very man, I presume, whom the Board of Controllers would select as principal of the high school that would be established in case this transfer were made. He knows that I have none; but the kindest feeling toward him personally.

Nor am I to be understood as finding fault with the character of the school as now conducted by him. I know enough about the difficulties heretofore encountered by the trustees in keeping the school alive, to make me chary of censure. I have witnessed some very gloomy hours in my history, during the past fifteen years of my trusteeship, and am glad of the opportunity of bearing testimony, rather indeed at second hand, but yet from those who patronize the school and may be presumed to know, that it is very well conducted.

Since the year 1854, however; (it may be proper in this connection to state,) the method of conducting the institution has been entirely changed. In former times the trustees maintained a constant and particular supervision over all the minutiae of the management and administration of its affairs, selecting the books to be used, fixing the price of tuition, appointing the hours for opening and closing the school, classifying the pupils, sending committees of their own number to inspect the manner in which the teachers (usually two in former times) attended to their duties, and even calling special meetings to decide upon cases of discipline. But in 1854 the trustees leased the property to Rev. Mr. Kemble, upon certain conditions, one of which was that they were not to exercise any control over "the organization and internal regulations of the school." This sweeping condition reduced the establishment at once to the status of a private, select school. The present incumbent holds the property upon the same conditions, for a merely nominal term, and no trustee has a right to say a word in regard to "the organization and internal regulations of the school!" Negotiations have, indeed, upon several occasions been entered upon by the Board with the present Principal for the purpose of reorganizing the establishment and modifying its "internal regulations" so as to conform them more nearly to those which formerly existed, when several teachers were employed and younger pupils were admitted; but, although these attempts were met in a kind and accommodating spirit, no arrangement that was mutually satisfactory has hitherto been effected.

When I ventured to express the opinion, in the Board, years ago, that, instead of thus leasing this property, we would be exceeding our trust more effectually by presenting it to the city; I was answered that we had no right to make such a transfer, but would have to procure a special enactment of the Legislature empowering us to do so. I then determined to call public attention to the matter about the time when the present incumbent's lease would expire, and endeavor to have an act passed, as above indicated. Meanwhile the friends of education in the Commonwealth, seeing the eminent propriety of such a course planted an academy in the city, which was chartered by the State, secured the passage of a general act, providing for the transfer of all such property into the hands of those whom the State now recognizes as the proper custodians of the general educational interests of the people. This difficulty thus removed, I trusted that the change in question would speedily be effected; and that, by the acquisition of such a valuable property, the Board of Controllers of the common school of the city would be furnished with a sufficient answer to those who object on the ground of expense to the thorough grading of the schools and the establishment of one school of a superior grade, for each of the sexes.

For this reason I deeply regretted the application of my friend, the present principal, for a renewal of his lease. And I still more deeply regret that the board of trustees have determined to extend it until 1869. This renewal has indeed not yet been effected; nor do I believe that it will be, if the trustees, a bare majority of whom voted for it, are convinced that the general public desires them to comply with the manifest intent of the Legislature that all such property should be transferred to the school board of the district within which it is located.

A CHRISTIAN PARENT.

BANNWART'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES. For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannwart & Co. Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggist every where. Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864. C. A. BANNWART—Dear Sir: I have used your Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannwart's Bronchial Troches.

W. C. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church. HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864.

To C. A. BANNWART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c. JNO. WALKER JACKSON, Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNWART—Dear Sir: Having used your Bronchial Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat, or business of voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c. G. G. RAKESTRAW, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864. To C. A. BANNWART—Dear Sir: I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. MEDICAL.

DR. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL

IS THE VITAL PRINCIPLE OF THE PINE TREE. Obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medicinal properties are retained.

Have you a Cough? Have you Sore Throat? Have you any of the premonitory symptoms of that mortal disease, Consumption? Those who should be warned by these symptoms generally think lightly of them until it is too late. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, arises the sad prevalence and fatality of disease which sweeps to the grave at least "one-sixth" of death's victims.

Consumption has destroyed more of the human family than any other disease, and the best physicians for many years have despaired of a cure, or a remedy that would heal the lungs, but for more than two hundred years the whole medical world has been impressed that there was a mysterious power and efficiency in the Pine Tree Tar to heal the lungs; therefore they have recommended the use of Tar Water, which in many cases had a good effect; but how to combine the medicinal properties so as to heal the lungs, has ever been a mystery until it was discovered by Dr. L. Q. C. WISHART, of Philadelphia, Pa., the proprietor of "Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial."

Many, not only of the people, but physicians of every school and practice, are daily asking me, "What is the principle or cause of your success in the treatment of Pulmonary Consumption?" My answer is this:

The invigoration of the digestive organs—the purification and enrichment of the blood, must exist from the system the correction which scrofula breeds. While this is effected by the powerful alterative (changing from disease to health) properties of the Tar Cordial, its healing and renovating principle is also acting upon the irritated surfaces of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain, subduing inflammation, and restoring a healthy tendency. Let this two-fold power, the healing and the strengthening, continue to act in conjunction with Nature's constant recuperative tendency, and the patient is saved, if he has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure.

I ask all to read the following certificates. They are from men and women of unquestionable worth and reputation:

Dr. WISHART—Dear Sir:—I had a very dreadful cough and sore throat for one year, and my whole system was fast giving way, and I was prostrated on my bed with but little hope of recovering. My disease baffled the power of all medicines, and in a short time I must have gone to my grave, but thank God, my daughter-in-law would not rest until she went to your store, No. 10 N. Second street, and related my case to you, purchased one bottle of your Pine Tree Tar Cordial and I commenced to use it, and in one week I was much better, and after using three bottles I am perfectly well, and a wonder to all my friends, for they all pronounced me past cure. Publish my case if you think proper.

REBECCA HAMILTON, No. 1321 Wylie street, Philadelphia.

Dr. WISHART—Dear Sir:—I had Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, and Palpitation of the Heart in their worst forms; I had been treated by several of the most eminent physicians in Philadelphia, but they could not stop the rapid course of my disease, and I had despaired of ever being restored to health. I was truly on the verge of the grave. Your Pine Tree Tar Cordial was highly recommended to me by a friend. I tried it, and am thankful to say that, after using four large, and one small, bottles, I was restored to perfect health. You can give reference to my house, No. 968 N. Second street, or at my office of Receiver of Taxes, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., corner of Chestnut and Sixth streets.
